Born

HARRIS-In Owen Sound G. & M Hospital on Saturday, February 16, 1946, to Rev. D. J. and Mrs. Harris Card of Thanks of Holland Centre, a daughter.

Mrs. William G. Acheson

Death called another of Harkaway's oldest pioneers on Saturday, Feb. 16, in the person of Mrs. W. J. Hawken, the former Mary Anne Leslie, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Leslie. She had been in poor health for the past two years.

The late Mrs. Hawken was born in Amaranth township on March 27th, husband, the late William James Hawken who passed away four years ago, came to live in Harkaway district.

One daughter, Rebecca. of St. Marys, and two sons, Harry of Markdale and Jeseph of Harkaway, survive. She was predeceased by three daughters, Mary, Pearl and Mabel, and a son, Sidner.

The funeral took place from Oliver's Funeral Home on Monday, Feb. 18, and was conducted by Rev. D. J. Harris, who gave a comforting message to the relativest and friends. Mrs. Roy Rse, accompanied on the plano by Mrs. Bradley, sang "Does Jesus Care?"

Interment was made in Markdale Chapel to await burial in the family plot in the spring.

Pallbearers were Wrs. Lyons, Abert of the late of moving to their new lates of moving to their new lates of suryears, she was berefit of a mother's care, Mrs. Duncan's death occurring while the family was the midst of moving to their new lates of moving to the lates of mov

A brother, Vernon, died in childhood, a sister, Louise, in infancy, and a brother, Edgar Duncan, late of Inistioge, passed away in November, 1940. Surviving are four half-brothers and six half-sisters, namely: Bert and James Duncan, of Vermilion, Alberta; George and Gordon Duncan, Mrs. Herbert Wraggett, Mrs. Jos. Copeland, Mrs. Noble Wilson, all of Dundalk and vicinity; Mrs. A. T. Gooding, Gormley; Mrs. Chas. Foster, Honeywood, and Mrs. Robt. Taylor, Torondo.

The funeral service, on Thursday afternoon, was conducted in her daughter's home in Dundalk, by Rev. J. H. Dean, her paster, who had so frequently brought to her words of spiritual comfort during her weeks of illness. The impressive sermon was based on the opening verses of the 14th chapter of St. John, and, together with the words of The Pearly White City, feelingly sung by Mrs. Russell Acheson, brought a message of sweet comfort to the sorrowing ones.

Many beautiful floral tributes gave mute expression of the regard and sympathy of relatives and friends, and included: Gates Ajar, from the family; corsage, the Grandchildren; wreaths, Brothers and Sisters, the John Acheson family, the James Acheson family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Acheson, Bethel Church and Women's Association; bour later than the stress of the later for were recent visitors with the later's brother, Mr. Roy Thompson.

"The Rotarian" Magazine
Marks 35th Anniversary

Oldest of all service-club publications on the globe, THE ROTARIAN Magazine is currently celebrating its 35th anniversary. It is the official organ of Rotary International, the world-wide association of 5,600 individual Rotary Clubs which pioneered the service-club field.

In its three and a half decades, during which it has mirrored two world wars and a world-wide depression, The Rotarian has grown from a small 12 page newspaper with 3000 subscribers to a modern 64-page monthly which reaches more than 250,000 business and professional leaders in some 60 countries. It is published in both English and Spanish editions.

Uniquely international in point of view as well as in distribution, The Rotarian specializes in the interpretation of world events. Its first two issues of world events. Its first two issues of world events. Its first two issues of such contributors as Sir William Beveridge, famed English economist, Chas. F. Kettering, American inventive genius, and O. D. A. Oberg, Australian lumberman and labor-relations authors. First issue of The Rotarian appeared in January, 1911. It represented a mational association which the 16 Rotary and formed a good deal more pleasure, and made more friends and enemies than any odderal more pleasure, and enemies than any odderal more pleasure, and enemies than any oddeal more pleasure, and enemies than any odderal more pleasure, and enemies than any odderal more pleasure, and enemies than any other time, created more arguments, given a good deal more pleasure, and enemies than any odderal more pleasure, and and enemies than any odderal more pleasure, and mate point of the trois and enemies than any odderal more pleasure, and anterest we point of produce in England. This the old home-town newspaper Gives the records of one's birth. Gives the records of one's buttl.

Were you "lost or strayed or stolen"?

(Concentrate down Mem'ry's track),
You'll recall the old town paper
Gave the clue that fetched you back.
Older grown, with dim forebodings,
In the school your lot is cast,
Till the old home-down newspaper
Prints the joyful news, "You've passed."
