HARKAWAY

The late William James Hawken, a highly esteemed and life long resident of this community passed away very suddenly early Tuesday evening at his home in his eighty-ninth year. While not enjoying the best of health lately, he was able to go about as usual and the end came very suddenly while stooping to pick up an axe. Those left to mourn are his widow and daughter, Mrs. John Loughheed of St. Marys and sons, Joseph, Harry and Sid of Harkaway. The funeral, which was largely attended, took place New Years day from his late home to Harkaway Church. Rev. J. A. Irwin had charge of the service. The pallbearers were Messrs. Chester Rodman, Roy Rae, Will Halbert, Lloyd Lyons, Albert Rusk and John Menary. Burial took place in the Harkaway Cemetery. We extend our sincere sympathy to the widow and family in their loss.
