Hon. Duncan McArthur, Ontario Minister of Education, died on Tuesday of a heart attack at his summer home. Member of the Ontario legislature for Simcoe Centre, Dr. McArthur had been nominated as Liberal candidate for the riding in the coming election.

With the announcement of a C.C.F. nomination convention to be held in Durham on Thursday, it is presumed that a third candidate may enter in the provincial race in South Grey. Among the several candidates suggested are the names of Miss Helen Carefoot, a student at the University of Toronto, Dr. R. L. Carefoot of Markdale, and Hugh Bailey of Dundalk.

On Sunday last the Markdale band made its first appearance of the season. The band has lost several of its players and with new recruits they provided very fine music. Two young ladies, Gwen Burnside and Audrey Kidd are second cornet players and four juniors: Donald Kidd, Jimmie Perkins, Frederick Alton and Ronald McCutcheon form the alto section. It isn't every town that can boast of having a band at present and this is one of which the whole of Markdale can be justly proud.

Cherry Grove and Vandeaur Win Centre Grey Softball Games

In a Centre Grey League softball game played at Vandeaur on Friday, July 16th, Berkeley was defeated by a score of 17-8. Vandeaur battery was Melville Buchanan pitcher and Gerald Hill catcher. For Berkeley Wallace Cameron and Leonard Fitzsimmons did the pitching and Fred Flynn was catcher. Clare Boales and Jack Bradey from Cherry Grove were umpires.

On Tuesday evening of this week a crowd was on hand to support their home team when Vandeaur played at Cherry Grove. At the end of the second inning each had a run but with three home runs by Boyce, Boales and Bradey and a few errors on both sides, Cherry Grove chalked up ten runs in two innings to make the score 14-4. The game provided a good evening's fun.

The line-ups were:

Cherry Grove—R. Boyce, N. Hill, C. Boales, J. Bradey, A. Trafford, M. Pendleton, A. Bowler, E. Wyvill, L. Harvey.

Vandeaur—H. Wyvill, C. Sewell, G. Hill, M. Buchanan, E. Morrison, L. Gilray, Pat Weber, V. Fawcett, R. Fitzsimmons.

Religious Vacation Class Held At Glenelg Centre

During the past two weeks about fifty children, members of St. Joseph's Church, Markdale and St. John's Church, Glenelg, attended a Religious Vacation School under the direction of two Sisters of St. Joseph from Hamilton.

Each morning they left Markdale by bus, arriving at Glenelg where Holy Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father W. Nolan at nine o'clock.

The children were grouped into Junior and Senior divisions and were most eager and attentive, covering the course outlined in a very satisfactory way. The daily program consisted of Bible History, Catechetical Instruction, Church Music and Supervised Recreation.

Those in the Senior Group were John S. Black; Eugene, Isabel and James Foy; Patricia, Patrick and Teresa Hamilton; Marleen and Mary Magdalene Hughes; Arthur Kleist; Donald, Mary Margaret, Sarah and Teresa MacMillan; Lorraine and Reginald McAssey; Donald and Anne Marie McCormick; Carl, Patrick, Elizabeth and Murray O'Neill; Katherine and Raymond Sweeney and Charles Greene.

The Junior class included Betty and Peter D'Arcy; Donald Doyle; Alice and Josephine Foy; Frances Gillen; Colleen, Irene and Raymond Hughes; Mary Grace Hundt; Audrey Kleist; Patrick McAssey; Jane McCarthy; June McCormick; John and William McDonald; Rita, Helen and John McKewen; Felix, Jerome and William McManaman; Mary Quinn; Bernard and James Sweeney.

Six of these children received their First Holy Communion on Sunday, July 18th. Peter D'Arcy, Colleen Hughes, Audrey Kleist and Bernard Sweeney in St. Joseph's Church, Markdale; Jane McCarthy and Donald Doyle in St. John's Church, Glenelg. The Children's Choir sang during Holy Mass on both Sundays during the Vacation School.

The closing exercises on Friday were enjoyed not only by the children but also by their parents. After Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament given by Rev. Father W. Nolan in St. John's Church, Glenelg, the First Communion Class was enrolled in the Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. A display of project work done during the session and a short program of songs and skits followed in the Parish Hall. Mary Margaret McMillan was the accompanist. After a series of games and races lunch was served by the ladies of the parish.

Adam John Baillie

Berkeley community was shocked to learn of the death of a highly respected resident, Adam John Baillie which occurred with startling suddenness while at work on Wednesday, July 14th. At the time Mr. Baillie was working on the C.P.F. section where he had been employed for the past twenty-five years.

The deceased was born in Toronto on February 29th, 1884. He resided there until moving to Berkeley 27 years ago, where he lived up to the time of his death. In September of 1913 he was united in marriage to Mrs. Florence Wright (nee Richardson) formerly of Brockville.

Besides his sorrowing widow, two sons, Cpl. Edward J., who is overseas and William of Berkeley and two daughters, Gwendolynne, (Mrs. E. J. McLaughlin) of Berkeley and Dorothy (Mrs. Robert Weston) of Owen Sound, survive. Two sisters, Mrs. R. A. Taggart and Mrs. William Arnold and one brother, Joseph, all of Toronto, also survive. There are eight grandchildren.

The funeral Friday afternoon was largely attended. Service was held in St. Matthias' Anglican Church and was in charge of the rector, Rev. J. R. Bythell. There were many beautiful floral tributes.

Two favourite hymns of the deceased were sung: "He Leadeth Me" and "Unto the Hills".

Friends from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Taggart, Mr. and Mrs. J. Baillie, Mrs. W. Arnold, Mr. H. Eastwood, all of Toronto; Mrs. E. J. Baillie and Ronald of Welland, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Weston of Owen Sound, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Mitchell of Chatsworth, and also C.P.R. employees from Orangeville, Durham and many other points. The pallbearers were J. H. Gibson, Robt. Rutledge, Geo. Cook, Robt. Slade, Dan Murdock and Fred Italo, all fellow workmen.

Mrs. A. McCauley

The death occurred on Monday morning of Mrs. Alfred McCauley at her in Owen Sound following an illness of several years' duration. She was in her 76th year and was deeply mourned in the family circle and among many old friends.

The former Annie Mathers was born at Beavertown in Euphrasia, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mathers. She was married at her home there to Alfred McCauley fifty years ago this fall. Five years later they moved to Owen Sound where she had resided ever since. In religion the deceased was a member of Knox United Church.

Besides her husband Mrs. McCauley is mourned by two sons, Earl E., in Alaska, and Howell at Peterborough and two daughters, Mrs. W. E. Ogg and Mrs. D. McAlister, both of Owen Sound. One sister, Mrs. Shore at Edmonton and one brother, D. Mathers at Detroit, also survive.
