

An ox-cart is a familiar sight throughout the Gaspé Coast region and is one of the unique elements of local colour to be seen in the trips to ancient Quebec.

Have You Heard?

Police superintendent, using telephone: "Is that Mr. Joskins speaking? Good! I thought I'd ring you up at once and inform you that we have found your missing wife."

Mr. Joskins: "Have you really? What does she say?"

Police superintendent: "Nothing!"

Mr. Joskins: "Then you've made a mistake. The woman couldn't possibly be my wife."

"Did you hear about Bill getting shot?"

"No—how did it happen?"

"Oh—he just went to the hardware store and asked for two pounds of it."

Lawyer (slyly): "As a matter of fact—you were scared half to death and don't know whether it was an automobile or just something resembling an automobile that struck you—do you?"

Defendant (calmly): "May I say I was forcibly struck by the resemblance?"

"Tell me, please, how I should go about getting a start in the great game of business?"

"Sell your wrist watch, and buy an alarm clock."

Subaltern: "I've been trying to see you for the last week, sir, but you've always been busy. When can I see you?"

Colonel: "Well, I suggest you make a date with my secretary and . . ."

Subaltern: "I did, sir, and we had a swell time, but I still want to see you, sir."

"Can't this case be settled out of court?"

"Well, your honor, that's what we were doing, when the cops came along."

Woman on telephone: "I sent my little boy to your store for two pounds of plums and I got only a pound and a half. Your scales must be wrong."

Fruit dealer: "My scales are all right, madam. Have you weighed your little boy?"

Young and inexperienced father (looking at triplets the nurse had just brought out): "We'll take the one in the middle."

How Can I???

By Anne Ashley.

Q. How can I clean oak furniture?

A. For oak or walnut furniture, wipe with cheesecloth wrung out of tepid suds of white naphtha soap. Clean but a small portion at a time and rub dry with a flannel cloth before going on. Finish by applying a little high grade furniture polish on a clean piece of flannel, and rubbing until the wood no longer feels greasy.

Q. How can I remove discolorations from the inside of an aluminum kettle?

A. Cut a piece of rhubarb into small pieces and boil it in the discolored utensils until clean; then rub up a little for polish. Apple peelings are also good.

Q. How can I remove the odor of smoke from a room?

A. Put a basin of water in the room, leave overnight and keep a window slightly open. The air will be sweet by morning.

Q. How can I whiten yellowed laces?

A. Add dissolved soap to equal parts of milk and water—until a strong suds is formed. Add a teaspoonful of borax for each quart of liquid, put in the lace and boil for a half hour.

Q. How can I remove white spots from mahogany furniture caused by hot dishes?

A. Put a few drops of sweet or camphorated oil over them and let it soak in, then polish with a soft cloth.

COUNT IN?

Count Dino Grandi, above, one of Mussolini's original black shirts and a former Italian foreign minister, is rumored as a successor to Badoglio if latter quits the premiership.

Modern Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

1. What are the principal duties of the best man at a wedding ceremony?

2. How can an unmarried woman, living in a hotel, return the hospitality shown her by married friends who have entertained her?

3. Is it permissible to eat the lettuce on which a salad is served?

4. What is the correct way to hold a coffee cup in the hand?

5. How far under the table should the chairs be pushed, when placing them for a dinner?

6. Should a secretary rise when an employer introduces her to a business visitor?

ANSWERS

1. The best man looks after the groom, generally driving him to the church. He takes care of the ring, giving it to the groom at the proper moment. He gives the clergyman his fee, and takes care of any tips incidental to the going away, being, of course, reimbursed by the groom at a convenient time. 2. By taking them to dinner at the hotel or restaurant. 3. Yes, if you wish. It is entirely optional. 4. The handle of the cup should be held by the thumb and first two fingers, the other two fingers being bent slightly towards the palm of the hand. 5. The front edge of the chair should be on a perpendicular line with the edge of the table. 6. Yes, if the secretary is a man; if a girl, no.
