

Cold Storage Facilities

With the amount of sugar limited for the canning of fruit this year it will pay you well to rent a locker and freeze your fruit. Only a small amount of sugar is necessary with the minimum of labour in preparing and holding your fruit in this manner. We have Government prepared pamphlets on the freezing of fruits and vegetables. Act NOW!!

NOTICE

The consumers statement of meat held in lockers must be sent to the Ration Administration by June 30. We have forms at the Creamery for this.

WODEHOUSE

(Intended for last week)
The longest day of the year has come and gone for another year, June 21st.
The news of the sudden passing of Mrs. Albert Thompson of Meaford came as a shock to this neighborhood where she was a resident for many years. She was of a retiring disposition but made many friends here who extend heartfelt sympathy to her bereaved husband and family, namely, Elmer at home, Mrs. Leslie Fawcett of Meaford and Mrs. Harry Beckley of Grimsby. The funeral took place to New England Cemetery on Friday afternoon. Service was held in New England Church, conducted by Mr. Buchanan and assisted by her pastor.
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fawcett and two children of Flesherton were guests at the former's parental home, Mr. and Mrs. R. Fawcett.
Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hilliard spent a day recently with the former's brother, Aaron, at Southampton.
Mr. W. Walsh and family and Mr. W. Lawson were in Hamilton on Thursday of last week. They were accompanied by Mrs. Sam Wiley who visited a few days with her son, Gladwyn and wife and infant daughter. Mrs. A. A. Thompson returned with them and called on old friends here.

HARKAWAY

(Held over from last week)
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rae, Mildred and Marie motored to Camp Borden on Sunday to see Tpr. Arnold Rae, who underwent an operation for appendicitis in the hospital there a few days previous.
Miss Almeda Lee is spending this week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Halbert and family.
Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Patton and Leo of Holland Centre visited Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. Patton sr., also with other friends at Harkaway.
Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Moore were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Moore and Glen of McWilliams on Sunday.
The June meeting of the Red Cross was held June 16th at the home of Mrs. A. A. Lyons with 26 members present. A discussion took place about discontinuing the use of flannellette only for war purposes. It was decided to give the money on hand to the Red Cross headquarters to send boxes to prisoners of war.
From the sale of parcels in the White Elephant Basket, $1.85 was realized and a similar sale will take place at the July meeting, to be held at the home of Mrs. W. J. Lyons or Miss M. Johnston, this to be decided later. During the afternoon two quilts were finished. Meeting closed with singing the National Anthem and prayer by our president. Lunch was served and netted $2.62.
Mr. and Mrs. Goudy and family attended the funeral of the former's brother-in-law, Mr. Isaac Johnston, in Meaford on Tuesday, 22nd. We extend our sincere sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Goudy and family.
A very pleasant afternoon was spent by the Harkaway ladies at the home of Mrs. John Hamilton on June 8th, as visitors of Annesley W.M.S., when about sixty ladies were present. A short meeting was held by the home society and then Mrs. Watt very ably took charge of the meeting. The program consisted of a solo by Mrs. Roy Rae; reading by Miss Lulu Lyons; an appropriate address by Mr. Watt; duet by Mrs. Watt and Mrs. Mandeno, with Mrs. Goudy as pianist. A very dainty lunch was served by the Markdale ladies when a social half hour was enjoyed by all. On behalf of the Harkaway members Mr. Watt offered a vote of thanks for the opportunity of meeting so many co-workers.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Goudy, Alex. and Mrs. Walter, attended the Tank Range re-union held in Owen Sound on Saturday, 19th. A very pleasant afternoon was spent amongst their many friends.

CHERRY GROVE

(Held over from last week)

Rev. N. E. Caswell paid our school his last visit for the present school year. He presented each of the pupils with a beautiful copy of the Gospel of St. Matthew as a prize for memorizing passages from the Scriptures. The teacher and pupils are very grateful to Mr. Caswell for this worthwhile work and are looking forward again to his visits next fall.
The Rotary Club of Markdale has presented Lois Harvey with fifty baby chicks. Lois is entering a contest, sponsored by the Rotarians and she will keep a careful record of the raising of the chicks and compete with children from other schools at the local fair in September. Best of luck Lois.

CEYLON

Mr. and Mrs. Les. Jamieson and little son, Ralph of Toronto spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Ken Stewart.

Miss Ethel Irwin of Toronto was a week-end visitor with her mother, Mrs. M. Irwin and Mr. and Mrs. Will Burnett.

Mrs. C. Archibald visited last Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Sewell of Markdale.

Mrs. Jos. McMullen returned last week-end after visiting the previous week with friends at Moorefield.

Miss Catherine Stewart, Reg. N., of Owen Sound is spending three weeks' holidays with her mother, Mrs. A. Stewart and other friends.

Rev. G. K. McMillan gave a splendid message to the Ceylon congregation last Sunday morning, this being his farewell sermon. Rev. Cox of Priceville will conduct service at 10 a.m. next Sunday. We hope a good number will be present.

Mr. Arthur (Whittaker) of Toronto is spending a week's holidays at his home here.
Mr. and Mrs. Albert McWhinney returned to Windsor on Friday after holidaying with relatives here.

Miss I. Weber spent the week-end at her home at Vandeleur.

On Saturday evening Ceylon friends and the community honoured Mrs. G. K. McMillan at her home in Flesherton. An address was read by Mrs. Will Gibson and the gifts were presented by Mrs. Roy Piper. Mrs. McMillan, in a few well chosen words, expressed her appreciation of the kindness shown to her since their residence in Flesherton. Rev. G. K. McMillan and Holland Centre W.A.

The W. A. of Holland Centre United Church claimed Mrs. John McInnis as hostess for the June meeting. There were eighteen members and visitors present. Mrs. Watt had charge of the devotional period and read Psalm 91. Mr. Watt then led in prayer. Misses Doris and Vivian Watt rendered a duet, "Whispering Hope". Mrs. G. Hampton gave a reading, entitled, "Borrowed Bananas". Mrs. R. J. Mandeno read "Beginning at Home".
The ladies were very happy to welcome Mrs. T. Fee, who is visiting at the home of her son. She was a member and president of our society for a number of years. She told us of the work of her daughter, Florence, who is a missionary in China, which was very interesting.
A contest was conducted by Mrs. ed by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Geo. Hampton and was won by Mrs. Emerson Craven. Lunch was served by R. J. Mandeno. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. Jackson.

Mrs. McMillan and children moved to Toronto the first of this week where Mr. McMillan will continue in his work. We wish them every success in their new field of labour.
There were 97 articles of clothing recently sent to the Russian Relief, donated by Flesherton, Priceville and Ceylon communities.

Odd Fellows' Cigarette Fund Donations

The cigarette fund sponsored by the members of the local Odd Fellows' lodge is a necessary war service in this community. There are now more than fifty of the boys from Markdale and district receiving cigarettes regularly. They will be watching to see your name among those contributing to the fund. All contributions will be acknowledged in The Standard.
