book on the desk.
"It's late," he said, breaking the all a bout." he said, oreaking the silence. "You came to see me about something. It must be important for you to call at this hour. I hate to hurry you, perhaps you'll tell me what this is all about."

She turned abruptly and came

"I want you to do something for

"What can I do for you?" His voice was urgent and exasperated. "Well"—she fumbled for a phrase

--you'll probably have an-an op-portunity to go through Curt Val-laincourt's things, won't you?"

"We-e-ll." Better not tell her th

He looked up, pursing his lips.

"There is something of mine-that is, Curt had some letters that belong to me. I thought—"

"That I might take them out rom under the eyes of the police?

I'm afraid I wouldn't have the chance. By this time, the place has been gone over with a vacuum

"But they wouldn't just be in any ordinary place. I'm sure he had a hiding place somewhere in that "I doubt it. It seems perfectly

". . . Tut, tut. Your intonation

"My, you're clever, aren't you?"

"Let us say-well-trained. You visited Vallaincourt often?"

"No I-well, that is, I went there a few friends." She was on her guard now. "Often enough to look about for something that was mine."

apartment. A wall safe or-or something."

obvious that you have already looked in every available place."
"Why I—"

gave you away."

"Oh, no."

Charter NV: Doalevery says that Veronica is the obvious suspect. He mentions that the munder wearon has not been found, but that it should be in the park near an old cannon. As soon as Dodlevy departs, McCale and Picky rush out to search for the sun. In the barrel of the old cannon they find a red wir. a woman's. McCale believes this implicates Shari Lynn in some way.

"Well-then." He threw the red wig down on the coffee table between them. She gasped. "Where'd you get "In the cannon where you hid it. Now get this straight. Any cop or judge or lawyer is going to know after I produce this wig that your story is phoney. You should have taken more pains with it if you wanted your story to stick. You're in a jam, lady. I think you're going to be in a worse one. You're making a little gamble on your own somewhere along the line and I think you'd better tell me what It

Her eyes narrowed for a brief "I'll give you five minutes, Think He went over to the desk, holding out his wrist as if timing her by his watch. It was five minutes

At two o'clock, he turned to her again. She surprised him by be-ginning to talk almost immediately. She had found the wig at Vallaincourt's apartment, days before. He had some woman who came there to see him, someone disguised as Veronica. She denied she was the the slightest idea who could have been checking up on him. No. whoever was watching evidently had to think that only Veronica went cause you'd think the only person to whom it would matter would be Veronica herself. Lately the woman hadn't come any more. Hence "Didn't Vallaincourt confide in you at all?" McCale asked. 'No. Why should he?'

"I've played with the idea that you were once his wife." A secret iook behind the mascara told him he was right, but she said nothing. He got up, reaching for his hat on a nearby chair. At the door, he turned, his dark-eyed face all sharp points and edges in the light.

"You're in a bad spot." He tried to control the hardness in his voice.
"I'd lock the door if I were you."

He saw fear burning bright in her "Is that the advice you were going to give me?"
"Yes," he said.

He became deadly serious. Some-how he had to get through to her. He slipped a business card from his wallet and placed it on a nearby "If you're frightened or just want to talk," he said, "call me at the number on that card. You really should talk, you know. I mean more than you've talked so far. I know you're holding back something important-something that is "All right," he went on wearily, you're planning to sell that infor But let me warn you, you are dealing with a cold-blooded murderer. You're in danger, Miss Lynn. You

She laughed loudly, hysterically, "You fool," she screamed. "You think you know a lot, Well, what do you know? Just a lot of bunk I told you. You think you can scare me into admitting something. I can take care of myself. What're you trying to do? Get out! Get out!" The buzzer sounded in the outer office. McCale looked at his watch. It was three in the morning He opened the office door, looked out into the hall, and wondered who could be calling at that hour. Sharp heel clicks told him it was a woman coming up the stairs. The head let that person supply his name?

5. Is it proper for a bride who is being married in a traveling cosgirl swathed in furs, with a cowl aling most of her face, rose out of the stairwell.

She saw him, hurried forward with a short laugh and stepped in side hurriedly. She pushed back informal dinner?

