EBENEZER

Mr. and Mrs. R. Kirktown and family of Holland Centre visited with Mr. and Mrs. H. Hutchinson. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Taylor and Wayne were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thompson.

Mrs. Thos. Freeman, Roy and Alice spent the week-end with friends in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Scott of Georgetown, newly-weds, spent a week with the latter's parents and other friends.

Mrs. Genoa, sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Genoa and children were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Clark of Sligo recently.

Stanley Brodie was a visitor with his uncles, Messrs. Earl and Chas. Davis of the East Backline.

A miscellaneous shower was held at the Hutchinson home in honour of Mr. and Mrs. H. Scott on Monday evening when many beautiful gifts were received. The wishes of the community go with them in their new home.

The New England Girls' Garden Brigade held their Achievement Day at the home of Mrs. R. Freeman on Saturday afternoon last. The girls had a display of their produce, also their canned tomatoes. Miss Flora Durnin was present and judged the girls' work, presenting certificates to the girls who have completed a second course. Eight girls received certificates. Mr. Brown from the Department was present and judged the vegetables on display and gave a splendid talk on "Garden Produce", showing the girls the good and wrong points about vegetables.

All present felt they received many useful suggestions on how to can, cook and prepare your garden produce.

100,000 WAYS TO WIN THE WAR

How American inventors are thinking up new tricks to beat the Axis, is reported in The American Weekly with this Sunday's (Sept. 27 issue) of The Detroit Sunday Times.....and while some of the ideas seem crazy, remember Leonardo DaVinci's brainstormings of 400 years ago, a lot of which have become realities. Be sure to get Sunday's Detroit Times.
