Support The Odd Fellows' Cigarette Fund

Just the other day a young officer, home on leave from England, was invited to say a few words at a meeting of his Dad's Service Club.

He thanked the Club for all the gifts which had reached him regularly, but he singled out for special comment only one item—the cigarettes. He stressed the fact that no other gift means so much to the boys overseas. The supply is never equal to the demand.

"We know our boys overseas want all the cigarettes they can use. The Odd Fellows' Fund has supplied many packages to the boys. If you have not contributed to this fund do so at once. The boys overseas have been watching The Standard to see your name among the contributors. We receive donations at The Standard office and acknowledge them in the current issue."

Rotarians Held Interesting Meeting On Monday

The members of Markdale Rotary Club went to Holland Centre for their meeting on Monday and had an enjoyable and profitable gathering. Each member had as his guest a farmer from the Holland Centre district and the supper was provided by the women of the United Church. Mr. Elgin Senn, chief hog grader with the Dominion Department of Agriculture, was the guest speaker. He gave a talk on "Bacon for Britain." During the years of the last war 720,000,000 pounds of bacon were shipped to the old land.

After the close of the war, because of an inferior product, the amount shipped fell off until in 1931 only 11,000,000 pounds were shipped and the price fell to $3.50 per hundred. By better feeding methods and careful handling this year's shipments will reach 675,000,000 pounds. If the Canadian farmer does his job well we will eventually have a tremendous market in England but we must supply what they want.

Mr. T. S. Cooper introduced the speaker and Gordon Beaton thanked him on behalf of the club.

The B.-A. Oil Co. supplied a reel of pictures, showing the various operations in the packing plants in connection with the killing and preparing of the bacon for the old country market.

Altogether it was one of the most enjoyable meetings yet held and the fowl supper provided by the Holland Centre women was much appreciated.

Morrow of Massie, D.D. G.M. of Grey District, Mr. T. H. Reburn, Mr. Carl Carruthers of Kimberley. Mr. W. J. Messenger proposed the toast to the ladies.

RATION NEWS

The canning sugar coupons have been mailed with the exception of a few, for which no addresses were given by the applicants at the time application was made for the sugar. So if you have failed to receive your coupons, kindly notify the Local Ration Board at Flesherston at once and include your complete address.

According to recent announcement by the Sugar Administrator, no sugar purchased with Sugar Canning Coupons may be used for making jam from dried fruits such as prunes. No sugar is allowed for jam or jelly made with pectin as jam or jelly made without pectin uses two and one-quarter times as much fruit as that made with pectin. No canning sugar is to be used to make pickles or for the home canning of vegetables. Sugar saved from your weekly ration may be used for this purpose. This ruling applies also to the canning of marrow, pumpkins or tomatoes.

American visitors to Canada will be granted sugar for home canning provided their stay is longer than eight weeks. Application should be made to the Local Ration Board. Allowance will not exceed 10 lbs. per person.

When filling in the necessary form to obtain a new ration book for a child, be sure it is completely filled in and that the declaration is signed before a Commissioner or other public official as requested, unless a birth certificate or baptismal certificate is forwarded with the completed form to the Local Ration Board at Flesherston.

In Memoriam

MYERS—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Wm. Myers, who passed away one year ago, June 17th, 1942.

Home is not home as mother isn't there.

God has taken her out of our care.

One, precious to our hearts, has gone.

The voice we loved is stilled.

The place is vacant in the home.

And can never more be filled.

Ever remembered by her three daughters: Hattie, Annie and Vera.
