THE INSIDE ON HOCKEY

Rumors persist that Lester Patrick and the Ranger management will come to the parting of the ways at the close of the current N.H.L. campaign . . . despite the Silver Fox's denials and his asseringly small crop. Such old-timers of the sportswi ing business as Mike Rodden, now sports editor of the Kingston Whig-Standard, are irked no end at the National Hockey League's tion that the "Patrick will quit" cry was started by certain Canahockey officials who would secord book because the book fails like to see him out of the Ranger set-up . . Insiders say Patrick is referring to Tonmy Gorman, in to carry the records of great stars like Babe Dye and Frank Nighbor who, Rodden says, were "the best of hem all in my memory book." particular . . . The most startling story is the buzz that Mervyn Bill Durnan's injury has placed (Red) Dutton will quit as presi dent of the league to take overexceedingly hot seat. Parrick's job with the Rangers . . Other stories are that Frank Bou cher will be "booted upstairs" and that Neil Colville will succeed him as coach . . . There is also the tip that Patrick will become hockey's overlord, ruling the puck game in league baseball. Doug Baldwin, now fully recuperated from an appendectomy that sidelined him shortly after he joined the Pittsburgh Hornets, worked out with the Leafs this week and is expected to replace Ernie Dickens on the Toronto de-fense . . . Grand River By Mabel Dunham

Miss Dunham of Kitchener has added another historical masternew book, "Grand River" which is, as the name implies, a story of the ettlement and development of the rich Ontario section known 28 Grand Valley.

Extensive research has made available to the readers a vast amount of intensely interesting incidental information, well written cacental information, well written and containing a wealth of histori-cal facts, "Grand River" sparkles with engrossing human interest. Tales and word pictures of individuals from Dekanawida, the Indian peace lover, Brebeuf the zeatot. John Galt, the colonizer, Graham Bell the inventor, to Sir Adam Beck of Hydro fame indicate the wealth of personal interest from which Miss Dunham has the job when he or she wanted to It is entirely possible for labor organizations to make remaining in Lusiness unprofitable or unbearable for any business concern.

That Goose Well That's the One That Lays the Golden Eggs

One businessman—Andrew J.
Higgins of New Orleans—claimed recently that this was happening to him and announced that he inended to shut down $10,000,000 this wiring, it is not known where Higgins, his plants and the unions involved go from there. It is earnestly to be hoped, however, that this quit-business idea will not spread to many large business conunences to our economic system and labor alike should strive to keep it rom spreading. It was always the ideocy to kill the goose that lays the golden eggs. -indeed, in a profit system it s vorking geese reasonably well, to seep them fairly happy and comserve their egg-producing powers and willingness. The time seems ripe for a lot of us to dust that ancient thruth off in our memories and act accordingly.
