Eggs

WANTED: Two more eggs per month from every Hen in 1942.
Britain and Canada need more eggs than ever before and only efficient production will get them. A hopper of mash in every laying house is essential for maximum production. If a hen is worth keeping she is worth feeding; feed her well and she will pay you well. Keep your eggs clean and cool and market them often for best results.

Cream

With Canadians likely to consume a million more pounds of butter per month of 1941 than in 1940; and Britain needing more Dairy products than ever, it means that every Dairy Cow in Canada should be fed for maximum production, as the number of milk cows cannot be rapidly increased to meet the growing demand. Do your part and feed your cows well.
Every method is being made to save gasoline, so when you come to town bring your cream with you and decrease the number of trucks plying your lane.

Meat Service

You are invited to come and inspect our meat storage, and we feel sure that it will pay you to make use of it.

Eugenia, Aug. 20, 1941.
Dear Mrs. Carruthers,—We, the members of the Women's Association have assembled here this afternoon, with a two fold purpose. Firstly to conduct our usual monthly meeting and secondly to spend a social time in your honour before your departure from our midst. We regret very much that you have decided to go to Sault Ste. Marie to reside but we trust that you will come back before long.

You have been a very valuable member of our association for a number of years, later becoming one of our honorary members. Your assistance has been greatly appreciated in the many activities of the W. A. and will never be forgotten.
As a slight token of our love and esteem for you we ask you to please accept this string of pearls not for their intrinsic value but as a remembrance from our Society, conveying our very best wishes for your health and happiness and
May God's angels their soft wings display,
To guide you safely o'er danger's way.
And in your new home may happiness abide,
Though far distant, think of us who here reside.
Signed: The Women's Association.