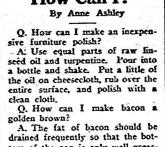

the cowl of her Persian lamb coat and he saw the black hair and Beardsley face of Victoria Bigelow "I'm a mystery woman," she said, giving him an amused smile. He didn't smile back. "Of course you know you've probably been fol-

"About my being followed here," she said, "have no fear. The police didn't even put a man on the house Old unimpeachable family stuff." You can't be sure." "Sure enough." She shrugged the suggestion away.

He watched Victoria with a bor-person and, if possible, you may mention two or three of the group's names together. 2. Yes, it is cusnames together. 2. 1es, it is cus-tomary to do so, and usually gifts of jewellery. 3. In the same person as that of the invitation—usually the third person. 4. No; ask him his name and then make the intro duction. 5. She usually has a maid or matron of honor. 6. Bridge, dancing, or perhaps a show.

How Can I?

drained frequently so that the bottom of the pan is only well greased. Remove from the an when the bacon is light golden brown and from wood?

A. Moisten with oxalic acid. let it remain for a few minutes, and then rinse. Do not apply to finish-ed wood or furniture, as this removes the varnish. Q. How can I clean soiled vel-

A. Scrape a small quantity of French chalk over the soiled spots, and then brush with a stiff brush. All dirt will be removed with the

C.N.E. BULLETIN

Bride's Budget Will Win $100

Are you to be a bride-to-be? Could you use an extra $100 If so, there's a Bride's Budget contest sponsored by the Cana-dian National Exhibition this year. The winner will net $10 cash prize money. Prospective brides entering the budget competition may obtain entry forms by writing Exhibition headquarters at the C.N.E. Grounds, Toronto.

All entries must state the bride-elect's five rules for happy marriage. Costs of all trous seau items should be listed or the cost of linen and the amount the bride-to-be expects her pa rents to spend on the wedding. ludges for the bride's compo married women. Kate Aitken, Director of Women's Activities points out that arrangement have now been made for simil garments indicated in the prize-winning budget to be displayed for all C.N.E. visitors to see. Bright young ladies of today

"Vallaincourt was hanging onto your correspondence.' 1. . . "Then why didn't you just ask for it?" are careful to make up the "I did, but he'd only laugh and say he'd give them all back when vedding budget in black and white. Some clever bride-to-be will win $100 for her wedding She caught herself. She bit her lower lip sullenly.
"When he was safely married to "You're quite the Sherlock, aren't I not buy your services? I want ose letters. Do I get them?" She moved closer to him and stared him in the face boldly, viperish intensity in her eyes. For a moment, McCale gazed deeply to her vicious little soul. "Not from me." His voice was as cold as steel. . He turned away from her with a brusqueness intended to convey that he was through with their little

He spoke quietly. "I'm sorry. I wish you'd take my word for it that there are none of your letters at the Vallaincourt apartment. No letters of any kind, in fact." She eyed him narrowly. "You've been there already." He nodded. "Thanks, but I don't believe you."

"don't believe me. But I assure you, there is nothing there. There's not a wall safe or a sliding pane "The police-"I hardly think so. I was there pefore they arrived. To Be Continued

Modern Etiquette By Roberta Lee

tume to have bridesmaids?
6. What kind of entertainme should a hostess plan to follow ar

1. No; introduce him to each person individually, but it isn't neces-sary to mention his name to each

1. When introducing a man to a group of persons, is it all right to introduce him to them collectively? 2. Is it customary for the bride to present her bridesmaids with gifts? 3. In what person should a reply to a formal invitation be written?

4. When making an introduction and one has forgotten the name of the persons, should he pause and Home will be lots gayer with you in these pretties! Merry morning glories decorate a practical apron andana, oven mitt. Simple stitches Be happy while you work at these and in these! Pattern 902 has transfer of motifs; pattern pieces; charts. Send TWENTY-FIVE CENTS in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern to the Needlecraft Dept., Room 421, 73 Adelaide St., West, Toronto. Print plainly PATTERN NUMBER, your

902

00

Except for the modern tractor in the background, this photo might be a painting of "The Sower" by Jean Fancois Millet. It shows Alfred Cross, a Caterham, England, farmhand, sowing barley. He is one of thousands of British farmers who work from dawn to dusk to make up for over six weeks lost in Britain's battle for food, due to disastrous winter weather and floods. ANNE HIRST Your Family Courselor -

BRITAIN'S BATTLE FOR FOOD BEGINS

A SEPT

Family: Don't Force Loveless Marriage

* and go with a boy nine years * older. He is very jealous, and * if I even look at another boy he

* if 1 even look at another boy he * becomes insulting. Then he claims * he doesn't mean any harm!
* Mother and Dad are crazy about * him, and when I tell them about this they say it is my fault. He buys me anything I want, and will take me anywhere I like to

This lad may have won your parents over; but it is how you and he get along that matters.

