RATION NEWS

Coupons now valid are butter 90 and 91, sugar 46 to 49, preserves 33 to 36. All coupons in books three and four expired December 31.

Butter coupon 92 becomes valid on January 11 and is good for eight ounces.

BUTTER RATIONS:

Methods by which the new butter ration allowance was determined are outlined by W. Harold McPhillips. The total supply of butter in Canada on January 1, the date the new six ounce a week ration became effective, was three pounds per person. During the first four months of this year the total amount of butter produced will approximate five pounds per person holding a ration book. This makes a total of eight pounds per person. From this supplies for the Armed Services, hospitals, the Red Cross, public eating places and other non-coupon users must be taken. Every prisoner-of-war package contains one pound of butter. The total amount which must be set aside for non-coupon users reduces the amount available to those with coupons to six pounds. This spread over four months permits a ration of a pound and a half a month.

These Chefs Turn Out 75,000 Pies A Year

PASTRY-MAKING being the fine art that it is, any housewife who has slaved over a hot stove will agree, it should occasion little surprise that as Chief Pastry Chef for the Canadian Pacific Railway's sleeping and dining car service, the company has a graduate of the Ghent (Belgium) School for Chefs. He is Henry De Rycke, shown right, with his four assistants and some of the pies. So the next time you sit down in a C.P.R. diner and order pie, whether it be chicken, raisin, blueberry, apple or what have you, recall that you will be eating the pastry of Henry De Rycke (pronounced like strike-ee) who has been a pastry chef in such romantic places as Monte Carlo, Ostend and Holland, to say nothing of Canada. "From Winnipeg to Saint John—to Boston, Quebec City, too—they eat my pies!" Mr. De Rycke tells you with a sweep of a flour-dusted hand. Mr. De Rycke enrolled in the Ghent School in 1912, graduated at the end of three years in time to enlist in the Belgian Army on his 18th birthday. Nothing happened to him in the war. "I was no hero," he modestly admits, "I cooked!" Mr. De Rycke, a motorcyclist, De Rycke travelled extensively in England and on the Continent after the Great War, came to Canada in 1928 and liked it so well he's never gone back. Right now, in his kitchen, which is, temporarily, one of the kitchen-cars built years ago for the Harvesters' Excursions to Western Canada by the C.P.R., he and his four helpers turn out an average of 250 pies per day. Affectionately known to all the C.P.R.'s Glen Yards people at Montreal as "the pie cat" Henry looks forward to the post-war years when he expects he'll be able to whet the epicure's appetite with French pastry, curlicues on the cakes, and so on. Meantime, out roll the pies in an unending stream.
