. . . There are still plenty of farms changing hands in this neighbourhood and when a farmer sells out we know just about what a let down feeling it must give him. But that it is possible to have that same plan. You see, we had to come to the parting of the ways with Perch, one of the good old faithfuls with which we started farming in Ontario. In fact he was the one remaining link with our early struggles in this game of farming, Perch, along with his team-mate Nell, served us well through good times and bad. Then about five years ago Nell dropped dead in her tracks while ploughing, pre-sumably of heart failure. That left us with Perch and Prince, and finally just Perch, although other horses have, of course, been pur-

When that brave new postwar world finally arrives, we'll enjoy such things as the super-streamlined bike and midget auto pictured here, say their sponsors. The modern bicycle was recently shown in the "Britain Can Make It" exhibition in London. Actually lighter than a conventional bike, it has a shaft drive instead of a chain, a radio and a dynamo that assists the rider to climb hills. The midget "Super-Kar" was designed by Louis R. Elrad, Cleveland furniture dealer, who says he'll have it in production by early spring, at a tentative price of $545. It's a three-wheeled, three-passenger convertible coupe, with 15-hp, two-cylinder motor in the rear, providing large storage space in front of the scats.

Here's a rare photo of Rockall, about the most friendless and unfriendly place in the world. One of the world's smallest islands, it is claimed by no country, is too forbidding even for birds and is seen only occasionally by ships—generally when they meet their doom on its cliff-like coast. About 83 feet long, rising about 70 feet out of the Atlantic Ocean, Rockall lies 300 miles west of Scotland, Only one expedition has ever been able to land on it—that of the French Arctic explorer Charcot, in 1921. He found not even a blade of grass growing on the Here's a rare photo of Rockall, in 1921. He found not blade of grass growing on the islet's solid rock.