No young man has the right to object to your going with other boys, unless you are engaged to him. And at your age, it is far safer to be seeing more boys than one, so you will learn how much he means to you and how he com-pares with them. He may be a good catch, but that doesn't mean you would be happy as his wife.

I think I'd have an understanding both with him and your parents. Tell them all that you wan a wider social life, and why. Enjoy it among other nice lads you know (whom your parents like too) and don't give this boy all your dates. That will make him less possessive, and you more in-

Anne Hirst helps you work out your problems. Write her in Price Up 233 P.C.

The cocoa bean, source of che plate candy, has risen as much o more than any other commodity. Last October it sold for nine cents a pound. Today it costs 30 cents

33 per cent in six months.

ound, which makes a price rise of care of this newspaper.

teresting.

a go of it?

'MY FAMILY thinks a girl of 2 * should be thinking of marriage-* and I myself don't like to thin maid!" herself in knots because she fears that plump little guy with wings and an arrow may save his shots for younger fry.
What a - pity!

* These are her years for good times * -for dancing, parties, movies and * sports-dating first one lad and * then another and taking her own * good time to make a choice. In-* stead of which, egged on by an * impatient family, she regards the * whole male sex as potential husbands. No wonder she's "mixed up and worried and doesn't know where to turn!" Her family, o course, have the perfect husband all polished up and waiting on * her doorstep. A nice young chap * with a good job, who has all the qualifications — except that the girl doesn't love him.

LOTS OF TIME Why doesn't she love him? Ah. that's the secret. Another lad is enshrined in her heart, one who's been away, and whom she hasn't seen for a long, long time. She doesn't even know that he returns her love, but there is a small hope smouldering within her, and unti that is extinguished she cannot persuade herself to view any other male as husband materia other male as husband material.

Yet she confesses she is afraid to dismiss the man her family approves, "for fear I won't find anyone else!"
A generation or so ago, if a girl reached the age of 25 without being married her fate was sealed. The custom of marrying early still exists in many families, and they insist the tradition be and they insist the tradtiion be upheld. If a daughter rebels, she is practically an outcast, discour aged in any career that may appeal, and treated as a disloyal member who refuses to accomp lish her main purpose in life! It takes stubborn courage and a deep faith in on's self to fight me this girl has both, and that she will keep on nourishing her hope that the man she remembers will soon return, and with love in his heart.

To "Diana": Some of the happiest wives I know did not marry until they were 30. Don't let your family get you down. Let this boy know he has no chance with you, but keep him as a friend if he and your people inyour own, study and make some-thing of yourself, and let the question of marriage wait.

• JEALOUS BOY DEAR ANNE HIRST: I am 17

Sunday School Lesson

The Struggle Against Baalism immoral allurement. The heather 1 Kings 18:20-21, 20-39. 1 Kings 18:20-21, 20-39. Golden Text.—Hear me, O Lord, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the Lord God, and hat thou hast turned their heart ack again.—1 Kings 16:37.

All through the Old Testament runs the story of the conflict be-tween true worship and the wor-ship of idols — the moral and ent worship of the Supreme Being and the superstitious bowing to wood and stone.

It was a boldly noble conception was made in the image and likeness in which man dared to say that he Wherever men had this concep-tion of God, no matter how diffy they perceived it, they were lifted Contrast this with the pagan and his grotesque and ugly objects of But the people often turned from the God of their fathers to worship graven images and to practice idolatrous rites. This is not true of a few. These were humble and lowly saints and the great prohpets. The Lord reminded Elijah in his mood of depression, following his of a baby carriage with some dull, great victory against the prophets of Baal, the sun god, that there

Why were the people drawn to idolatry when their religious heri-tage ought to have kept them true? For precisely the same reason that people turn to false gods and false ways today—the line of least re-It was the way to indulgence and grading aspects. What does all this mean in terms of today? The idols and images are different, but the allurements and the moral degradations are the same. Every daily paper, as its news columns reflect the moral, social, and religious life of our reflect every lines over the same.

