No wonder the chief priests and elders bribed the soldiers to tell that the body was stolen away while they slept. His resurrection is set forth in the Scripture as a prophecy that we too, shall rise from the dead at His appearing in glory. It is also a type and a symbol of the Christian life even now. It is this last sense, that is emphasized in this lesson, "If. ye be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above - set your affection on things above that on things on the earth."
