Mrs. Alex. McFayden Passes

Death removed a highly esteemed citizen Wednesday night when Mary Muir, wife of Alexander McFayden, passed away at her home the result of a stroke.

The late Mrs. McFayden was the daughter of the late William and Mary Muir of the Six Corners, near Ceylon and was born 74 years ago. 53 years ago she married her surviving husband and continued to live in this community.

The late Mrs. McFayden had been in poor health for some time but had been around until a month ago. Since then she had been confined more or less to bed. The last week she had become worse and only on Wednesday had decided to enter a hospital for treatment.

Mrs. McFayden had a very kindly disposition, quiet and reserved and will be greatly missed by an intimate circle of friends.

Besides her sorrowing husband, she is survived by one sister, Mrs. Wm. Burnett of Ceylon. Three sisters predeceased her, Mrs. Kate Murdoch of Caledon East, Mrs. Janet McFayden of Ceylon and Mrs. Margaret Kyle of Weston.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon when Rev. Brown of Dundalk Presbyterian Church delivered a very comforting address. The pallbearers were Messrs. George Arrowsmith, Alex. S. and Stewart Muir, Frank Collinson, Joe Stauble and Melville Hogarth. Internment was made in Priceville cemetery. Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. McFayden in his bereavement.

Steel Is Rationed In Canada To-day!

Shortage of Cream Cans Threatens Canada's Dairy Industry
APPEAL TO ALL OUR FARMERS

Steel "priorities" have stopped the purchase of steel in Canada for all but essential industries. This means that cream cans will become almost impossible to secure. Already there is talk of an impending shortage, and the prices have advanced sharply.

A general appeal is being made throughout Ontario to have all extra cream cans (whether damaged or rusty) returned to the creameries. These will be repaired and re-tinned if necessary and put to their proper use. Good cans are urgently needed of course. THE BETTER THE BETTER!

We make the appeal to all FARMERS to give your best co-operation in restoring these cream cans to general circulation again.

CANADA NEEDS THOSE CANS!
Creamery closed Saturday night till further notice.