And it is true, as it was of old, that sin seeks out individuals and peoples. False gods and false worship can destroy us as surely as they destroyed of old, unless the good that is in us prevails over

Shield Baby Eyes Even when a baby is old enough for sunbaths, the eyes should be be shielded from direct rays of th sun until able to move about easily.

Doctors suggest that the baby be placed with feet pointing away from the sun, so that eyebrows and upper lids shield the eyes. It is

2.000,000 Lambs Lost ambs in last winter's severe weather instead of the original 250,000 estimated by the government, it was revealed in the House of Com-

RICH, SPICY CINNAMON BUNS

6 milk, add 3 tbs. shortening, ¼ c. sugar, ½ tsp. salt; cool to lukewarm. Add

1 c. sifted flour to make a 1 C. streed nour to make a batter. Add yeast mixture and 1 beaten egg; beat well. Add 2½ c. sifted flour, or enough to make a soft dough. Knead lightly, place in greased bowl. Cover; set in warm place, free from draft. Let rise until doubled is ball about 2 bour. When in bulk, about 2 hours. When light punch dough down; roll out into oblong piece, about 1/4" thick. Brush with 3 ths. melted shortening or butter. Sprinkle with 3/4 c. brown sugar, 1½ tsps. cinnamon, ½ c. raisins. Roll up length-26. craisins. Koll up length-wise in a tight roll; cut in 1" slices. Place cut-side up, 1" apart in greased shallow baking pan. Cover; let rise in warm place until light; about 1 hour. Bake in 425°F; oven about 20 minutes. oven about 20 minutes.

Recipe

WHEN HOUSEWORK GETS TOO MUCH FOR YOU ... JUST SEE WHAT

ONLY LIPTON'S BRISK-TASTING

● Yes, it's really exhilarating—that delightful flavor-Lift you get with Lipton's Tea. It's a grand combination of rich, full-bodied tea flavor... plus a lift that just makes you feel good all over. And only Lipton's Tea gives you this flavor-Lift... because it's the blend that makes Lipton's and the blend is Lipton's own secret! Try Lipton's! See what a delicious, brisk-tasting tea it is... what a stimulating lift it gives you! Ask for Lipton's, the tea with the flavor-Lift, at your grocer's today! your grocer's today!

LIPTON'S TEA CAN DO!

TEEN-TOWN TOPICS

Gordon Sinclair Jr., of Etobicoke
High School. The younger Gordon has been filling the shoes of his famous father, Gordon Sinclair as a newscaster at CFRB, Toronto,

Gordon Jr. handles the newscast ing very well, and, if he so desires. will likely wind up with just such a job some day. Besides attending Etobicoke High School as a student, he is co-editor of the school paper, writes a column for Canafian High News and another weekly and then does the daily broadcasting stint in the bargain. In his late teens, young Sinclair is on the threshold of a good journalistic career and no one can argue but that he is off to a good start. Best of luck, Gordon.

Also in the spotlight this week is Mary Lou Dilworth, teen-age student of Oakville Collegiate, Toronto, who writes a cupid-advice column for the Canadian High News, a student weekly that cireulates, the province. Mary Lou was recently featured in a two-page spread in the New World magaa few weeks ago as a guest on th CBS programme, "We the Peo-ple," and had a nice trip to New York out of the deal. Seems as if quite a crop of juniors are aspiring to the writing field and, believe me, a by-line at the top of a regular column at 17 and 18 is nothing to sneeze at, and doesn't go unno ticed either. Many of you reading this, have already written to Mary Lon for advice on your love mixups and what-nots and the little gal that jots down the answers is doing a swell job of it.

The Weston teen-club recently hit the news pages the hard way, with some of the members having number nines planted in their faces and their noggins bumped against the floor. You no doubt heard about it. A few rowdies decided to enter a dance the club were having, (loaded down with laughing soup) and when refused admittance, started to play rough house. A night in the cooler no doubt made the bad boys feel different . . . . .

