Property and Development

OUR MINE MANAGER, J. W. BRISSON, REPORTS BY WIRE, AS FOLLOWS.

The property consists of six claims known as the Dora Group, numbered Dora One, Two, Three, Four, Five and Six, adjoining the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company on the east. There is a strong vein running from the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company claim, going through on west boundary of Nowita One and Dora Twelve. I understand that Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company have received Grab Sample Values of $50.00 from that particular section.

Development work is now proceeding under the Engineering direction of Major Bernard Day, consulting engineer. Major Day is one of the outstanding authorities on Yellowknife and was Engineer for B.E.A.R. and responsible for the initial Giant Yellowknife discovery and development.

SUBSCRIBERS SHOULD FORWARD THEIR CHEQUES TO THE HEAD OFFICE OF THE COMPANY AT 114 BAY STREET, TORONTO.

He was up before the orderly officer, charged with using insulting language to his sergeant.
"Please, sir," he protested. "I was only answering a question."
"What question?" snapped the officer.
"Well, sir, the sergeant said, 'What do you thing I am?' And I told him."

Then there is the sailor who was asked the name of the new girl he had out last night.
He said she was not a new girl, just a repaint job.
"What did the calf say to the silo?"
"I d.n't know."
"Is n.y todd:r in there?"

The young man was discussing his love affairs with a sympathetic friend.
"You say she partially returned your affections?" asked the friend.
"Yes; she sent back all the letters but kept the jewellery."

Damsel: "You're a sailor. Have you ever been boarded by pirates?"
Naval Officer: "Yes, I spent last leave at a seaside hotel."
I had an awful headache last night.
"Yes, I saw you with her."
