TRAVERTON

"Where are my mitts and cap?" was many a school boy's query on Tuesday morning, Oct. 28.
There is many a patch of turnips still in the rain-soaked fields while very few farmers have their garden vegetables housed.
Mr. and Mrs. Jos. R. Edwards made a trip to Meaford district for a supply of winter apples on Friday afternoon and found most of the orchardists had disposed of all their stock. They were fortunate to find the Batty Bros. with a good quantity still unsold and secured some fine fruit.
The fellows who sowed their fall wheat in August, may well be a trifle anxious when they see the yellow patches creeping over the fields—Hessian fly at work.
Mr. Frank McAssey had the ill luck of losing a valuable horse last week from acute indigestion. He purchased him at Mrs. James Murphy's sale last spring.
Mr. J. C. Cook has recently had the telephone installed in his home and a new radio, both of which bring them into closer touch with their neighbors and the world at large.
Miss Clara Jack, Miss Bernice Gurnin, Miss Watters and Mr. Patrick O'Connor attended the Big Teachers' Convention held in Durham on Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Keith Edwards and wife Kay of Detroit paid the Edwards homestead a short visit one day last week.
Zion Sunday School closed for the season on Sunday after a most successful season, both in attendance and financially.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Patton of Toronto visited with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bryans the first of the week.
There are a couple of bright maidens wearing brilliant sparklers on the third finger of their left hand. Good news.
A short adv. in the Standard brings speedy results and we note that its every issue carries a goodly number. Last week Mrs. A. A. Thompson of Wodehouse advertised a number of Hampshire fowl. Having sold most of our flock at the Jewish New Year we've been short on egg rations since. Her adv. took us over there on Monday and we landed home with the whole flock. Wodehouse will sorely miss this bright and helpful neighbour when she leaves soon for her new home in the bustling and picturesque city of Hamilton. 'Twas a pleasure to meet her and her stalwart and progressive son, Stewart and the kindly and thoughtful neighbor, Mrs. Clarke, who was helping her to pack up.

PLEASANT VALLEY

A number from this line attended the chicken pie supper at Harkaway on Thursday night.
Mr. and Mrs. T. Woods and son, Billy, of Elora visited on Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ritchie.
Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hodgkinson and family visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wiley of Wodehouse.
Miss Doris Clarke of Lily Oak spent Sunday with Miss Leita McInnis.
A few of the hockey fans from this community attended the game in Owen Sound on Wednesday night and had the pleasure of seeing the Toronto Maple Leafs play the game.
Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McMillan and son of Bethel visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Bradley.
Several ladies from this line attended the Red Cross quilting in Berkeley on Tuesday when five quilts were quilted.
The children in this school section are quite excited over the hallo-ween social they are having on Friday night in the school house in aid of the Junior Red Cross.
Mr. and Mrs. Dan Macaulay visited in Owen Sound one day recently with their daughter, Mrs. Leonard Strange, who is ill, and with Mr. Strange.

CHERRY GROVE

Old King winter made his first appearance on Monday night. But it was chilly.
Mr. Albert Hayes spent the weekend with his wife at Hamilton.
Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Fawcett of Thornbury visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bowler and Arnold.
Mr. John Cameron and sons gave a very delightful dance on Thursday evening. Everyone reports a good time.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burnett of Clarksburg visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Levi Burnett and family.
Miss Alice Freeman of Markdale visited on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Will Dickie. Mrs. Cecil Williamson and family visited on Wednesday at the same home.
Misses Eunice Colgan and Nina Hutchinson of Markdale and baby Ruth visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ran Bradey.
Mr. and Mrs. Hockley of Maxwell visited recently with their daughter, Mrs. Cecil Hayes and Mrs. Hayes.
Mr. Russell Harvey and Miss Tressa of Weston spent the weekend at their parental home.
Mr. Mitchell Harvey's raising on the 20th was quite successful from every point of view. It was raised in good time and now is boarded in and the rafters ready for the steel roof.
Miss Sadie Harvey has gone to Goring neighborhood this week to spend a few weeks.
Mrs. Roy Bowler and Miss Inez Brown are to be hostesses for the Red Cross meeting on Thursday, Nov. 6th.