We are in receipt of a poem it. Although a little zany it con-tains a little truth, so here it is: TIS SPRING The snow is gone and spring is here,

The rains have come and it is drear,
The grass is turning and the buds Mom's a cleaning, pop has the gout, The clouds go sailing far and near. But anyway, spring is here.

According to some figures we read recently (and we can't rememjust what they were) crime is on the down-swing. Believe it or not, there were fewer arrests in ada's largest cities. Crime among

"If you don't know," says Elsie the Borden Cow, "how easy it is to have pasteurized whole milk-any-

"With Klim Powdered Whole

Milk, you make milk for drinking or cooking—anytime—in a wink!

Just add it to water. Beat! There

~~///·la

MILK

INAMINUTE!

Klim is whole milk-only the natural moisture removed. Gives you the cream, minerals, proteins, vitamins of pasteurized whole milk.

It's pasteurized

THE BORDEN COMPANY LIMITED

IN HANDY POWDERED FORM

No waste . . . make it as needed. Keep where. Listen-it is!"

crime actions at the moment, don't know, but let's all work to gether to keep all Canadian crimes on the down-swing. Down near the south-west con

ner of Ontario is a place known at Kingsville. To most of America it is not known as Kingsville, but the Jack Miner Bird Sanctuary. I any of you teeners are planning a trip this summer in that vicinity by all means go down there and visit this famous spot. Big plans are being made for the sanctuary by Manley F. Miner, son of the late Jack Miner. This memorial to a great lover of birds is one of the beauty spots of our province We haven't been there for a number of years either, but through with the doings down there an we know that if you visit the Jac Miner estate you will remember it as a visit well worth the time.

It seems as though we just get started on this column when we have our space filled, so we'll run along for now. Don't forget that those bird houses you built last winter should be out now. Almost any night from 10 p.m., on you can hear the Canadian geese honkaround in the brooder pen; two new calves at the barn; an almost empty coal bin; a mother robin sitting on her nest over the front door on the outside; a long black cobweb hanging from the front door on the inside; the beginning of daylight saving time—and the ing overhead as they fly to their northern playground for the sum-mer. If you can remember, bend an ear some night and when you give you a thrill-see if it doesn't.

Canadian Style

dream. A Helen Morgan cotton with a narrow plastic belt. The stripes are set in chevron pattern on both skirt and bodice.

we went (my hat and I!) with a other member for company. I was glad I didn't miss it. It was a wonderful meeting; friendly, well organized, a good programme pro-vided, and finally there was the tea, which was well served, dainty and abundant. I describe the tea in that order because, to my way of thinking, it is a matter for com-Probably everyone has been at teas and lunches where the food supply was more than enough but where the service was very poor. Haven't you had the experience of galore as they were passed to you while you thirsted for the second Solve your milk problem cup of tea that never same? perhaps the tea arrived but the cream and sugar didn't. Don't you think at all these social affairs the tea or coffee should be the first consideration? Generally the room or hall is crowded: one gets hot, tired and thirsty, and one anticipates longingly that good, hot cup of tea which we hope is in the offing. More than once when "eats" without the cups being replenished I have felt like shouting-"Give me tea or I die!"

However, at this tea there was nothing like that. Everything was just perfect—including the marvel-lous birthday cake which was made y one of the members. There were ecorate the tea table. Big. fullof nearly every woman present. The guest speaker chose as her topic the evils of self-pity as com-pared with the fulness of life which comes from living and working for others. If an illustration were needed it could surely have been found in this particular branch of the W.I. This birthday celebration couldn't have been planned if the women had indulged in self-pity. In fact the branch, as a whole, which is now a live and energetic organization, is actually in existence because women during the past fifty years, had given of their time, their work and their enthusiasm.

Listen-I hear a tractor! That means one of our neighbours is out ploughing. Partner must have heard it toe for he has just announced he is going up to the back field to see what the land is like. Farmers are all alike. Let one of their number start ploughing, seeding

... TABLE TALKS ...

