A bolt of cotton was recently purchased and will be made into hospital gowns for the Markdale hospital, by the members. A donation of $25 was given the Canadian Appeal for Children fund.

TRAVERSTON

The back roads are treacherous. The light snow drifts in the frozen horse holes and fills them up. An old chap was hopping along humming— "This world is so full of a number of things."

We all should be a happy as kings when down he went and 'twas an entirely different ditty he coiled out when he got on his legs again.

Have just heard of a big celebration—the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John McNally of the 10 h concession, which is being held at the big home of Mr. and Mrs. Revel Boyce for the joyous event. We've known John since early boyhood days and his bride since early girlhood and they are most worthy of a genuine and happy celebration. Regret not having particulars at time of penning this.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hunt visited on Friday with Mr. and Mrs. John A. McCaig of the Rocky.

On Wednesday and Thursday of last week R. T. Cook cut up a big pile of wood for Messrs. Will Ryan and A. W. Robinson of the 4th con.

Mr. and Mrs. James Peart and Marilyn were visitors with Mr. and Thos. Glenross the first of the week.

That south-east wind is as chilling as that from the north pole.

Mrs. W. J. Cook is keeping Mrs. S. J. McNally company these days. That was her home in youth till her marriage in 1884.

Mr. W. J. Ritchie, township secretary and treasurer of the township school board area, paid a visit to No. 5 on Friday, as several things are necessary. One is a new blackboard, the old one has grown gray.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cook and Shirley visited Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Jackson of Walkerton over the week-end and took care of baby Donald, while his parents paid a flying visit to Toronto.

There are two hustling fellows to the north of us. One is Stanley Baker of the 19th con. (you'll hear a deal of interesting things about him in coming months); the other is that likeable go-ahead farmer, of the 8th con., Eddie McCarthy. He has a big tonnage of alfalfa cover. Not possible to team it to town so he hauls two loads through the hamlet per day to the 19th con, loads them on to Stanley Baker's truck and away its spins to McGowan's at Durham, receiving $20 per ton. That's the way to overcome difficulties. Miller McNally and son are doing a big business so the side-roads north and south are kept fairly good.

IN MEMORIAM

NELSON—In loving memory of my dear husband, James Nelson, who entered into rest February 27, 1947.

You are gone to that beautiful city Where no tears can dim the eye; Be forever with your Saviour In that Heavenly home on high. We watched the last breath leaving, You said goodbye to none. Golden gate open; Jesus took you Home. Sadly missed by your wife, Jane.
