Mrs. J. B. Thibaudau visited with her sister, Mrs. Belle Thibaudau, in Toronto this week.

Mr. W. Hill, who has been ill for several weeks, was taken to Toronto last week for treatment.

Capt. W. E. Harris, who is taking a special course at Kingston, was home over the week-end.

Miss Helen Mercer of Toronto was a week-end visitor with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Mercer.

Misses Eileen and Agnes Pengelly of Churchville are visitors with their aunt, Mrs. J. H. Johnston.

Mr. N. L. Curry of Toronto, former clerk of Euphrasia township, was a visitor in town on Monday.

Mrs. R. B. Dunn and son, Marshall, of Toronto are visitors with Mrs. Edith Hutchinson and Nina.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Middleton of Zion City, Ill., visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thibaudau.

The local branch of the Red Cross Society has been enriched by $10.70 as the result of scrap sold recently.

W. B. Phillips, eye specialist, will be at the Murray Drug Store, Markdale, Tuesday afternoon, July 15th.

Sgt. W. J. Murphy of Datoe, Sask., is spending a couple of weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Murphy.

A. C. Stanley King of Manning Pool, Toronto, was a week-end visitor with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. King.

Mrs. G. W. Armstrong of Toronto is visiting relatives in town. She was accompanied by her son, Vernon over the week-end.

Mrs. Everett Cummings and Miss Joan of Flint, Mich., are visitors with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Crowston.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Moore and daughters, Doris and Colleen and son, Garry of Detroit visited with Mr. and Mrs. James Semple.

Mr. Mervyn Burnside of Kirkland Lake and Bert Brookes of North Bay visited with Mr. and Mrs. C. R. King and other friends.

Rev. B. L. and Mrs. Walden and children of Port Colbourne are holidaying with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Walden and Mr. and Mrs. Rich. English.

Jim Dick, who was teller in the Bank of Toronto here for some months, has joined the Navy and is now located at Hamilton for a few weeks before reporting at Halifax.

Mr. Garfield McFadden and daughter, Helen, of Detroit spent the holiday weekend with his mother, Mrs. James Nelson and Mr. Nelson and brother, Mr. George McFadden.

Mr. H. H. Davison, brother of Mrs. F. D. Sawyer, together with Mrs. H. H. Davison, Harrison and Miss June Davison, all of Windsor, spent the first part of the week visiting here in Markdale.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lamb, daughter, Jacquelyn and son, Barrie and Mrs. Elizabeth Welbanks of Detroit spent the fourth with friends in Markdale and vicinity. It is about forty years since Mr. Lamb left these parts and he sees many changes. While here, they visited the old Lamb homestead in Glenelg.

Mr. Ernest Smart of Rosedale left in the Standard office on Saturday evening a small sheaf of alfalfa which measures close to five feet in length. Mr. Smart has two acres in the field where 145 colls were rolled up from the crop when cut last week. This is extraordinary in a dry season such as this has been.

Mr. M. Norris of Barrhead had a bone broken in his hip on Friday last when he fell from a load of hay while assisting in farm operations. He was brought to the hospital here and later was taken to St. Michael's hospital in Toronto where an operation has been performed. He is now resting nicely with a splendid chance of permanent recovery.

The bingo games conducted each Saturday night by the members of Saugeen Lodge No. 327, I.O.O.F., to provide cigarettes for the boys from the district who are serving overseas have been well patronized. A week ago Saturday night Mr. M. Ryan gave a basket of groceries and this was won by Miss Clara McCarthy. Owing to the celebration on Saturday next there will be no games that night but on July 19th bingo will be played as usual. In addition to the money made at bingo Mr. P. G. Meila has been adding to the fund by giving his commission on chick sales and this to date has added quite a tidy sum to the total cigarette funds.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Edwards Wed 50 Years Ago

On Wednesday, July 8th, 1891, Rev. Jos. Edge, brother of the bride, united in marriage Mr. Robt. T. Edwards and Miss Ellen Edge. That was just fifty years ago and on Tuesday, July 8th, 1941 there were big doings at the Edwards home at Traverston in Glenelg township. The family had arranged for celebrating the event and all were present with their families: Elmo of Sault Ste. Marie, Keith and Spencer of Detroit; Ivan of Shelburne; Joseph of Glenelg; Will of Belleville and Mrs. S. Saunders of Berkeley. Mrs. Spencer of Napanee, sister of Mrs. Edwards, and Mr. Spencer were also present, as was also Mrs. C. W. Rutledge of Markdale, Mr. Edwards' sister. During the afternoon the family enjoyed themselves in presenting gifts and paying compliments to their parents.

In the evening the big event took place when about two hundred friends and neighbours gathered to do honour to the popular bride and groom of fifty years ago and whose popularity has waned not one mite in those long years. They were there from all parts of the township, from Durham, Markdale and other centres and all enjoyed the hospitality of the fine farm home of the Edwards.

