THE MARKDALE STANDARD

"DEVOTED TO PROMOTING THE BEST INTERESTS OF MARKDALE AND SURROUNDING COUNTRY"

Volume 65; Number 50

MARKDALE, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, AUGUST 16th, 1945

$1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

EWARISO

LOCAL NEWS

Dr. R. McCullough of Erin is spend-ig this week in town.

Dr. R. McCullough of Erin is spending this week in town.

Miss Ruth Adams spent last week with Meaford relatives.

Mrs. Lillian Hawken of Toronto spent last week with friends here.

Miss May Elliott is visiting her sister. Mrs. Harry Page and Mr. Page.

Mrs. Hugh Mercer, Sr., is visiting with the Misses Walker at Thornbury.

Mrs. Earl Hannah and Marilyn are holidaying with relatives this week at Muskoka.

Mr. Stan. Varty of Toronto is stay-ing with his nephews, Mr. Preston and Mr. Stan. Varty of Toronio S saying with his nephews, Mr. Preston and Stan. York.

Misses Elsie Caswell and Marie Hamilton spent a week at Lakeview Inn. Sauble Beach.

Mrs. P. G. Melia and daughter, Barbara, are visiting friends and relatives in Toronto this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan. York spent their holidays at Kahshe Lake, Muskoka district, and North Bay.

Mr, and Mrs. Frank Taylor left on Tuesday for Saskatchewan to visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bowler holidayed last week with friends at Hamilton, and at Niagara Falls.

Little Marie Hooper of Markdale spent the week-end with Miss Velma Wiggins at the Caswell home, Berkeley, Mr., and Mrs. Fred Smith and daughter, Loriane, of Toronto are visitors this week at the W. A. Dickle home.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston York and Mr. Archand Mrs. Preston York and Mr.

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs.
Adams and family were Mr. and
Mrs. John Adams and George, Mrs.
Ham, Mr. and Mrs. E. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Adams and family, all

Last Sunday evening, headed by a Last Sunday evening, headed by a fife and drum band, members of the Royal Black Preceptory, the LOL and LOBA. paraded to Annesley Church where the pastor, Rev. W. M. Lee delivered a timely address.

Mrs. Geo. Richardson and family,

Mrs. Geo. Richardson and family, Mrs. Reg. Orr and little son, and Miss Margaret Nelson of Collingwood were Sunday visitors with relatives in town and at Ebenezer. Miss Dell Brodie returned with them to her home here.

returned with them to her home here.

Mr. Jas. Jamieson of Laura, Sask, called on his old friend, Tom Wilson this week. When Mr. Wilson and Harry Noble were in the west looking for a homestead in 1916, they spent a few days at his home in the West.

Recent guests of Mrs. Crone and Mrs. M. H. Neely were Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Neely were Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Neely were Dr. and Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. R. Fannin and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hook of Detroit.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. Cat National Day Of

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hook of Detroit.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Stoddart were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stoddart and Buddy of Malton, Mr. Fred Stoddart of Hamilton and Beverley of Port Elgin, Pte. Arthur Betts of Halifax, Cpl. Norman Stoddart of Goderich and Cfn. Wm. Stoddart of Goderich and Cfn. Wm. Stoddart of Camp Borden.

Harris - Wood

A pretty, but quiet wedding took place in Markdale on Monday, August 13th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wood, Cavan Street, when their second daughter, Ella Margaret Loreen, was united in marriage to L.A.C. John David Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Harris, of Toronto. Rev. W. M. Lee of the United Church officiated.

officiated.

The oeremony took place beneath an arch of evergreens and summer flowers. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a streetlength dress of white lace and accessories with a shoulder length veil and bandeau of white flowers, and carried a bouquet of Sweetheart roses, white lillies, adiantum fern tied with white satin ribbon.

Miss Doric Wood, as bridesmaid, wore a Queen's blue crepe and lace dress with white accessories and carried a bouquet of Briarcliffe roses and baby breath tied with blue ribbon.

