"Have you decided whether you're going to be a 'have' or a 'have not'?"

"Yes—I run my financial life in a business-like way. I save systematically. There may be illness. I'll want to buy things, help Canada's war effort by buying War Bonds, go on holidays. I save for these things—no matter how small the amount. That's how I'm being a 'have' instead of a 'have not'!"

EUGENIA
 (Held over from last week)
 Sunday was Mothers' Day. The church services was conducted by the Sunday school. Owing to the absence of the superintendent, Mr. Henry Falconer, the assistant superintendent, Mrs. J. C. Martin and the members of the organ. Marge Martin read a story emphasizing Mother's Day. Misses Betty and Ethel sang, "Tell Mother I'll be there", with Miss M. Betts at the organ. Margaret McMillan, the Sunday School organist, sang "The Blessing of the Mother". Mrs. Dr. Mercer delivered a fine address, taking his text from Proverbs 31. "Her children shall rise up and call her blessed". He spoke of the harm of cigarettes, alcoholic liquors and profane language and stressed the need of religious education, advising parents to send their children to Sunday School. The children of to-day will be mothers of the future and must be able to do good examples for others to follow; therefore parents of to-day should be leading factors in the moulding of the characters of their children.
 The P.E.U. met last Wednesday evening in the basement of the church. Mrs. Cairns conducted the worship and business periods. Discussion was in charge of Miss Edith Bett who took as her topic, "God's Wonderful Love". Readings were given by Edith and her sister and together they rendered a duet. A contest was conducted, after which the meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.
