Rev. B. L. Walden Spoke To Rotary Club

At the regular meeting of the Rotary Club on Tuesday Rev. B. H. Walden, a former-Markdale boy was the guest speaker. His address, based on "Education for Life", is given below:

I cherish the privilege accorded me this evening to address the members of the Rotary Club in my own home town of Markdale. One of the first principles of Rotary, as I understand it, is the cultivation of friendship and mutual helpfulness through regular weekly contacts. Moreover, each Rotarian is interested in the respective vocations and occupations of every other Rotarian as well as deeply interested in international affairs toward the advancement of better personal and national understandings, good-will and peace with all of which I am most heartily in sympathy and accord.

Now in my address to you this evening on "Education for Life" I am carrying into effect all these valued principles of your organization just enunciated, and knowing as I do that there are perhaps members of your organization of the Jewish, Roman Catholic and Protestant persuasions here this evening, let me assure you that nothing I have to say is in any sense controversial even though it does most intimately touch religion. I shall try in the few moments at my disposal to point out my personal outlook as a clergyman on affairs of international interest which concern us all. And I feel sure that anything I say to you this evening might easily have been said by anyone here irrespective of his personal religious background.

In a book entitled "Education For Death" by Dr. Gregor Zieiner—a review of which appeared in the February number of the Readers' Digest, the people of the America's were given an intimate knowledge and insight of the Nazi education of children in its various stages—prenatal, infancy to the age of six, six to ten, ten to eighteen, and from eighteen on. Its ideological foundations for the male and female were stressed, as well as its stern, ruthless, efficient logical regimentation. And as I read I said to myself, "which of the ten commandments, which we all profess, has Hitler and his satellites not broken?" They have not only broken them themselves, but with heinous and malicious indoctrination they have taught the youth of a great nation to break them with all the deep fanaticism of a religious faith. Dr. Zieiner, who was Director of Education for education of children of American ambassadors and all who were connected with the legation in Berlin, knew whereof he spoke. He was exceptionally privileged by the Nazis in seeing intimate sights of the Nazi system at work and when he calls it "Education for Death"—it is that and no less. The Christian education is unto life, but the Nazi education is unto death and from a few moments meditation on salient features of our own religious ideology compared and contrasted with that of the Nazis, we may learn to value those things which many of us have either sadly neglected or ignored.

First, among several things I would mention in this comparison and contrast is the Nazi sin of war mongering. From our point of view there is much to be said in praise of military training, its fine discipline, the cultivation of the spirit of obedience, its respect for leadership, and its conduciveness to physical strength. Moreover as one of our great statesmen of to-day has pointed out, military force is an essential aspect of the life of a state in order that the more gentle influence of life, such as religion for instance, may have freedom to develop. One of the preparations for World Christianity for instance in the time of and following the days of Jesus Christ—was the tolerance and fairness and respect for law and order enforced among barbarians and civilized peoples alike by the Roman legions. I do not wish to press this point unduly, only to note it. But if order is Heaven's first law, then there must be a respect for law where order is to be preserved. Now over against this recognition of the value of military force and our traditional respect for law and order we must place the Nazi disgrace and farce. Let us think of their doctrine in the realm of law first. We are told that the Nazis

Big Apples From Dwarf Trees in Markdale

Mr. I. B. Lucas left an apple in the office the other day which would have made our teeth water in our younger days. It is of the Yellow Transparent variety and weighs 13 ounces, is 12 inches around one way and 13 inches the other. Mr. Lucas has several trees of the dwarf variety but the fruit which they produce is of the giant size.

New England W. A.

The New England Women's Association met at the home of Mrs. Victor Wiley on Thursday afternoon, August 13th, with an attendance of thirteen members and several visitors. The meeting was opened in the regular way. Scripture was read from Psalm 34 by Mrs. Buchanan. A discussion took place about our anniversary but nothing definite was decided on. The September meeting is to be missionary and if possible have a special speaker.

The program consisted of readings by Miss Ruth Wiley, "What Counts"; Mrs. Buchanan, "Why doesn't God do something?"; Mrs. Willard Wiley, Fern and Marion rendered a number; reading by Doreen Wiley, "Hope On". A contest, put on by Miss Dorothy Wiley, was won by Mrs. S. Clugston.

