Cherry Grove Red Cross

The regular monthly meeting o Cherry Grove Red Cross was eld at the home of Mesdames Dougas on Thursday afternoon, June 25. with a large attendance of Tiltors nd members to enjoy the hospitalitr of the hostesses. There were two quilts finished and considerable nitting done.

The president called the meeting order and opened by singing "The laple Leaf Forever" and repeating he Lord's prayer in unison. Severil subjects of discussion arose from minutes of the May meeting which were read by the secretary and final arrangements were mad for the entertainment and dance to be held in the school house July 3. The play, "Don't Darken My Door" s a good one with plenty of laughs and has been given nearly a score of imes in different places which speaks for itself. Come along and enjoy yourself at the play and the out for some air and to the shed for real old fashioned barn dance
