April 1st. "My Day!" says many a deluded fellow. The lamb crop is beginning to cause many a farmer a restless night.

We thought the woodbees were all over but Mr. A. Maynard and son had a buzz bee Monday and Graham Timmins is having his to-day. Ralph Staples' outfit is doing good work. The approaching spring days make bachelor chaps think that hog prices are desperately low but diamond rings ducedly dear.

A few farmers have been testing the maple trees but Jack Frost is still hugging their innards. Quite a number of our progressive fellows have purchased from one or more tons of western oats and barley and are highly pleased.
