Rodman - Mills

The marriage of Miss Christina Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mills of Wodehouse, to William Johnson Rodman, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Chesler Rodman of Harkaway was solemnized at the Gospel Workers' Church, Feversham on Saturday, August 18th, by the Rev. Charles Lee.

The bride wore a dress of pink sheer with matching shoulder-length veil and a corsage of Happy Day roses and stephanotis. Miss Kathleen Ratcliffe, bridesmaid, wore a dress of pink sheer with white accessories and a corsage of Patricia carnations. Pte. Glen Mills of Chatham, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

Following the ceremony a dinner was served at the bride's home to the immediate relatives.

Later the bride and groom left on a motor trip to Niagara Falls and Lake Ontario points. For travelling the bride chose a tailored navy blue suit with navy and white accessories. Upon their return they will reside in Markdale.

Weaver - Beatty

On Saturday afternoon, August 11th, at 3 o'clock, in a double-ring ceremony the wedding was solemnized in MacNeill Memorial Baptist Church, when Elizabeth Mable, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Beatty of Markdale, was united in marriage to Rev. Samuel Robert Weaver of Welland, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Roy Weaver of Montreal. Rev. Ivan C. Morgan conducted the ceremony. The organist was Mr. Henry Bowdlen, who accompanied Miss Lillian Young, the soloist, in the singing of O Perfect Love before the ceremony and Still As The Night, during the signing of the register.

Given away by her father, the bride wore an ivory brocaded satin dress fashioned with a shirred bodice, a floor-length veil draped from a head-dress of orange blossoms, and she carried red roses and stephanotis. Miss Marion Thomas was bridesmaid, gowning in a yellow stiffened chiffon dress trimmed with marquisette applique, with a large yellow picture hat trimmed with violet shade. Her nosegay was of yellow roses and mauve asters. Dr. William S. Weaver of Montreal, was best man. Ushering the guests were Lieut. Howard David of Toronto, cousin of the bride, and the groom's brother, Flight-Lieut. Arthur G. Weaver of Montreal.

The reception for sixty guests was held at the Corner House, the bride's mother receiving in a navy blue sheer and white costume, her corsage being of Better Times roses. The mother of the groom, who assisted, wore dusty rose sheer and navy blue, with a corsage bouquet of Tailsman roses.

Leaving on a trip to Quebec City, the bride was attired in coral shade crepe with a navy blue hat and coat, and white accessories. Her flowers were yellow roses. The couple will reside at 23 Avenue place, Welland, where the groom is minister of First Baptist Church. Both bride and groom are graduates of McMaster University.

Among the guests from out of town who were present at the wedding were: Dr. and Mrs. S. Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. John Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. Howard David, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Weaver, all of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Liddell of Owen Sound; Rev. and Mrs. F. Keys of Flesheron; Rev. and Mrs. D. J. Harris of Holland Centre; Dr. and Mrs. G. Sinclair of Welland; Mrs. William Pratt of London; Rev. and Mrs. N. F. Swackhammer of Montreal.

Goudy - Thompson

The marriage took place at the South End Baptist parsonage, Owen Sound, on Saturday, August 11, of Elva Muriel, daughter of Mr. Roy Thompson and the late Mrs. Thompson, and Alex. Shiel Goudy, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Goudy of Harkaway. Rev. John Dodds, assisted by Rev. R. Watt, officiated.

The bride looked lovely in a street-length dress of blue sheer with navy accessories and wore a shoulder corsage of roses and maidenhair fern. The bride and groom were unattended.

After the ceremony the young couple left on a motor trip to Buffalo, U.S.A., Niagara Falls, and other points, the bride travelling in a grey tweed suit with brown accessories. On their return they will reside at Harkaway.

Mustard - Hammill

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Hammill of Walters Falls was the scene of an interesting event on Saturday, August 18th, when their eldest daughter, Blanche Doreen, was united in marriage to William Levi, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Mustard of Strathavon.

To the strains of Wagner's Bridal Chorus the couple took their place beneath a pink and white arch, trimmed with baby's breath. Rev. J. M. Fraser, minister of Walters Falls United Church, conducted the ceremony. The pianist was Miss Mildred Bye of Silcoe, cousin of the bride, who played during the signing of the register and accompanied Miss Ladema Hammill who sang sweetly, "I Love You Truly."

