This young lady of twenty-five. whose home is in Australia, in the year of 1936 journeyed to Germany for the purpose of education, then on to France where, for the las three years she taught English and stadied music. Then the war broke out and at the same time she received word of her father's death in Australia. Her sole aim then was to get out of France and go back to her home to be of some comfort to her mother. This was a very difficult task as she had a German spy dressed in a French uniform following her around for over a week watching for the chance to imprison her for the duration of the sary all children are requested to be

Relief accounts to the total of $48.99 were received and passed.
Live stock claims as follows were received from the valuers and payment authorized: W. J. Pears, 1 lamb killed $10.00.
It was moved by Wilbert Sutcliffe and seconded by Russell Dixon that this Council desires to record with very great regret the sudden passing of George Hanna, Reeve of Holland since 1933 and a member of Council since 1932, and to express to Mrs. Hanna and their children our warmest sympathy. Every member of Council since 1932 to the time of his untimely passing bears testimony to his constant interest in all that pertained to the well being of the township, and his readiness to help by advice and direction.
His work uniformly well done is the finest tribute to his memory, and should be a satisfying remembrance in the minds of those he leaves to carry on the family tradition. May God in His Providence comfort and support his widow and children is the prayer of the members of the Township Council.

The Township of Holland has lost a competent official, the comminity a good citizen, but most of all his family a kind husband and father.—Carried.
