Young - Wales

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Anglican Rectory, Walters Falls on Saturday, June 21st, when Jessie Viola, daughter of Mr. H. V. Wales became the bride of Thomas Henry Young, eldest son of Mr. Thomas Young of Berkeley.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. R. Rokeby-Thomas and was attended by the immediate friends of the contracting parties.

The bride was attired in a street-length dress of white silk sheer with white finger tip veil and white accessories and carried a bouquet of roses and fern. Miss Lulu Jerry of Meaford, as bridesmaid, wore a street length dress of turquoise sheer and carried a bouquet of roses. Little Doris Wales, sister of the bride, acted as flower girl. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. John Young.

The table for the wedding breakfast was beautifully decorated in an arrangement of pink and white and was centred with the three-story wedding cake. About eighteen guests enjoyed the sumptuous repast served by Mrs. Charles Wright and Mrs. Harry Wyville, friends of the bride.

The happy young couple left on a short honeymoon trip. For going away the bride wore a blue knitted dress, blue coat, with pink accessories to match. On their return they will reside in Walters Falls.

George - Stephenson

On Saturday evening, June 21st, Miss Annie Stephenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Stephenson of Artemesia, became the bride of Albert George, son of William George and the late Mrs. George of Markdale. The ceremony was performed at the United Church parsonage by Rev. S. E. Annis. The bride wore a dress of light blue sheer with matching coat and her coat collar, hat, shoes, gloves and purse were white. She was attended by her sister Miss Pauline, and the best man was Bert Ritchie.

Following the ceremony the bridal party returned to the home of the bride, where a sumptuous chicken supper was served to about twenty guests. The table was centred with a three-story bride's cake, flanked by bouquets of pink peonies and roses.

Friends present from outside points were Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Bewell, Mr. and Mrs. Mell Borden, Mr. and Mrs. Alf George, Miss Grace George, Stanley Seaback and Henry Williams, all of Toronto; Harry Bewell of Feversham; Miss A. Fisher and Wes. Stephenson of Guelph.

MARRIED

STURROCK - LUCAS—On Saturday, June 25th, in St. Paul's Anglican Chapel, Bloor Street, Toronto, by Bishop R. J. Rennison, Greta Lucas, daughter of Mrs. W. H. Hunter and the late Mr. Hunter of Toronto, to Murray Gray Sturrock, P.H.D., of Montreal, son of Mrs. David Sturrock and the late Mr. Sturrock of Toronto.

Productive Peony Plant

Mrs. Wm. E. Douglas of the Ebenezer district left in The Standard office the other day a stem from a peony plant on which are three well developed flowers. The plant at home is not a large one but on it are forty flowers with forty-three others in different stages of development. While this is not really an unusual thing it is not often that so many flowers are in bloom at the same time. Mrs. Douglas is quite proud of the productive qualities of her plant.

Frederick Cutting

Following a severe paralytic seizure suffered on Wednesday afternoon of last week Mr. Frederick Cutting passed away in Markdale on Saturday afternoon last. He was at work at the Hayward Falls property with Mr. W. N. Young when the stroke came and he was at once rushed to the hospital here. Some years ago he had suffered a similar seizure and had never regained normal health.

Frederick Cutting was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Cutting and was born in Euphrasia about 52 years ago. He was a carpenter by trade and was industrious and upright and held the esteem of a wide circle of friends. For some years before the death of Mrs. Cutting on August 29th, 1932, they resided in Markdale.

The deceased was a member of Saugeen Lodge No. 327, I.O.O.F., Markdale L.O.L. No. 1045 and Victoria Preceptory No. 252, R.B.K.

The late Mr. Cutting is survived by three daughters, namely: Alice, a nurse, in Hamilton; Devona in Hamilton, and Gladys in Markdale. A sister, Mrs. John Acheson, in Holland and a brother, Robert, in Euphrasia survive.

The funeral took place on Monday afternoon to Markdale cemetery. Service was held in Annesley United Church with the pastor, Rev. S. E. Annis, in charge. The pallbearers chinson, Geo. Littlejohns, Alvin were Messrs. Jas. Sample, Cliff. Hut-Poster, Wm. Stoddart and Alonzo Snell. At the cemetery the Orange burial service was read by the officier of L.O.L. No. 1045.

Mrs. Thos. Moran

Mrs. Thomas Moran died at her home on the townline of Holland and Glenelg after three years of failing health.

She was formerly Margaret Alice Ryan, a daughter of John and Ellen Ryan and was born on con. 6, Glenelg, near Irish Lake on March 9th, 1867. Forty-five years ago she was united in marriage to Thomas Moran and their family of one daughter and four sons survive. Mr. Moran is at present seriously ill in the Markdale Hospital, having entered there about two weeks ago. The children are: Mrs. Leonard McKeown (Kathleen) of Durham road west of Priceville; W. J. Moran of Durham, John, Frank and Charles at home. Mrs. Moran was a member of a family of six, two of whom still survive, James Ryan of Missoula, Montana and W. F. Ryan of Toronto.

The funeral took place on Saturday morning to St. Paul's R. C. Church, Dornoch where requiem mass was sung by her pastor, Rev. Father G. M. Ryan of Durham. A large crowd was in attendance. Many tributes were expressed in flowers and mass cards. The remains were laid to rest in St. Paul's Cemetery. Pallbearers were Messrs. Wm. C. Ritchie, Wesley Bradey, John Barry, Patrick Malone, David Bradley and John Jamieson. Those attending the funeral from a distance were Wm. F. Ryan, Nellie and John Jamieson of Toronto and Mr. John McNulty of Guelph.

Mrs. Moran was a kind and obliging neighbour and a much loved mother. She will be greatly missed in the home circle and the community.
