STRANGE OCCUPANT OF HER SECRET ROOM

What odd conviction prompted the elderly author-teacher to keep her mother's body in her bedroom for 33 years, as others previously had done in the vain hope their loved ones would return? Read "Strange Occupant of her Secret Room," in The American Weekly, with this Sunday's (July 1) issue of The Detroit Sunday Times.

There is lots to be done..

The list at the right speaks for itself.

It shows what has to be done just to catch up with work which war has obliged us to defer.

We need every one of the additional workers who have joined us since war began. We are eager to welcome back every Bell employee now away at war. On top of that, we will need to enlist still more workers to help us handle this post-war job.

It's the biggest we ever faced!

On Active Service... Giving Wings to Words!

It all means PEOPLE AT WORK

- Filling nearly 70,000 deferred applications for telephone service.
- Conversion of telephones to dial operation in many centres.
- Laying more underground long distance rural lines.
- Extending and improving service in rural areas.
- Replacing "veteran" installations with modern equipment.
- Building up essential reserves of telephone plant.

AFTER FINAL VICTORY, WE'LL STILL BE

Busy as Bees