Mr. William Campbell of Torontor supported the groom.

Following the marriage and congratulations, the bride led the way to the diming-room where pink and white streamers with wedding bells overnung the table, which was centred with a three-storey pillared bride's cake with miniature bride and groom decorations and pink and white tapers in crystal holders on either side.

Those serving were the bride's aunt, Miss Gertrude Lever of Flesherton, Mrs. Earl Maycock of Dundalk, and Mrs. Ethel Simpson, Reg. N., of Markdale.

For the occasion, the bride's mother was wearing a two-piece navy silk The ceremony took place beneath an

Next Sunday, August 19th, has been proclaimed Decoration Day by the local Council, when the people in Markdale and the surrounding district will have an opportunity to pay homage and respect to those who have passed on.

As in former years, the service on this day will be a general service of remembrance to all those who have an interest in the cemetery and people of all faiths in the entire district are invited to attend. The service will be conducted by W. D. Halliwell, minister of Cooke's Presbyterian Church here.

This year, the Salvation Army band from Owen Sound has kindly consented to be present. The parade headed mome.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston York and Mr. and Mrs. Mel. Ryan are on holidays this week in Huntsville and North Bay districts.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. E. McFadden, Mr. Rodwell and Miss Anna Marie, of Brantford are holidaying in the subrubs west.

Mr. and Mrs. George Monck of St. Mr. and Mrs. George Monck of St. Mr. and Mrs. George Monck of St. Mrs. and Mrs. Campbell this week.

Miss Marie Staples of All Peoples' Mission, Windsor, is holidaying with her sister, Mrs. R. W. E. McFadden, in the suburbs.

Mr. Gerald Sampson of Flint, Mich. Mr. Gerald Sampson of Flint, Mich. Mr. Gerald Sampson of Flint, Mich. Mr. Gerald Sampson of Mrs. C. W. Rutledge.

Mrs. Walter Ptolemy and daughter, Viola of Waterdown.

At Walters Falls

A Walters Falls

At Walters Falls

At Walters Falls

At Walters Fa

ome. With you Russell, we are not so well

With you Russell, we are not so well acquainted but we do wish to congratulate you on your choice of a wife, and hope that you and she may return to our midst often, and a hearty welcome will always be assured you.

Therefore to put our good wishes into form more tangible than words, we ask you to accept these gifts, and may they always remind you of your many friends of New England. May your years be full of sumny days and life's own skies be blue; and the future ever see Your wishes all come true.

Signed on behalf of the New England Community, Doris McAfee, Violet Morrison, Adelaide Bowen.

School Area In Holland

At a recent meeting of the Holland Township School Area at which all members were prosent, Mrs. Robt. Hogg was engaged as teacher for S.S. No. 5 school at a salary of $1150 per

Set National Day Of

man; H. V. Wales, secretary Reception

The parents and relatives of the returned men occupied the front sears and following the presentation, several verses of the hymn, "O Valiant Hearts" were read by Mrs. Robt. King followed by a minute's silence and prayer.

The five returned men were then escorted by five of the young ladies to the platform. Mr. Fraser read a welcome in blank verse and Mr. H. V. Wales read the presentation address to the service Albert Gowans, Pte. Russel G. Dixon, Tpr. Allan Lemon, Pte. The the girls who had been standing the thirty odd names still listed from the girls who had been standing the presentation of the boys returned from overseas and it is hoped that similar welcomes the thirty odd names still listed from the girls who had been standing It was officicially announced to-day (Wednesday) that Sunday, August 19, will be observed as a national day of Thanksgiving throughout Britain.

THANK GOD FOR PEACE

DECORATION SERVICE

Reception for Returned Men Presentation To Soldier

"The last of our enemies is defeated" is the great news the world has been waiting for, during the past six years. The collapse of Japan has come much sooner than we hoped. In the words of Prime Minister Attlee "When we must turn again with energy to the great tasks which challenge us, but for the moment let all who can relax and enjoy themselves in the knowledge of a work well done. Peace has once again come to the world. Let us thank God for his great deliverance and His mercy."

