You are welcome.

HARKAWAY

The celebration of the 50th anniversary of the Harkaway United Church will be a memorable one to the many past and present residents of the Harkaway district who assembled and joined heartily in this notable event. The church was filled to capacity for the afternoon and evening sessions and the pastor, Mr. Robt. Watt presided. The guest speaker was Rev. Alex. Halbert of Newtonbrook. He is a relative of the donor of the land upon which the church is built. His instructive, encouraging and inspiring messages will not be soon forgotten. Former pastors, Revs. J. R. Wilkinson of Wlarton and W. G. Wakefield of Holland Centre were present. There were fourteen persons present at the opening service who were present at the opening services in August 1893 and also one of the original trustees. The choir gave excellent leadership in the congregational singing and special numbers. Beautiful solos were rendered by the talented vocalist, Mr. Herbert Johnston of Owen Sound.

The celebrations were continued the following day, Monday, August 2nd, at Harrison Park, where a large gathering met and thoroughly enjoyed a picnic. The sports committee, under the leadership of the pastor, supervised a splendid program of races and competitions. The winners were as follows: Girls' race, Willa Lyons; boys' race, Roger Ebel; girls' race 7-10, Joyce Halbert; boys' race 7-10, John Carlton; girls' race 10-14, Isabel Carbert; boys' race 10-14, Nelson Carbert; young ladies' race, Margaret Goudy; young men's race, Goldie Steer; married ladies, Mrs. Ralph Hutson; married men, Wes. Quinton; walking race, Mrs. Loran Douglas; walking race for men, Ralph Hutson; ministers' race, Mr. Watt; guessing contest, Mr. Couty; person coming longest distance, Mrs. Arthur Caesar of Stauffer, Alta.; youngest person present, Vernon Hawken; oldest person present, Mrs. T. H. Richardson. At the supper hour the golden anniversary cake was cut by Mrs. Douglas who was the first person to enter the church after its completion fifty years ago. She gave an interesting account of how she happened to be the first person to have entered

EUGENIA

A Red Cross quilting was held on Thursday p.m. of last week at the home of Mrs. Frank Cairns. There was a good attendance of ladies and the quilt was completed.

Hawken - Morrison

The home of Mrs. L. May Morrison of Holland township was tastefully decorated with streamers, bridal bells and flowers for an interesting event last Saturday at 12.30 noon. The occasion was the marriage of her daughter, Vida Marjorie to Leslie Raymond Hawken, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Hawken of Harkaway.

The bride, gowned in white sheer with silver embroidered midriff, shoulder length veil and carrying a bouquet of Butterfly roses, was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Ernest Dixon. She was attended by her sister, Doris as maid of honour, dressed in pale blue crepe and by the groom's only sister, Helen, as bridesmaid, in pink sheer, both with corsages of roses. The bride's youngest sister, Joyce, and her niece, Betty Ransom of Owen Sound, in white voile trimmed with white lace and pink and blue streamers, were the flower girls.

Mr. Harold R. Thompson of Markdale, R. R. 3, supported the groom and Lois Murray, cousin of the bride, played the Bridal Chorus.

Rev. J. M. Fraser, minister of Knox, Holland and Watters Falls, conducted the ceremony.

The bride's table with lace tablecloth, pink streamers and candles, sweet peas and fern in silver bud vases, was centred with a three-storey wedding cake. The bride's mother presided, attired in blue embroidered sheer and was assisted by the groom's mother wearing rose crepe, both with corsages of sweet peas.

The assistants were Vera and Freda Morrison, Almada Lee, Dorothy McCaulay, Yvonne Murray, Mrs. Harold Thompson, Elwood McCaulay and Fred Halbert.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Harriet Dixon was present as well as Mr. and Mrs. Loren Douglas and Raymond of Markdale.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents. Her going-away costume was of rose sheer with blue coat and rose accessories. The happy couple left for a motor trip to Toronto and will reside at Harkaway on their return.

