

Cardinal Starts Gaelic Soccer Match

Bernard Cardinal Griffin, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Westminster, throws the ball into play at the Gaelic soccer match between the Irish teams Cavan and Kerry near London.

... JUST IN FUN ...

A Good Yarn Beaten to It
The shoe assistant was trying very hard to make a sale, but the customer would advise every shirt that was put before him.

Her Wasted Life
As he was under orders to go about the ardent young soldier begged his girl friend to marry him at once.

Not Ambitious
Mrs. Smith was vigorously powdering her nose before going out. "Why do you go to all that trouble?" asked Mr. Smith, who was waiting impatiently.

Milk a la Tray
The mistress was exacting, and she had the new maid flustered. One of her orders was to bring a glass of milk every evening at seven o'clock.

Not Her Own
Mrs. Hatt stopped to talk to her friend, and her husband waited a short distance away. Presently she returned home.

THE STRANGEST THING

At Cornell University, another mouse survived as even more spectacular fall. Within a few days of giving birth to a litter, a mother mouse fell three stories to a concrete walk below.

WILD VIOLETS GROW IN THE ALLEGANIAN MOUNTAINS IN EARLY AUGUST.
ALBINO REDWOOD SPROUTS A FEW OF SLOPE OF MT. TAMMARAIS, IN MARYLAND COUNTY CALIFORNIA.

FLAMES LICK SKYWARD OVER TEXAS CITY

The blast-smashed town of Texas City lies in the foreground at right. Monsanto Chemical's once gleaming styrene towers and the neat corner of its 30-acre plant are at left, a mass of fire-blackened debris under the smoke of the still burning area on the second day after the Texas City disaster.

When the French Linc freighter Grandcamp put into Texas City, on Galveston Bay, crew members began loading her with ammonium nitrate, badly needed for fertilizer in France.

Mystery Story: "A Falling Mouse"
In the heart of New York City, within sight of Radio City, there is a small vacant corner lot.

Teen-Ager
Definition: A teen-aged boy is a person who flops on the sofa on the back of his neck and scatters his legs over half the living room.

Long-Awaited Operation
Certain types of deities can now be relieved by chiselling a tiny window through the bone of the inner ear.

History-Book Problem
We have often noted in Canada that history text books vary beyond recognition according as they are written in English or French.

Only The Best
Jap night spots recently noticed a slump in food business when a report circulated that poisoned meat had been sold on the black market.

Better In The Open
It may actually be much safer to let the Communists operate in the open in North America. That way, we shall at least have some idea of what they are up to.

STUFF AND THINGS
India's largest system, the world's largest, waters over 55,000 acres.

PAYING GUEST

Screen comedian Charles Chaplin is in serious mood as he vehemently answers questions of news-magazines concerning his alleged leftist leanings and failure to become an American citizen.

Communism: World Conquest
Odd the woody arguments that are being made against the United States barring Communists from government departments, comments the Ottawa Journal.

Russia Showing Stereoscopic Movies
A new stereoscopic screen for three dimensional films is being built in Russia, Tass, the official Soviet news agency, reported.

JAPS WANT TO GO TO WORK

Huge throngs of Japs, eager for jobs, pack a street in the Asakusa, Tokyo, Japan. The picture was taken at a time when the Government was trying to get the new taxes into effect on announcement. The average Briton found that he could afford even less comfort than before.

SPOTS OF SPORTS

We had just about decided to tuck the sport of hockey away among the monthlies, so far as its column is concerned, until next month when the Olympics would pass along to you a couple of reprints heard right after the Toronto Maple Leafs' glorious (or CAN'T least the) victory over the Quebec Bulldogs.

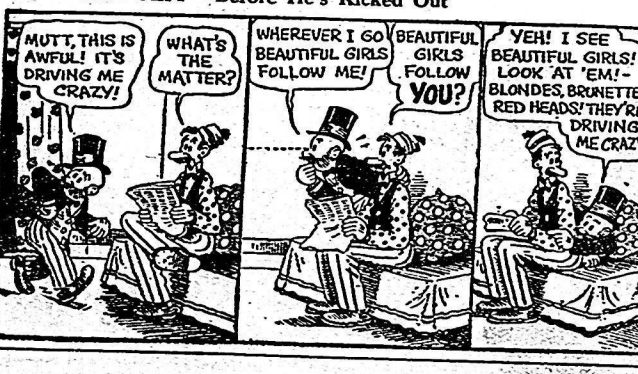

The first was from a citizen who stood, with pain and disgust mingled in his swartly features, viewing the still-cheering crowd pouring toward the exits.

Mr. Dalton stressed that though Britain's internal financial position was sound, yet its external position was generally with American and Canadian loans being used up much faster than intended.

But naturally horse-racing would be at this period, for most in the minds of all right-thinking sports men and isn't it comforting to think that for the next six or seven months, we Jays will be able to lose our shirts on strictly Canadian race-tracks, instead of doing the same thing on the same track, but in some foreign soil.

The gentleman who watch the morning's work-down at lovely Woodbine report to us that it has been quite chilly there in the early evening and one of them claims that a certain Jay is getting, when the same thing on the same track, but in some foreign soil.

Turning over the picture, we saw that it was of a horse that had never raced in these parts. The photograph, through carelessness on the part of a filing clerk, had got into the wrong drawer.

Britain Budgets For 1948 Surplus

The Briton is probably the most heavily taxed individual in the world, largely because his country's economic strength was sapped by six years of war. With what he has left after taxes he finds little to buy because of shortages.

Excise Levies Increased
Budget Day for fiscal 1947-48 came last week. Hugh Dalton, Chancellor of the Exchequer, disclosed figures showing how much the Government would spend, how much it would collect for revenue.

Why BE ENVIOUS OF other peoples' coffee when you can serve Maxwell House? It's the world's leading brand and it contains choice Latin-American coffees for extra flavor.