As clitzens of a great Empire we are called upon now to share the sacrifices of the boys who did not return by living for the things for which they died. As we turn to the future let us

As citizens of a great Empire we are called upon now to share the sacrifices of the boys who did not return by living for the things for which they died. As we turn to the future let us remind ourselves that only by working together can we win the peace.

Addressing his subjects in a world broadcast, the King said in part: "We shall have to labour hard to restore what has been lost and to establish

At Walters Falls

His loss is both yours and ours but noon Markdale defeated Rocklyn in an exhibition contest and in the evening Berkeley won from Holland Centre in a league game.

Wednesday evening a well-attended community service was held in the Armouries, when the speakers were Reeve Milson Henry, Mr. W. E. Harris, M.P., Rev. W. G. Bugler, and Rev. Wm. M. Lee.

In Uniform

News of Our Boys

Among recent soldiers arriving back home are Cpl. Albert Hyslop, L'Bdr. Trevor Thompson of the Royal Can-adian Artillery, Pte. Herb. Thompson, and Cpl. Howard York who is home from Sea Island, B.C.

Three more soldlers to arrive home the past week are Pte. Grant Turner, Pte. Seth Inglis of Owen Sound, who is married to the former Christine McDonald, and Gnr. Harvey Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Hill.

即即

Pte. Maud Walker, C.W.A.C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Walker arrived home on furlough from Hailfax, on Monday of this week. A brother, Pte. Jim Walker, is also home from overseas on Pacific leave.

即即

A "welcome home" was awaiting Gdsmn. W. E. Markham this week at the Gillen home in town. Married to the former Netta Gillen, he is a member of the Grenadier Guards and was formerly with the Grey and Simcoe Foresters.

Sandy Stewart, who was stationed near Amsterdam while in Holland, has returned to Germany where he is with the Canadian Occupational Forces. In-cluded in a parcel of souvenirs, sent to his mother recently, were a pair of wooden shoes.

图图

A "welcome home" was extended to Pte. Frank Stoddart last Thursday evening in the Arena Hall when many friends gathered and presented this returned soldier with a purse of money. An address of appreciation was read by Norman Hastley Jr., and the presentation was made by Wilbert Wyvill. A dance was enjoyed to music supplied by the Hartley orchestra.

Besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stoddart, other members of his family to attend were Mrs. Norman Stoddart of Flesherton, Mrs. Albert Stoddart and son, Buddy, of Maiton and Mr. and Mrs. Betts from Maxwell district. In a list released this Wednesday by the Dept. of National Defence for Air in Ottawa of those returning to Canada aboard the "Duchess of Richmond" expected to dock in Quebec City on August 19th, appears the name of Corporal M. Richardson of Markdale.

can only say this:

We revere the memory of one who was born and grew up amongst us, who took first place in all sports and activities of church and community, who saw a duty and gave his life to fill it.

His loss to both. The second son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Banks of Glenelg to arrive home from oreseas recently is Gdsmn. Lloyd Banks who returned to Canada on the Louis Pasteur which docked at Halifay. His loss is both yours and ours but his service and devotion are our pride. While we cannot repay his sacrifice we may express our gratitude for all he was prepared to do on our behalf We convey our sympathy to you and to the other members of your home and record our esteem of Walter's life and of his service in the Royal Canadian Air Force. May the God of all comfort add his own blessing.

May we ask you to accept this copy of the Bible as a token of the personal regard of all citizens of the community of Walters Falls.

Signed at Walters Falls this 27th day of July, 1945, DeLisle Rennie, chair man; H. V. Wales, secretary Reception Committee.

