

HOLED UP

Forced by Allied air raids to become cave dwellers, these members of a German family emerge from their cliffside shack waving a white surrender flag after the Allies had captured the area.

PALS REUNITED

Ten thousand miles can't separate a man from his best friend—so Sgt. Edgar C. Godard, of Huntington, Pa., and "Blackie," nondescript dog he acquired in Abadan, Persia, six months ago, are reunited. Godard was returned to Bowman Field, Ky., on a rotation plan. Immigration officials frowned on his dog following. Appeal to his congressman, unidentified, resulted in "Blackie" taking a 10,000-mile ride on a Liberty ship. Here they are reunited.

EASTER SUNDAY ON ALL FRONTS

In the hot holes of the Pacific and muddy trenches of the European fronts, in the magnificence of St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York City, the spaciousness of Hollywood's famed Bowl, and the little clapboard, country church, prayers for our fighting men went Heavenward to Him whose resurrection was celebrated on April 1—Jesus Christ, Prince of Peace.

Here is the 300th Lancaster bomber leaving the assembly line of the Victory Aircraft plant at Malton, Ontario. This Crown company is producing one of these planes a day. Loaded, the plane weighs 30 tons. It has a speed of some 300 miles an hour, a range of 3,000 miles, and an eight ton bomb load. Its armament includes 10 machine guns mounted in revolving turrets. Its record as a bomber has not been equalled by any other aircraft.

CHURCHILL BOATING ON THE RHINE

SCOTTISH-AMERICAN PIPER IN GERMANY

Piper A. Beaton, of Detroit, Michigan, U.S.A., is a piper in a famous Canadian regiment now serving in Germany. Beard and all, he makes a good Scotsman.

HE LIVED TO TELL

Haggard face and bewildered expression reveal horrors experienced by this Filipino. He was buried alive in an air raid shelter during siege of Manila. Grimy and weary after rescue, he rests on the comparatively safe side of the American-held Pasig River.

IT'S A CLOSE SHAVE

Ontario's Minister of Planning and Development, Hon. Dana Porter, shaves a balloon under the laughing scrutiny of Booth Wilson, who is in charge of the barber school at the Ontario Training and Re-Establishment Institute in Toronto. Balloons shaving is simply the first step in one of the army courses through which the Ontario government is co-operating with the Dominion to do all in its power to prepare servicemen for their return to full employment in civil life.
