Markdale Over Subscribes Loan Quota With 174.1%

Total Local Loan Sales Exceed A Million Dollars

With a personal objective of one million dollars for the nine Victory Loans, Markdale salesmen worked to that end, and by selling $50,000 the last two days exceeded that amazing total. $803,000 had been raised on previous loans, with an objective of $120,000 to reach. With this new objective in mind, they had to have $197,000 in order to reach the million mark, and when the gong sounded Saturday night, the sales for the 9th Loan totalled $210,000. 000.

000.

The Ninth Victory Loan was an outstanding success in this village as it was in every part of the Dominion. Camada's objective of one and one-half billion was oversubscribed to reach the two billion mark. With every municipality in Grey County over its objective, investors and salesmen alike are to be congratulated on their achievement.

Grey County, with a quota of $5,200,000, went over the top to the tune of $7,079,700.

In the County, Markdale stood in 6th place. The objective was $120,000 and the village raised $508,950 or 174.1%; Artemesia was 8th with sales totalling $200,800 or 160.6%; Euphrasia in 12th place with $164,500 or 137.1%; Holland sales were $104,950 or 123.5%, and Glenelg $71,460 or 109.9%.

Worship Leader, Georgina Windley; Idea Leader, Iona Alcox; Reporter, Fern Harris.

At a later meeting the different groups will choose their own names.

The next meeting will be on Friday, November 16th, at six-thirty when all girls over eleven years of age will be welcome. It doesn't matter to what denomination they belong.

The girls ask the assistance of any mothers or friends who will help them with one activity for one hour, between the hours of seven and eight on a Friday evening. This is for one night only unless, of course, you would invite them a second time. It has been suggested to either have a group (about ten or eleven girls) to your home, or come to the Sunday School rooms and teach them one activity. The girls do not want "lectures", but to learn to do by doing.

Some suggestions for activities might Some suggestions for activities might be: Cooking, Sewing, Knitting, Handi-crafts, Housecrafts, Scrapbooks, Host-ess Service, Art, Music, Dramatization, Travel Information, Educational, Mis-sions, Discussions (every topic), Hikes, Parties etc. The more original the occ-upation, the better the girls will enjoy it.

Remembrance Services At Local Churches

We honour the dead of two wars today because we did not keep faith, deciared Rev. W. G. Bugler at the combined Remembrance and Children's Day services in Christ Church last Sunday. "We did practise disarmament, but we didn't bother about the causes of war; we didn't practise Christian fellowship and righteous dealing with our neighbours." War is the result of ignoring God in the home, and he said if God is honoured in the home
He will be honoured eisewhere. He will be honoured eisewhere.

His message to the children was an illustration to show how we spread the love of God according as we are filled with it—to learn to practise the art of peace in the home.

After the opening hymn a wreath was placed on the altar by Mrs. J. J. Bennett in remembrance of all those who had fallen in Two Great Wars. Then followed the Last Post sounded by Jack Perkins, a two minute silence broken by the Reveille, and the National Authem. tional Arkhem.

The Sunday School children attended in a body, and a children's choir sang an anthem hymn, and the Lord's Prayer. Members of the Legion, including recently returned veterans were in attendance.

A Memorial Service for the fallen of Cooke's Presbyterian Church congregation on Sunday evening was addressed by the minister. Mr. William D. Halliwell, who said, "The price of peace is the practice of Christianity," During the service the Honour Roll of the church, bearing 24 names, including six killed, was unveiled by Sqd. Leader K. S. Gemmel. Members of the Markdale Legion attended in a body. Rev. W. G. Bugler of Christ Church read the Scripture Lesson and Prayer. Memorial baskets were placed in the church by several families in memory of a member who had given his life. There was also one from Cooke's Church Ladies' Aid in memory of all those who have fallen. The Queen Elizabeth

While crossing on the Queen Elizabeth is history now to many local vetrans of this war, it might interest others to take a look at this giant ship from the eye of a soldier.

On the ship was a central broadcasting station with a public address system from which were called out orders

The main entertainment were regular movies which were held on deck when the soldier audience usually sat on the floor or just stood. The mess hall had been originally a bail room, and the ship had once been equipped fitted out for sleeping quarters. Each cabin, which in ordinary times would be occupied by a single couple, provided sleeping quarters for 18 soldiers and contained six steel bunks, three

C. P. R. Resumes Prizes For Station Gardens

Resumption of the practice of offer-ing cash prizes for the best gardens around Canadian Pacific Railway Sta-tions has been announced by E. D. Cot-terel, vice-president and general manager, Eastern Lines.

The awards which were discontinued I The awards which were discontinued during the war years due to the pressure of handling heavy war loads, range from $50. for the best garden on each district down to $10., which is the prize for the second best garden on each division. As an incentive to new gardeners, a $15. prize is being offered for the best new garden on each division.

for the best new garden on each division.

C.P.R. station gardens enjoy a continent-wide reputation for beauty, and in order to maintain their pre-war standard, the railway has under consideration a plan to establish greenhouses at strategic points from which company men may secure plants.