Ecologying the presentation several Lloyd enlisted in 1940 and trained at

Lloyd enlisted in 1940 and trained at Camp Borden with the Grey and Simcoe Foresters and later when the Foresters became an Armoured Unit, he was a Guardsman in the Governor General Foot Guards, going overseas in June, 1943. Although he has been in action all the way from England to Germany, he is lucky enough to be home without a scratch. After arriving in Odenburg on V-E day, he went back into Holland to get ready to come home to finish the job in the Pacific. About the people and places, Lloyd

About the people and places, Lloyd says they are pretty much all interesting. Besides his parents, Lloyd was greeted by his wife and family, one son, Stewart, having just got out of the Sick Children's Hospital, a victim

Among the souvenirs received in a parcel from Pte. Clifford Hartley, are many articles to remind his wife of the Dutch country where Cliff is stationed LAC. Jas. H. Sullivan of Moncton, with the Lincoln and Welland RegiN.B., is enjoying a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Sullivan articles, were several pieces of silk, which were used to signal the planes on V-E day.

Pie. R. J. Cargoe, C.M.G.T.C., Camp Borden spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Cargoe of Vandeleur.

Tpr. Edmund Saunders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Saunders of Walters Falls is home on thirty days leave before reporting for the Pacific.

Fit. Lieut. Ed. Annis of the R.C.A.P. overseas is another former Markdale boy to be "mentioned in despatches." Ed., who is with the Air Transport Command in England has been overseas for almost three years. He is a son of Rev. S. E. and Mrs. Annis, formerly of this place. Many friends here will be happy to learn of this merited honour.

2 2

The second member of his family to be listed missing is Fit.Sgt. Carl Livermore. 21, of Dundalk who, according to word received, is officially reported "missing, believed killed". An older brother, P.O. Roy Livermore, was reported missing in May, 1943. Carl's wife is the former Lorraine Duff, daughier of Joseph Duff, formerly of Markdale. There are two other brothers serving overseas.

Fit.Lit. Wm. R. Arnill of Dundalk, returning officer for South Grey in the recent provincial election, has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross. The investiture will be made at a later date. As a navigator, Fit.Lit. Arnill was commended for his work on two very successful raids on enemy installations. He returned home some months ago, after completing a tour of operations overseas. He is a member of the Caterpillar Club.

Home for V-J day is Gnr. Trevor Thompson who arrived in Markdale on Tuesday of this week after four years and one month overseas. Trevor, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Thompson, was greeted by his wife, the former Evelyn Lee, and two children, Betty, and his son, Wayne, three and a haif years old, whom he saw for the first time. Gnr. Thompson signed up, with the 16th 43rd Battery at Gueiph, and trained as a gunner at Petawawa and Sussex. N.B. After reaching Britain, Trevor transferred to the 6th Field Regiment and was in front line action in Belgium, Holland, France and Germany. During four years he was injured only once at Antwerp, Belgium, and has much praise for the treatment received in the splendid hospitals in play, while the native shopkeeper sits on a high counter with his legs crossed ready to barter for his Oriental wares.

照照 Bert Bussey Home

Jack Bussey of Owen Sound, formerly of Markdale, was in town on Wednesday on his way home from Dundalk where he met his brother, Bert, who arrived home from overseas after an absence of nearly four years. Bert, who is married to the former Ruby McZutcheon was employed at Ruby McCutcheon was employed the Dundalk Creamery before the Dundalk Creamery before enlisting.

-31

Last winter Bert met his oldest brother, Sid, who had been a prisoner for three years. Bert's brothers and sisters all live in Engiand and his news from home were especially interesting to Jack who has not seen any other member of his family for 31

says they are pretty much all interesting. Besides his parents, Lloyd was greeted by his wife and family, one son, Stewart, having just got out of the Sick Children's Hospital, a victim of infantile paralysis.

Died

MANTEL—In Markdale on Monday, August 13th, 1945, Mary Anderson, beloved wife of the late James Mantel. Resting in Oliver's Funeral Chapel, Main St., Markdale. Service in the chapel on Wednesday, August 15th, at 2.00 o'clock. Interment Zion Cemetery, Glenelg Twp.