Mr. Frank Irwin, editor of the Durham Chronicle, presided over a program which gave quite a number a chance to display their talent. One of the items on this program was the presentation of a pair of blankets to Mrs. Edwards and a pen and pencil set with a purse of money to Mr. Edwards. In reply to the address which was read Mr. Edwards gave a suitable and interesting address.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards have been good citizens of the community in which they live and on many occasions have provided leadership in activities which have tended to make Traverston community a better place in which to live. For more than fifty years Mr. Edwards has provided The Durham Chronicle and The Markdale Standard with items of interest from that community. It can be truthfully said that the Traverston community has been enriched in many ways because Bob and Ellen Edwards have taken a leading part in promoting good works, may they continue in good health and good work for many years to come is the sincere wish of the editors, families and staff of The Markdale Standard.

Korgaard - Graham

A quiet, but pretty ceremony took place in Annesley United Church at 5 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, June 28, when Gladys Amelia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Graham, was united in marriage to Danny Korgaard of Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Korgaard of Vestes Torsler, St. Jutland, Denmark. Rev. S. E. Annis officiated. The bride, given in marriage by her brother, looked lovely in pale pink triple sheer with pink turban and veil and white accessories wearing a corsage of Meril orchids and carrying a bouquet of pink and white roses and bouvardia. The bride's sister, Mrs. Gordon Wood, was her attendant and was gowned in pink sheer with powder blue hat and gloves and corsage of Briar Cliff roses and blue cornflowers. Mr. V. Madsen, a friend of the groom, was best man. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Rusk, at which about twenty guests were present. The dining room was prettily decorated in white streamers and the table decorated with cut flowers and centred with a two-storey wedding cake with lily-of-the-valley for top decoration. The bride was the recipient of many lovely and useful gifts including chevques.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Korgaard left on a motor trip along the shores of Lakes Huron and Erie. On their return they will reside in Toronto.

The best writer in South Grey is Norma Dennison of the Markdale School, taught by Mr. Messenger; the best spellers are: Lorna McIntosh of S. S. No. 14, Proton, taught by Mr. Harry Henderson; Valerie Brown of Holstein, taught by Miss Annie Dyer; Hazel Hopkins of No. 6 Bentinck, taught by Mr. Wallace Hetherington; Jean Mackey of No. 1 Bentinck, and Aleda Martin, both taught by Miss Dorothy McCallum, all of whom obtained full marks.

The best in grammar is Aleda Martin and the best in literature is Helen Halliday, a little twelve year old girl from No. 14 Normanby, taught by Mr. Donald Eastman.

Aleda Martin, Jane Robertson, Verna Becker, Frances Thibaudau, Elizabeth O'Neil, Irene Osborne, Will Kell, Joyce Hall, Reta McLay, Murray Gibbons and Jean Mackey, all obtained First Class Honours on every subject of the Course.

The youngest pupil to pass was Frances Thibaudau, a little girl from Cheeseville school in Artemesia who is just eleven years and eight months old. Three others passed who had not yet attained their twelfth birthday.

Miss Mildred Preston of No. 14 Proton, sent up three pupils and all won honour standing. Mr. Ruttle, principal at Dundalk sent up fourteen and all passed, seven obtaining honours. Mr. Wallace Hetherington of No. 6 Bentinck, prepared eight and all passed, three winning honours.

This year, in the six urban schools a total of 74 pupils were given their standing on their year's work, no examination being necessary. In those same schools 49 others wrote, and of those 25 passed. In those urban schools 24 won honours.

In the six townships 25 children were given their standing on their year's work while 121 others wrote, 89 passing. Twenty of those won honours.

In the six urban centres three pupils were given their standing on the Farm Employment plan, and in the six townships a total of 69 were passed this way.

The executive was urged at the meeting to make every effort to install lights. In this connection it was suggested that the Tennis Club hold a street dance later in the season for the purpose of raising sufficient funds.

The Tennis Club has been inactive for the past two years but interest is rising again. The courts last year were sadly neglected but several members have been working diligently on the courts and they are now in excellent condition.

Highlights of the Recent Entrance Examinations

Last week we published the names of the boys and girls of this district who passed the Entrance Examination, giving both pass and honour standing. Mr. Pentland, the Inspector, sends further information which will be of interest to our readers.

The Gold Medal, so kindly donated annually by Dr. Jamieson of Durham, formerly Speaker of the Legislative Assembly, was won this year by Aleda Martin of S. S. No. 1, Bentinck, taught by Miss Dorothy McCallum. There were two others, Verna Becker of Arton, taught by Mr. Harry Henderson and Jane Robertson of Markdale, taught by Mr. W. J. Messenger, who made a gallant race for this high honour, and the race was so close that the papers had to be re-read by a special committee. This re-reading made it clear that the winner was Aleda, but the race was close. Frances Thibaudau of Cheeseville school, taught by Miss Marion Thomas, B. A., and Elizabeth O'Neil of Separate School No. 7, Glenelg, taught by Miss Kenrick, also obtained very high marks.

The best writer in South Grey is Norma Dennison of the Markdale School, taught by Mr. Messenger; the best spellers are: Lorna McIntosh of S. S. No. 14, Proton, taught by Mr. Harry Henderson; Valerie Brown of Holstein, taught by Miss Annie Dyer; Hazel Hopkins of No. 6 Bentinck, taught by Mr. Wallace Hetherington; Jean Mackey of No. 1 Bentinck, and Aleda Martin, both taught