WODEHOUSE

The continued heavy rains have hindered many from completing the haying, and close on its heels the harvest comes. Many have oats cut, which are down and badly tangled and affected with rust. The fall wheat will only be fit for feed in most cases. A blight or rust has spoiled the wheat. Altogether the farmers, with lack of help, are having their own times. Root crops give great promise.

Many have been picking raspberries which were a good crop this year.

Mrs. Newton Smith has been visiting her daughters in Toronto and Hamilton.

The New England Sunday School is holding a picnic at Harrison Park, Owen Sound on Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Petch and family had a miraculous escape when their car got out of control on their return from Meaford Sunday last. The car did not turn over but the occupants were all thrown out and received painful cuts and bruises. Their many friends are pleased they are making good recovery, but still not over the shock.

Messrs. Garnet Walsh and Glenn Mills were at their parental homes over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Lee and little daughter, Jeanette left Sunday for their home in London after holidaying with their parents and other friends. Accompanied by Miss Elva Wiley they will visit friends in Toronto and Oakville.

Misses Marjory and Phyllis Petch holidayed the past week with friends in Meaford and Kimberley.

Miss Mary Weber of Markdale is assisting Mrs. Richard Fawcett this week.

Mr. Carl Chappell has returned to his home in Meaford after spending some time with his uncle, Mr. R. Fawcett and Mrs. Fawcett.

Mr. Merton Wiley and sister, Miss Ina of Hamilton spent the past week at their parental home, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wiley.

Visitors recently at the Petch home were Mr. Phil Petch and Rev. Bailey of Meaford, Mr. and Mrs. S. Cornfield of Rocklyn, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cornfield, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Elford and Billie of Kimberley, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph White and family and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Cornfield of Epping.

Mrs. Squires of Markdale was a guest at the Walsh home for a few days.

Master Billy Eford of Kimberley is holidaying with the Petch children.

Markdale Bought $360 In War Savings Stamps in July

NET OBJECTIVE

Markdale's share of an objective to provide 15,000 Depth Charges has been met for July. Sales for last month totalled $360 which represents the purchase price of four Depth Charges—the Navy's strongest weapons against U-Boats. The answer to an appeal for the purchase of more War Savings Stamps has been very encouraging.

Mrs. William Bassett

Mrs. William Bassett of Owen Sound, a former resident of Markdale, was instantly killed as the result of an accident on Sunday afternoon when two cars collided at an intersection on the Tara-Port Elgin highway. Her husband, William Bassett, their son and daughter are in Owen Sound hospital suffering from injury received. The driver of the second car, James J. McCaughey of Hamilton, received fatal injuries and two other passengers including his wife, were removed to the hospital, having sustained minor injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. Bassett were former residents of Markdale. Mr. Bassett having conducted a sewing machine business in the building formerly occupied by Art Norris before it was destroyed by fire. Mrs. Bassett, formerly Lena Mower, was raised in Euphrasia township near Goring.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Bassett is survived by two daughters, Ina Marion, Mrs. J. Glover, and Eileen, Mrs. Fred Fee, both of Owen Sound and one son, Clifford of Barrie. Two brothers, James Mower of Jackson and Jabez Mower of Hazel-dell, Sask., also survive.

The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon to Owen Sound cemetery.

the newly erected sacred edifice. The oldest person to attend the services was Mr. Richard Johnston. Appropriate speeches were made by the secretary of the Presbytery, Rev. T. M. Murray, Mr. T. H. Richardson and former pastors. The singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" and the National Anthem brought to a conclusion a truly glorious Golden anniversary celebration. The large assembly dispersed with their assurance renewed and strengthened that the fifty years of the church's work was worth all and more than it had cost in time, talent and substance. It also proves that following and serving the Lord Jesus Christ unflinchingly yields a rich and an abundant reward.

Congratulations are extended to the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Les. Hawken.
