LOYALTY MAKES BETTER COMMUNITY

In spending their money in an united effort the business places of Markdale and Berkeley have demonstrated that even yet we have those who desire to advance the interests of their own community. In these days of hustle and bustle and every man for himself it is refreshing to see community effort displayed in an effort to better our own centres. Community effort at the present time, compared with thirty or forty years ago, makes a poor showing. The effort of those represented below should be encouraged so that we may again bring loyalty and prosperity to our own doors.
