THE EIGHTH DECENNIAL

Census of Canada

June 2, 1941

THE Census is the stock-taking of the nation — of its men, women, and children; its agriculture, trade, and industry; its housing, and general social condition. By it, all Governments, - Dominion, Provincial and Municipal-are enabled to work more effectively and economically in the interest of every resident of the Dominion.

N these days of increasing Government responsibilities, no Government can give the best service unless it has detailed and accu-L rate knowledge of - the people and their varying circumstances. That is why we request the co-operation of all Canadian citizens in the taking of the Census. When the Government's Enumerator calls at your door, receive him courteously and give him all the information for which he asks. Remember that he is in your service. Accuracy and despatch in your replies will promote good administration in your country, now under stress of war and facing crucial post-war

ALL INFORMATION SUPPLIED HELD STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL

You can place absolute trust in the official Enumerator, who is sworn to secrecy. All the information which you provide will be held in strictest confidence both by him and the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, and can never be used against you by any tax-col-lecting, military, or other agency, or in any

It is compulsory by law to answer the questions, but you will be assisting your Government in these difficult times by givno the information readily and accurately
