

LET US BE THANKFUL!

Let us give thanks that we are living to-day—even though there is a world war raging—instead of 40, 50 or 60 years ago.

A few decades ago the average person had to travel miles to buy the bare necessities of life, and the travelling was something to write home about on a rainy day. When you got to the store—such as it was—the selection was confined to the bare necessities of those days, and you couldn't compare the prices with other "shopping centres."

But even with all those difficulties, folks bought at home, from their nearest store or business place. Those business places were the big ones which communities grew. Every Ontario community to-day owes its existence to its merchants and business men.

From the beginning created by those pioneers in the business world most of us to-day owe the chance we have to earn our daily bread. Without them our communities—large or small—would wither and decay into emptiness.

The bulk of our taxes are paid by business places. The great bulk of the flow of business—which means money—comes from our shopping centre and helps keep us all in the comforts of modern civilization, directly and indirectly.

This is just ONE reason why we should be loyal to our local business men. Just ONE REASON.

Take advantage of the advertisements and let them help you do your shopping AT HOME. Let them be your guide to better buys and satisfaction. The home merchant stands behind his goods.

TOWNSEND LAKE

(Intended for last week)
Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moran and family was a nephew, Donald W. J. Ramsey. He is at the Artillery Training Centre, Fort Brandon Barracks, Brandon, Manitoba and was visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity while on his two weeks furlough.

Miss Marie Moran spent the week-end at her home in Br. Mrs. Joseph Richardson spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Brader.

Mr. Thom. Moran returned home after spending two weeks with his daughter, Mrs. Leonard McKewen and Mr. McKewen of Pricville.

Miss Agnes Malone returned to her home after spending a few days with her sisters in Toronto.

Mrs. Ed. Crimles and children, Edward and Marie, also her sister, Miss Genevieve McCall, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moran and other relatives, returning home Monday.

fall of France a little more than one year ago, a miracle has been wrought. While Canadians fumed against the loss of the battle of Britain, the Canadian military and industrial leaders were working night and day to draft the blueprint of Canada's magnified war machine and to set in motion the wheels that would make her contribution to the Empire cause one of which every Canadian may rightly be proud.

That the editors gladly embraced this unique opportunity may be taken for granted. Here we have had known all too little of the inside story of the huge machine which constitutes Canada's contribution to the fight against Hitlerism. Not in a position to inform their readers, the majority were inclined to give voice to the growing impatience on the part of the Canadian public with an all-out effort. Until the fall of France in June, 1940, it is probably true that Canada had done all too little. That is no longer the today. The Canadian editors were treated to a spectacle that not only literally opened their eyes but inspired pride and strengthened faith in the part that Canada is playing and will play in an ever-growing scale in aiding the Mother Country.

Everything Wide Open
Everything was thrown wide open to the prying eyes of the visiting editors. Nothing was held back. We had with us Brigadier Kenneth Stuart, D. S. O., M. C., Vice-Chief of the General Staff, together with distinguished representatives of every branch of the service, including the Department of Munitions and Supplies, as well as G. Herb. Lamb, Minister of Public Works and Supply, J. W. C. Clark, Director of Public Relations for Army and R.C.A.F., and members of their staffs. Their policy was that every bit of truthful information should be forthcoming. And it was. Nor did they place any restrictions on the contents of our stories aside from the well-known rules of the censorship.

Not only did these men utilize every waking moment to answer the million questions leveled at them by their guests, but they made sure that every Camp Commandant, every factory head and every officer revealed the whole show and held nothing back. At Ottawa, the editors were entertained at a dinner at which Hon. J. L. Ralston, Hon. C. D. Howe and Hon. C. G. Powers were the principal speakers. The general impression was that these men were sincerely trying to do a job. They were frank in admitting their mistakes and Hon. Mr. Ralston declared that one mistake was in having fought forefete in letting the light flood into editorial minds that their readers, the Canadian public, might know the true story of Canada's war achievements.

A Real Achievement.
It is an achievement, too, as these articles aim to tell, not just an effort, a word that falls on deaf ears, but true emphasis. We also add that not once throughout the entire eight-day pilgrimage was the word "politics" heard. The men who were our hosts, were far too intensely absorbed in the task of sharpening Canada's tools of war to worry for a moment about politics. # Money!!

That's what we've been asking for during the last couple of weeks. During that time we have received quite a nice little bit, perhaps ten per cent of what is owing us. When we say we need money we are telling the truth. Please let us have your little bit. We need it. Thank you.