The bride was becomingly dressed in reflection blue sheer, finger-tip veil with gardenia and lovers' knots. Her arm bouquet of Rapture roses and maiden hair fern was later given to her mother.

The matron of honour, Mrs. Gordon Hanna, sister of the groom, wore a dress of powder blue silk jersey. Her bouquet of carnations and Briarcliffe roses was given to Mrs. David Silverthorn.

The groom was supported by the bride's brother, James Hammill. Later the bridal party sat down to a wedding dinner with their families and friends. Occupying the ends of the table were the grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. David Silverthorn of Woodford. Other guests were members of the James Mustard family, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Garbett of Owen Sound, and Mrs. Alfred Dixon of Meaford; Waiting on the table were Misses Onelee Hammill, Iola Farquharson, Messrs. Ivan McKibbin and Lloyd Phillips.

For their honeymoon to Gravenhurst, the bride was wearing a brown tailored suit, green hat and brown accessories. Friends join in wishing them a long and happy married life.

Walker - Mackey

(Watchman Warder, Lindsay)

The marriage of a popular young Lindsay lady took place Wednesday afternoon, July 25th, in St. Paul's Anglican Church at 4 o'clock, when Miss Margaret Mackey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Mackey, 34 Fair Ave., became the bride of William Harrison Walker, son of Mrs. W. Walker and the late William Walker, of Toronto and Markdale.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of guests, with Rev. C. D. Cross, rector of St. Paul's officiating. The chancel was adorned for the occasion with a beautiful setting of flowers, palms and ferns.

The bride entered the church to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by the church organist, Mr. Gilbert Macpherson. She was given in marriage by her father and was attractive in a floor length gown of ivory brocaded damask with sweetheart neckline. She also wore a short train and ivory tulle floor-length veil with a head dress of seed pearls. She carried a prayer book and a bouquet of orchids and streamers of Sweetheart roses.

The matron of honour was Mrs. Donald Ferguson of Peterboro, wearing princess style printed organza over pale green taffeta. The bridesmaids were Miss Beryl Williams of Toronto, and Miss Barbara Stephenson of Toronto, niece of the groom. They wore beautiful dresses fashioned along princess styles of printed organza over pink taffeta slips. The attendants wore picture hats with open crowns, each carrying Colonial nosegays.

Signalman Donald Stephenson, R.C. N.V.R., of Toronto, nephew of the groom, acted as best man. The ushers were three brothers of the bride, namely: Flying Officer Lynden Mackey, R.C.A.F.; S. A. Gordon Mackey, R.C. N.V.R., and James Mackey.

Mrs. Robert English was soloist for the happy occasion. Prior to the ceremony she sang "The Lord's Prayer".

Walker - Mackey

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Mackey received in a dress of heavenly blue crepe with a ribbon hat to match and wearing a corsage of Johanna Hill roses. Mrs. Walker, mother of the groom, wore a dress of robin's egg blue with navy accessories and a corsage of Briarcliffe roses.

The bride's going away attire was a salmon pink two-piece suit with black accessories and corsage of orchids. The bride is a graduate of Ontario Ladies' College, Whitby, and of Toronto General Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Walker left on a trip to the United States and on their return will reside in Toronto.

Vandeleur W. A.

On Wednesday, August 2, the Vandeleur Women's Association met at the home of Mrs. Andrew Fawcett with an attendance of 23 adults, 8 children and 3 visitors. The meeting opened by singing a hymn and repeating the Lord's prayer. The roll call was answered by a verse of Scripture on Truth. Miss Myrtle Fawcett read the Scripture lesson. Tea money for the month of July amounted to $4.60; also, two quilts were quilted at the tea meeting held at Mrs. Lundy Johnston's.

Mrs. Howard Graham explained about the Hospitalization Plan to all present. Collection was $1.65.

The program consisted of a splendid paper on "Everyday Life" by Mrs. L. Teeter; reading by Dora Boland; solo by Marie Johnston, and a solo by a little five-year-old girl who is the guest of Mrs. L. Johnston.

The meeting closed with a hymn, followed by the benediction. Lunch was then served by the hostess, assisted by Myrtle Fawcett and Mrs. Ormsby and the lunch committee, Mrs. H. McGee and Mrs. Will Bowles.

The next meeting will be held on Sept. 5th at the home of Mrs. Fred Boland.
