SOLDIER of the SOIL

THIS year the Canadian Farmer urgently needs help. He needs your help to produce the food so necessary for victory. Many thousands of farm workers are serving in the Forces, so that the farmer—the Soldier of the Soil—is short-handed, but short-handed as he is, he is called upon to produce more food than ever before. Food is one of the most powerful weapons of war. Grains, bacon, dairy products, eggs, beef, fruit, vegetables—FOOD to feed our armies, our allies and our people we must have.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

You may be a school teacher, student, business or professional man, an office or store clerk—no matter what you are, if you have a few hours, days, weeks, or months of free time this summer, you can do your country and the farmer a great and patriotic service by helping out on the farm. You may be inexperienced, but you still can help. You will find work on the farm healthy and congenial. It will give you the satisfaction of feeling that you have brought Victory nearer.

What you should do NOW!

- Consult any special local committee or office established to deal with farm labour placements in your city or town;
- Write the Director of the Dominion-Provincial Farm Labour Program at the Capital of your province; or
- Get in touch with your nearest Employment and Selective Service Office.

DREW 22-POINT PROGRAM BACKED BY HOUSE RECORDS

The Press Endorses Progressive Conservative Platform

Constructive Proposals in Public Interest

Speaking over the C.B.C. network Friday night, July 16th, Leslie St. Frost, M.P. for Victoria and Halliburton, one of the outstanding Progressive Conservative members in the Ontario Legislature, emphasized the fact that the 22-point program recently announced by George Drew, Leader of the Progressive Conservative Party, was the product of extended consultation with his constituents and that it was unanimously adopted at a largely attended meeting of party members held at the Royal York Hotel on Saturday, July 10th.

Not only this, said Mr. Frost, the platform given out after that meeting is the natural sequence and outcome of constructive proposals made in the past by Mr. Drew and his associates. Ever since the war began the Opposition, led by Mr. Drew, has at each session put forward a series of resolutions concerning the public interest. These proposals, added the member for Victoria and Halliburton, have been voted down at the instance of the Liberal Government or declared out of order by a Liberal Speaker.

On February 15th, 1941, the Opposition submitted a resolution, calling upon the Government to prove for a conference of representatives of the Dominion and of all the provinces for the following purposes: To adopt such measures by inter-provincial agreement as may be necessary to:

- (a) To ensure the greatest war and post-war production of goods and services;
- (b) To meet emergencies created by the war;
- (c) To assure adequate prices for agricultural products;
- (d) To protect the established system of labour.

And to take steps for the rehabilitation of the members of our armed forces and for the civilian population who may be thrown out of work by post-war reconstruction.

DREW APPEALS TO THE BEST IN ONTARIO

For the Progressive Conservative Programme offered the people Ontario by George Drew, one thing must be said at the outset. It is that there at least is a pronouncement by a public man who reveals understanding of the gravity, and the faith and hope, of our times. . . . He (Mr. Drew) offers us a programme that is the framework of freedom; a programme that must appeal to Ontario's tradition of individual independence and self-reliance; a programme that must appeal to the control and superintendence for the citizen; he would not subject men to the degrading machinery of a plan which all into puppets under drill sergeants of the state. That he leaves as it should be left to the Socialists of the C.C.F. . . . No Ontario leader in years has advanced a more progressive, a more humane, or a more hopeful programme.

Despite the sufferings of last winter and the prospective sufferings of the coming winter on the part of the people, the Liberal Government of the day, including Mr. Nixon, unanimously voted down this resolution.

The Opposition renewed the attack with this further resolution: The members of this legislature express their respect that the Government has failed to meet the critical needs of our agricultural producers, and they trust that the Government immediately take whatever steps are necessary to assure stability of prices, and an adequate supply of manpower and machinery for the rapidly increasing demands of war production.

This was a move on behalf of the farmers of Ontario which the Liberals, including Mr. Nixon, vetoed directly. The Liberal Government members, including Mr. Nixon, got around this difficulty by adopting a resolution leaving the Government for the administration of the province, but not the cancellation of obligations was suggested so that justice might be served.

Instead of voting down this resolution the Liberal Government stated that this proposal had been taken up with the Federal Government and that no present time action has ensued.

On the other hand, the Progressive Conservative Party, including Mr. Nixon, has taken no action up to the present time in regard to this proposal. In keeping with its record in the Legislature of the public platform and in the press, ever since 1939 the Progressive Conservative Party, as Mr. Nixon has indicated, has pledged to carry out the program outlined in the platform.

The only means of making sure that these promises are carried out is to elect George Drew as Premier of Ontario. The Progressive Conservative Party and its platform and its record are the only ones which will put into effect the program outlined in the platform.

It is in the opinion of this Party that the Government should take immediate action in accordance with the platform of the Progressive Conservative Party and its platform and its record are the only ones which will put into effect the program outlined in the platform.

DREW'S GREAT SOCIAL DOCUMENT

Progressive Conservative Leader, George Drew has raised the present campaign far above the picaresque things of the little politician. By it all the carriage, all the stunts, the inuendo and the petty slander of his critics were swept aside. In that address to George Drew, is not a static one, but is dynamic in character, designed to develop to the utmost our Nature-given potentialities. . . . His view at first may sound like old-line thinking, but one must admit that his approach is more than an echo of Laurier and Macdonald. He adds something new. . . . our planning for the future must be dynamic.

What is more, he is pledged to implement the genuineness of the Party were needed. Drew is publicly pledged to these 22 points. What is more, he is pledged to implement the genuineness of the Party were needed. Drew is publicly pledged to these 22 points. What is more, he is pledged to implement the genuineness of the Party were needed.

Mr. Drew proposes that the Ontario Government, if he is called upon to form it, will assume at least fifty percent of the school taxes now charged against real estate. . . . That . . . would prove a relief to all taxpayers.

homes before they can collect their scanty pensions. The reasonable proposal of the Opposition was ruled out of order by the Speaker, Mr. Nixon, who, one favors union of Canada with the United States. On another occasion Mr. Nixon has ruled out of order a proposal for the celebration of Empire Day. Mr. Nixon is not on record as protesting against the Liberal Speaker's ruling.

LABOUR AND "TEAM-PLAY"
As far back as 1941 George Drew placed before the Legislature a proposal calling upon the Minister of Labour to arrange a conference to be known as the Ontario Industrial Production Conference to be attended by representatives of Labour Unions, Employers and the public. The purpose of the conference was to be the assurance of maximum industrial production, with effective protection for the workers.

The Liberal Government, including Mr. Nixon, have taken no action up to the present time in regard to this proposal. In keeping with its record in the Legislature of the public platform and in the press, ever since 1939 the Progressive Conservative Party, as Mr. Nixon has indicated, has pledged to carry out the program outlined in the platform.
