C.G.I.T. PROGRAM WAS GOOD

The program presented by the C.G. I.T. in Annesley Church last Friday evening was well worth hearing. When the curtain rose the two rows of smiling girls sang "Pack up your troubles", and then several numbers in two parts, ending with a Lullaby. Lois Summers sang "White Christmas," and Doris Decker recited. "Christmas at Steb-bins" was the name of a two-act comedy which was exceptionally well acted by such a youthful cast, including Fern Harris, Joyce Parliment, Bianche McCullough, Mae Decker, Judy Sawyer, Joan Buschlen, Jacque-MacDonald Iona Alcox, Leona Alcox, Carol Leaver and Georgenia Whitney. Several girls were in charge of the bazaar of home made articles and a cafeteria lunch followed.

PLEASANT VALLEY FARM FORUM The Pleasant Valley Farm Forum held its regular meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stoddart, with of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stoddart, with a large attendance. The meeting open-ed with a lively discussion on "What could be done in our community." It was decided that we would continue the fight towards getting mail route changed, also to approach the township about the brush on sides of roads. We are hoping for some action to-wards these two projects in the near future. As it is near Christmas our till Thursday a.m. Service in the forum is going to cancel the meetings Chapel of the Brampton Funeral Ser-mtil after the New Year. This meet-ing will be held at the home of Mr. 18th at 2 pm. Interment Forest Lawn and Mrs. Charlie Tolton.

man for the evening, Mr. Howard Gra-ham of Vandeleur, who took charge with his good humoured remarks add-ing to the evening's enjoyment. The singing of Christmas carols, accompanied by Miss Gladys McFad-den at the piano, was the opening number. Misses Joy Graham, Armette Hill and Ivan Brown sang solos. The courtship duet by Mr. W. J. McFadden and Mrs. L. Bumstead was warmly applauded. Mrs. Beirnes gave a reading on the recent bus trip which the Forum took to the Royal Wirster Fair, in which she related about Eiot Smith lesing his wife in Eaton's store, one of the gentlemen of the party sporting his neighbour's wife around the city while their better-halves were drudg ing away at home. Robert McLoughry and Clarence Alcox gave an amusing chat on dreams they had the night before which referred to several of the reighbours. Mr. McLoughry then directed a fun program, broadcast from O.V.F.F. Punkin Centre. Pigskin Pete broadcasting, with several artists being interviewed. Next was a quartette composed of Mr. Burnstead imperson-ating Fred Allan, Alf. O'Neil as Gene Autry. W J. McFadden as Bing Cros-by, and G. W. Littlejohns as George were auctioned off by "Pigskin Pete". There were about twenty-five in number and brought about $20.00 to be forwarded to the Provincial Forum secretary. The boxes were gaily decorated and the contents was equall as good to eat. Santa Claus then arrived at 'the right time' to "thrill" the younger members present and give out the presents. The Christmas Par nad been well arranged, and a more enjoyable evening has not been had for some time.

Harkaway S. S. Concert

The annual Harkaway Sunda School Christmas tree and concert was held in the church on Friday evening, Dec. 12th, with the pastor, Rev. Harrower chairman for the evening. The program included Christmas carol singing, recitations by Ronnie and Marleen Boyes, Raymond Smart and Warre Taylor, and two dislogues. Wayne Taylor and two dialogues "Three in a bed" and "Your Order, Sir" by the junior classes. Margaret Harrower played two piano solos.

Harrower played two plano solos.

The Superintendent, Mr. Bradley, gave a short address stressing the importance of the caurch and Sunday School in the community, and urging the parents to not only send their the parents to lind to lind send them children viol Sunday School but to come along with them. A monologue "The Answer" by Myrtle Smart; instrumental music (mouth organ and guitar) by Walter Goudy, and two humorous dialogues by the young people, "Moth-er runs the family" and "Fetching Paw Around" were all heartily enjoyed.

Candle Lighting Service

The Christmas meeting of the An-nesley Evening Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Walter Harris.

The meeting opened by singing "O Little Town of Bethlehem" and prayer by the president. The devotional part of the meeting took the form of a very lovely candle lighting service, ably conducted by Mrs. Gordon Hamilton. She was assisted by Mrs. Beaton who read Luke 1-46-55; Mrs. Fisher who read the Indian Christmas Carol, "Twas in the moon of Wintertime" and the African carol-"O Little One Lowly, O Little One Holy": Mary-Lou McArthur and Margaret Harris who sang sweetly "Away in a Manger", and by Mrs. Bert Armstrong who sans "Infant Lowly". Several other carols were sung by all the members and Mrs. Harris accompanied the service with piano music.

After the business was transacted Christmas reading was given by Mrs. Harold Thibaudeau, and a beautifully rendered solo "Jesu Bambino" by Mrs Bert Armstrong. The meeting concluded with the repeating of the W. M. S. Benediction after which lunch was served by Mrs. Aubrey Foster, Mrs. Clare Foster and Mrs. Frank Thibaudeau.