Pressure Cooking

practised for many years by home-makers throughout Canada. They bare been able, in the canning season, to appreciate the advantages of this method, and, since the principle involved is the same in the new smaller pressure saucepans, they are ready, willing and able to use them

Time is a factor of great im portance to every homemaker since there never seem to be enough hours in a day to accom-plish all the tasks that fall on her shoulders. So, if this new method of cooking did nothing but shorter her time spent over the stove in the kitchen, it would then and there become a favorite. Since also produces foods with good f vour and colour, it pleases the whole family and does something towards keeping mother less tired and in good humour. There are several makes

British soldiers examine wreckage of a barracks that was blasted when two Jewish terrorists blew up a police station beside British headquarters in Tel Aviv, killing four British policemen and injuring five others. pressure saucepans on th Cana-dian market. The manufacturer of each make supplies a recipe book CHRONICLES OF GINGER FARM with complete directions which hould be closely followed. These suggested recipes should be used until the saucepan and methods are familiar. When one has thorough Signs of spring at Ginger Farm! one daffodil in full bloom; three stalks of asparagus two inches high; rest cannot be happy until they are at it too. I have seen it happen so often. mowledge of the mechanics of the saucepan, then and only then personal recipes may be tried.

The home economists of the Consumer Section of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, afself-pity. I must confess I have been indulging in it quite freely while typing this copy. The rea-son? Yesterday I cut my finger on a sardine can. The cut is deep, er testing recipes suggested by the ollowing recipes from their own

Barbecued Spareribs

on a sardine can. The cut is deep, ragged and right on top of the finger. Try typing some day with a sore finger and you will know what I mean. Even when I sort of wrap it around the next finger it gets in the way. And if I accidentally use it to tap a key . . . ouch! 2 lbs. spareribs 1½ tablespoons fat 2 cups canned tomatoes Salt and pepper 1/8 teaspoon curry powder Dash of cloves Partner is back from his tour

1/8 teaspoon of paprika
Dash of celery salt or 1 tbsp finely chopped celery stablespoons chopped onion inspection. He reports the remains of a snowbank in one fence corner, hepaticas in another and more work everywhere than he likes to con-2 small carrots thinly sliced template. But the ground is de 1 teaspoon H.P. or Worcest finitely not ready to plough. ershire sauce Cut spareribs into servings. Melt Canada To Raise fat in pressure saucepan and brown meat thoroughly on all sides. Add tomatoes, seasonings and vege-tables. Follow directions given by $25,000 Fund For World's Y.W.C.A. Youth centres and reconstruction work amongst young people Europe will be aided materially b $25,000 fund now being raised Canada, Mrs Walter C. Read president, National Council of th Young Women's Christian Asso ciation of Canada, has announced

NEW TERRORISM EXPLODES IN PALESTINE

a few clusters of rhubarb leaves; 300 chicks — minus six — running around in the brooder pen; two

Signs that are not of spring! At night—out of doors—one's breath s as visible as the steam from a oiling kettle; white frost on the roof tops and on the grass; thin root tops and on the grass; this ice on puddles and water furrows; goose flesh on one's person as one rises in the morning to put on the fires: bare trees and a cold wind blowing; and . . . oh well, let's skip it — let's talk about something Something pleasant? Sure that's easy. Last Thursday, for instance, I was invited to a special meeting of a local branch to celebrate the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Women's Institute in Canada. I was a little dubious as to whether should go since I am not in the habit of leaving chicks for any length of time for the first two weeks. However, Partner thought he could look after them-so away pleasant.

Mrs. Walter C. Rean

"Last fall we planned to back up "Really, work amongst the youth of Europe is just getting started. There is a tremendous job ahead. to get youth centres going through-"The most pressing need now is out Europe. This means, especially building repairs. In Prague, for instance, the Association has least been able to move back to its old premises but repairs and decorations have not yet been completed In Berlin a centre has been opene where young girls may bring theli sewing and mending; this was done particularly with the help of : Swiss worker. The money raised in Canada during the next month or so, Mrs. Rean said, will be apportioned to all the various needs arising out of th construction work of the World's Y.W.C.A. REG'LAR FELLERS-The Hard Way

LEMME
GET THISYOU GOT A DOLLAR
TO PAY FOR HAVIN'
A LOOSE TOOTH PULLED ?

