

JUST IN FUN

Useful
"Have your bees done well this year, Jones?"
"Pretty well they haven't given much honey, but they've stung my mother-in-law twice."

A Long Time
In the post office of a North Carolina village a stranger saw the local patriarch sitting on a flour barrel and whistling. A bystander informed him that the old fellow had already passed his one hundredth birthday. Impressed, the stranger said: "Isn't that amazing?"

Understand?
"I said 'Play as you never played before.'"
"Not as though you've never played before?"

A Lost Sheep
Masperson had wandered off to another church, and his parson was striving to bring him back to the fold.

Many
Pupils: "What did I make in that test?"
Teacher: "Mistakes."

Just Curious
The reporter began to ask his questions.
"And would you like to tell me what made you a millionaire?" he asked.

The terribly rich man looked pensive.
"I think you can say my wife did," he replied at length.
"I see, her loyal help—"

Curing a Habit
Young Smithers was feeling off color, and consulted a specialist. The specialist examined him and said:

"All that is wrong with you, young fellow, is that you smoke too many cigarettes. Here is a way to cure yourself of the habit. It is quite simple. Whenever you light a cigarette, put a stone into your pocket. Soon the discomfort of carrying the stones about will cure you."

Young Smithers nodded and departed. Three days later the specialist received a postcard from his patient.

"Dear Sir," it said, "I am following your advice, but I look darned funny pushing a wheelbarrow."

Canadian Carpentry
"What Canada needs," remarks the Peterborough Examiner, "is a little less hammer and saw, and a little more hammer and saw." It could also ease up on the chisel and bear down on the square.

Fluid Driving
Here's a good safety tip: Always keep fluid in the brakes and out of the driver.

Those Prairie Sallies
One man in every twelve who served in the Royal Canadian Navy during the war enlisted at Winnipeg. In figures that mean 300 officers, 7,500 men as well as 700 members of the WRCNS. That means that this city alone supplied nearly every personnel to man the peace-time navy.

THE STRANGEST THING

A doctor says motorcyclists are not so apt to have pneumonia as other people. Well, it's more comfortable to die in bed anyway.

Should Eat Vitamins
For the first time in many moons, Garbo broke into the news the other day, with pictures, looking as tired and anemic as ever. We wonder why she doesn't eat a vitamin.

The British Are Needed
Hindu-Muslim riot continue to rage in parts of India. In all probability it is only the presence of the British in that country which saves open and bloody civil war.

FOUR-ROW CORN PICKER

Like a weird monster the picker stands with five huge claws ready.

These exclusive pictures, taken on Lester Pfister's famous hybrid corn farm at El Paso, Ill., show the first four-row corn picker ever to be used. The monster strips the ears from standing corn, husks them and deposits them on a traveling belt which drops them into a trailing wagon. The picker is powered by a combine motor and pulled by a caterpillar tractor. One four-row picker harvests as much corn in 20 minutes as a good field hand can get in a working day. With time out for changing trunks and other delays, it picks 2400 bushels a day. Pfister uses a "mechanized army" of four-row pickers and seven two-row machines, with which 290 or more acres a day is stripped, husked and delivered to the elevators. This year he expects his biggest crop, some 100,000 bushels. With high grade hybrid seed corn prices ranging from $2 to $15 a bushel, his value is close to a million dollars.

NOT HARD TO TAKE THIS WRAP

Long trailer train heads for the elevator, five miles away.

Copies of the huge scroll pictured here, large enough to be used as a shawl, will be presented to the chief women delegates and to the wives of the delegates of each of the 41 United Nations. Of pure white silk, it bears the national seal in color of each member country. The UN seal was created by Brooke Cadwallader, noted silk designer, at the request of the American Association for the United Nations.