At the close of the meeting a delicious supper, prepared by all and served on the lawn was thoroughly enjoyed.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Stanley Clugston. A special collection was taken and amounted to $12.70.

even to the despoilation and bleeding white of conquered territory are at pains to first enact laws to their own ends so that everything is legal. They are at pains to make all their acts of infamy legal. When Dr. Zieiner demurred about certain operations performed upon women in the Third Reich, his Nazi guide said: "We have courts my dear Herr Director Zieiner. It is all done very legally rest assured." But this is a travesty on law! Civilization has been a tremendous struggle to eradicate unjust and infamous laws from the legal codes and statute books of the world; but now—in a so-called Christian country and of boasted culture—we have the spectacle of legalized butchery, robbery and immorality flaunted in the face of the whole world. Not only are the commandments broken; not only is it sinful and immoral—but far more significant still—it is legalized immorality.

Mrs. H. Tuck

Mrs. Hannah Tuck, widow of the late Sanford Tuck of this village, passed away in Toronto General Hospital on Friday. She was 81 years of age. The late Mrs. Tuck, who had been an invalid for the past few years, had been visiting in Toronto for a few weeks with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. McKenzie. Some ten days prior to her death she fell, and broke her hip and was taken to the hospital. There she seemed to be making satisfactory progress toward recovery, but owing to other physical conditions she passed away quite suddenly. The remains were brought home on Saturday for burial.

Mrs. Tuck was born at Churchville, and came, while quite young, with her parents and elder members of her family to Maxwell, where she grew to womanhood and was married to Mr. Tuck. About sixty years ago they came to Markdale to live and during the years proved worthy and respected citizens. Mr. Tuck passed away nine years ago. Mrs. Tuck made her home with her son, Thomas, here, who, with his wife, has given to his mother every care during her declining years. Mrs. Tuck was for many years a member of Cooke's Presbyterian Church.

The funeral was held from the home on Monday afternoon. The services at the house and cemetery were conducted by her pastor, Paul Rumball, assisted by Rev. C. O. Pherrill, rector of Christ Church.

The pallbearers were Russell Boyce, Geo. Whitney, Clarence Londry, Louis Fisher, Earl Croft and Calvin Boyce. A profusion of beautiful flowers expressed the love and sympathy of many friends.

Those present from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. O. M. McKenzie of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Boyce and family of Maxwell and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Adams of Brampton.

Surviving are two sons, Thomas of Markdale, and Harry of Boissevain, Man., and two daughters, Mrs. O. M. McKenzie of Toronto and Mrs. J. J. Boyce of Maxwell.

Thos. Howard Clark Killed On Tuesday

Howard Clark, a respectable farmer of the seventh line of Euphrasia, was instantly killed on Tuesday forenoon at his home where he and a nephew, Gordon Clark, were hitching the team to the binder. Mr. Clark was standing in front of the team, just in the act of placing the tongue of the binder into the ring of the neck-yoke, when the horses took fright and leaped forward, passing over him. The large wheel of the binder passed over his neck breaking it. There was nothing to show as to what started the horses and they bolted so suddenly that he had no chance to escape.

The late Mr. Clark was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark, early residents of the Sligo district. He was born and had always lived on the home farm. He was in his 72nd year and was unmarried.

Surviving are four brothers and five sisters, Richard, John and Robert of Euphrasia; George of Ladner, B.C.; Mrs. Harry Trotter of Vancouver, B.C.; Mrs. Edward Salisbury of Brampton; Mrs. Vic. Swanton of Buffalo; Mrs. Richard Genoe, and Mrs. John R. Dillon of Markdale.

The funeral will take place on Thursday to the Markdale cemetery with service at the house at 2 p.m.

Surprise Presentation

The home of Alvin Foster was the scene of a happy gathering last Thursday evening when the Ladies' Aid of Cooke's Presbyterian Church held a corn and Weiner roast.

Later in the evening a "surprise" presentation was made to Mr. and Mrs. Rose Alcox on the occasion of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. An address was read by Irene Osborne and Mrs. Geo. Messenger presented a silver flower basket filled with lovely flowers. Little Blanche McCullough also presented Mrs. Alcox with a pretty nosegay. A "birthday" cake was decorated with twenty-five lighted candles.

Following is the address: Dear Mr. and Mrs. Alcox.—We, the members of Cooke's Presbyterian Ladies' Aid, have gathered here, not only to spend a social evening but to honour you on your twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

You have both been very faithful and willing workers in Cooke's Church, serving in every organization, including the choir and Sunday School. As president of the Ladies' Aid, Mrs. Alcox, you have excelled!

We ask you to accept this gift, as a tangible expression of our sincere appreciation of your work, and our best wishes for your future. May it ever remind you that your work is appreciated and that we wish for you the very best of health, happiness and prosperity.

May life grow brighter
As the years slip along;
May it hold more of joy.

More of sunshine and song!
And whatever the roads,
Or whatever the weather,
May your hearts only grow

The more closely together!
May the joy that fills your hearts today, continue to enrich each hour, through all life's winding way!

Cooke's Ladies' Aid.
