In Memoriam

BURNETT — In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Mrs. Levi Burnett, who passed away a year ago, March 25th, 1946.

The world may change from year t

From Memory pass away.

-Sadly missed by husbane family and grandchildren cannot see the reason why

The Eskimo will live and die
Up in the North, mid snow and ice,
It surely can't be very nice.
For me Grey County's cold enough,
And when the winter days are rough often wish that I could go
Like little birds to Mexico.

t really must be sheer delight

It really must be sneer delight
To rise and fly away by night
To some far distant balmy clime
Where it is good old Summer time;
And leave this land of ice and snow
Where stormy winds and blizzards blow

With all its fuel and clothing cares F's only fit for polar bears.

There's always plenty to be had
And very few are found in need
Who live with caution and good heed.
There's nothing like the frost and snow
To make your cheeks and optics glow
But still to keep our spirits fit
We always have to grouch a bit.

Where ere you go from pole to pole Man is a discontented soul,

Man is a disconnented soul,
He's never suited with his lot
There's better things he hasn't got;
And quite a few are prone to say
Those better things are far away
They seem to love their own the least
It is the nature of the beart

They want to leave this dismal scen

No greener fields are far away,
For when you get there you will find
The greener fields are far behind.
For after all is said and done
There is no place beneath the sun
That's any better than our home
So let us cease to fret and roam.

Though some would like to move away
I tell you now "I'm here to stay,"
The neighbors, weather, and the crops
You" mply got to rate them tops.
I'm contented with my lot
There's Delety that I haven't got
But yet I daily thank the Lord
That I at least have bed and board.

And rouls are fit to make you weep.
And touls and cars and busses fall
And for a week we haven't mail:
And children cannot get to school

We do not mean the half we say When we complain from day to day;

But surely now we have excuse To give the weather man abuse.

So please excuse me if I say
That to my very dying day
I'll not foget this side of heaven

The winter nineteen forty-seven.
