Highlights of the News

Hard Coal Men Quit Pennsylvania's hard coal miners dug gardens in-tead of anthracite or made holiday plans while they waited for union and operator leaders to frame a new contract which would end their strike.

In New York negotiators, in reported little progress toward new pact.

The strike by 75,000 diggers— 9th major United States anthracite hutdown since the turn of the century—became effectiv after the expiration of the old contract, Leaders of the AFL United Mine Workers and the operators agreed that the walkout wa. completely effective. There are no collieries n the anthracite fields working.

It Now Costs More To Retire

Until a few years ago scores of thousands of Canadians could con-template secure retirement on life sell his farm, or a small merchan % and this income plus that from what he had already saved would allow him to live in comfort the rest of his days.

He can't do that now and with interest rates still declining he will be in greater difficulties tomorrow.

Twenty thousand dollars invested in good securities gave a man an income of about $100 per month before the war. To get the same income now requires an investmen of $40,000.
