Cards of Thanks

To the Electors of Markdale:
Ladies and Gentlemen,—Having had my services rewarded by being returned to the Council at the head of the poll I feel that I must return sincere thanks. I have served you as best I could in an honest way, guarding the welfare of the taxpayers and will continue to do so.
Sincerely yours,
H. S. Merriam

To the Electors of Markdale:
Ladies and Gentlemen,—At this time I desire to acknowledge with thanks the support given me at the poll on Monday. I shall continue to give you the best service I know how without catering to the whims of individuals.
A. E. Scott

To the Electors of Markdale:
Ladies and Gentlemen,—Having been again returned as a Councillor I desire to thank all those who supported me. I am prepared to give you the same service as I did when in before. With best wishes for all,
I am
Yours truly,
John R. Dillon

To the Electors of Markdale:
Ladies and Gentlemen,—Please accept my sincere thanks for the vote you gave me on Monday. I can but promise that my best judgment will be used in every case to your advantage. I have my all invested in Markdale and I am as anxious for the advancement of Markdale as any man residing here.
Yours sincerely,
M. A. Henry

To the Electors of Markdale:
Ladies and Gentlemen,—Sincere thanks for the support given me on Monday. During the past year I gave my best efforts on your behalf and appreciate the fact that so many of the electors endorsed an honest effort. The regulations are there and the oath of a Councillor makes it a duty to see that they are enforced and makes a perjurer of the person who fails to do his honest duty. Thanks to all and may the village continue to receive the same good government as in 1942.
Sincerely yours,
Stanley York

To the Electors of Markdale Public School Board:
Ladies and Gentlemen,—Please accept my thanks for the support given me at the poll on Monday. While I did not make the grade I am appreciative of the support I received. Best of luck to all.
Earl Hannah

Presentation to L.A.C. Leslie Pitt and Bride

On New Year's day friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Osborne in Glenelg to do honour to L.A.C. Leslie Pitt and his bride. The following address was read:

Dear Jean and Leslie,—It affords your friends and neighbours much pleasure to be gathered here this evening. Please accept our expression of good wishes to you for a joyous wedded life.

As you, Jean and Leslie, have resided in our midst for some time, we are all aware of your readiness to help in all walks of life. As a slight token of the esteem in which you are held in this community we ask you to accept these gifts.

Signed on behalf of the friends and neighbours.
Melvin Tebbutt
Oscar Brown
Both Mr. and Mrs. Pitt made fitting replies.

"MARCHING THROUGH BERLIN"
HIT TUNE CHOSEN BY VAUGHN MONROE

The whole nation will be singing it soon! The American Weekly with this Sunday's (January 10) issue of The Detroit Sunday Times will bring you "Marching Through Berlin", the first song in series of "Hits to Be for '43". Watch for it, COMPLETE WITH WORDS AND MUSIC. Be sure to get Sunday's Detroit Times.

To the Electors of Markdale:
Ladies and Gentlemen,—Again I want to thank you for the support at the poll. During the years I have been privileged to serve you I have done so, with the village as a whole, in mind. I hope to see the village served faithfully and well by those who now assume the responsibility.
Yours truly,
W. J. Colgan

To the Electors of Markdale Public School Board:
Ladies and Gentlemen,—The generous way in which you supported me in the recent election was beyond expectation and this support is deeply appreciated. I wish to assure you that my new duties will be carried out to the best of my ability.
Yours truly,
Maurice K. Evans.

To the School Electors:
Ladies and Gentlemen,—I thank you for the splendid vote given me on Monday. I shall do my best to be worthy of the support accorded me.
Yours truly,
R. G. Noble

New Year's Eve Shower

A number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Davis on New Year's eve and presented Mr. and Mrs. Davis with a miscellaneous shower. The early part of the evening was spent in dancing and card playing. At midnight Charlie and Irene were asked to be seated and the following address was read by Clare Foster:

Dear Charlie and Irene,—We, your friends and neighbors have gathered at your home this New Year's eve to extend to you our sincere good wishes that a happy life may be yours.

You, Charlie, have grown up in our midst and because we believe that real happiness is found in domestic relationship, love and companionship being the best treasures this world has to offer we were delighted when we learned you had found your life partner in Irene.

To you, Irene, we say that as a bride who has come to a farm to-day, you have a happier lot before you than a bride who starts in a shower way with city blocks to bore her. You will learn life can be beautiful to a woman who lives on a farm and gives and takes from the earth instead of the town.

Then to you, Charlie and Irene, we lay in your hands our love and our hope and we ask you to accept as a tangible remembrance of these our gifts.

Signed on behalf of the neighbors and friends.
John Teeter, James McLoughry, Clare Foster, Bert McLoughry.
The groom made a suitable reply. Lunch was served and dancing resumed for a few hours with Mr. and Mrs. Bussey and Mr. H. Cherry of Markdale supplying the music.

WODEHOUSE

The New Year 1943
There were many festive gatherings and though everyone put their right foot foremost there was still a heavy heart and the smothered sigh for the homes bereaved by war and those in distant lands who still carry the weight of war horrors on this a fourth War Christmas.

The public and Sunday School held a combined Christmas tree concert in the church on Wednesday evening, prepared by the teacher, Miss Wiley. Santa Claus arrived at the close and delighted the awaiting children with gifts from the Christmas tree.