0000

11/2 cups canned tomatoes 1 teaspoon salt 1/8 teaspoon pepper 1 teaspoon celery salt 4 whole cloves Piece of bay leaf 1½ cups diced carrots
½ cup chopped onton

Wipe meat, trim off excess fa and roll pieces of oxtail in flour Saute in the hot fat in the pressure saucepan until well browned. Add water, tomatoes and seasoning and cook under pressure for 50 minutes. Cool pressure saucepan according to directions given by manufacturer, add vegetables and cook under pressure for 5 minute U. S. Army Unit

11/2 cups bot water

TOO WEAK TO DO ANYTHING On CENTAIN DAYS' Of Month?
This fine medicine is very effective to relieve painful distress and tired, pervous, irritable feelings, of such dayswhen due to female functional monthly disturbances. Thousands report benefit LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S YEGETABL

ROSCOE

KARNS

DISTAD

Hipline Variety

There is endless variety in hip-lines, from the full skirt that stands out below a little flared peplum or cutaway jacket, to the more intri-cate drapery which swattes the hips Skirts, jackets, dresses, coats all share in hip importance, and because of some of the hip treat-ments, coats look like suits (when they're fitted and have a little pep-um), and suits look like dresses

HORIZONTAL deity
1 Depicted is 61 European insigne of U. S. Army — VERTICAL Division 6 Spain (ab.) 3 Wealthy men 4 Powerful ex-8 Behind 3 Weathy men 13 Silly 4 Powerful ex-14 Early 5 Him 6 Appear 16 Baronet (ab.) 7 Persian fairy 17 Simple 8 Paid notice 19 Cloth measure 9 Honey maker

23 It is an — 45 Weary of the U.S. 46 Genus of willows 25 Wager 47 Symbol 11 Symbol for iron 12 Attempts 17 Myself. constellation 24 Lincoln's 38 Armed conflict 39 Greek nickname 26 Insurgent

Isaac (Bib.) 31 Let it stand! 32 Great (ab.) assembly 36 Chew upon kingdom {2 Sheltered side

48 Before (prefix) 49 Near 53 Pertaining to a tela
56 Musical note
57 More rational 59 Masculine ganufacturer and cook 15 min ites. Thicken gravy if desired

Baked Beans 2 cups white navy beans 1/4 lb. salt pork diced or smoke pork fat 8 tablespoons brown sugar 8 tablespoons molasses

1½ teaspoon salt

½ teaspoon mustard

½ cup chopped onion 2 tablespoons catsup 2½ cups water Pick over beans and soak in wa r overnight. Drain and put in our-six serving bottom of pressure saucepan all the ingredients. Cook for minutes. Six servings. 2 lbs. oxtails, cut In 2" pieces

1/4 cup fat Don't Use Gasoline As Cleaning Agent

Spring cleaning season is here. It is time again to issue a warning which should not be necessary, bu still is. It has to do with the of gasoline as a cleaning fluid.

from time to time as to the safe safe way of doing it. The danger careless practices, but no matter always the danger of explosion.

Most cleaning processes require friction, and this is the major cause There is no need to use gasolin as a cleaning agent. There are many cleaning fluids on the market today quite as efficient, and having the advantage of being non-inflar Sounds Libellous The average housewife half a million germs on a dish after washing it, says a bacteriologist. Germs should be rationed. —Hamilton Spectator. ISSUE 19-1947

ONE BUCK FOR A JOB WHICH DON'T GIVE YOU

54 Symbol for 21 Driving philosopher 57 Senior (ab.) command 41 Looks askance 58 Diminutive 22 Gormandizer 44 Either of February

For generations Crown Brand Corn Syrup has meant the syrup with the delicious flavour

Today the quality and flavour of Crown Brand Corn Syrup is preferred by more Canadian families than ever before.

Try it today-as a delicious spread on bread, toast or scones, on pancakes or waffles. Many housewives prefer the distinctive flavour it gives their baking, when used as a sweetener. "We appreciate your loyalty to Quality."

CROWN BRAND CORN SYRUP THE CANADA STARCH COMPANY LTD.

Also Manufacturers of Canada Corn Starch

TH'ANSWER IS YES T' THAT ONE!

