MORE FARMERS GET HYDRO

This week several farmers residing on No. 10 highway in the Orange Valler district are looking forward to having their dreams realized—in this case it is the long-topped for hydro which is at last within their reach. So which is at list within their reach. So far the poles have been delivered, and the next step, which will take place within a few days, will see the lines stretched and then the lectricity. Parmers who will benefit by this new line are: Gordon Hill, Lorne Bumstead, W. J. McPadden, Jack Hill, Edgar Powies.

Hydro linemen in this case are no coult looking forward to the day when No. 10 highway may, like other main thoroughfares in the province, be made into four-lane highways, and with this in view, the poles will be placed behind the present road fence.

EASTER OPERETTA ENJOYED

"Peter Rabbit" was the name of the sprightly Easter operetta presented last Wednesday night at Orange Valley school under the direction of the tea-cher, Mrs. Ruth Eagles. The story of how Peter, Mother Rabbit and the three little girl rabbits, Flopsy, Mopsy and Cottontail invaded Mr. McGregor's garden and met the vegetables in person was all very amusing and exceptionally well presented by the

mrs. Ruth MacMicking, who assisted in preparing the cast accompanied at the piano for the singing parts, and also gave a piano solo. A trio includ-ing Lots and Mae Russell and Betty HHE sang, and two duets were given by Mr. and Mrs. Brock Johnston, with Mr. Johnston accompanying on the guitar. The program was delightful throughout and provided much useful training for the cast of young actors as well as enjoyment for those who

ADOPT SUNNYBROOK VETERAN

At the suggestion of the superintendent of Suprybrook Hospital Toiendem of Sunnybrook Hospital, Toonto, the name of a veteran was submitted recercity to a special committee of Freedom Chapter, Order of the Enstern Star, who is being adopted by the Chapter. Members appointed for this work plan to keep this veteran provided with comforts and needed articles from time to time, and to take a personal interest in his welfare. Over the Easter week-end the Committee forwarded a mantel radio to this para-plegic patient, and they plan to follow this with small remembrances at intervals during the year. It is suggested that an appropriate program may be undertaken for the local hospital also at such time as its proposed changeover is settled.

NEW ARRANGEMENT OUTLINED BY POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT

Effective April 1st, a new arrangement with regard to remuneration of postmasters of Revenue Post Offices will come into effect, by which postmasters will be paid a fixed amount to cover their services rendered by them personally. At the local post of fice the new method, as set out, will mean the present premises will be re-vised and made more up-to-date in keeping with the volume of business which this local office does. As soon as the proper-classification of the of-fice is decided upon, the necessary ad-justments will be undertaken.

MAIL ROUTE PATRONS MAKE PRESENTATION AT FORUM

Riverdale Farm Forum held its last meeting of the series on Thursday evening, March 25th, at the home of Mrs. George Irwin. During the course of the evening Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cherry were called forward and presented with a sum of money from the forum and many patrons of his mail route. Mrs. Bowen expressed the sym-pathy of those present to Harry and Mildred in the loss of their home by fire recently, and Olifford Hutchinson made the presentation. Mrs. Cherry-thanked those present for their kind-ness. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

TOWN PROPERTIES SOLD

Two changes in property ownership have taken place in town the past week. The former Murdoch property, owned by Charles T. Moreland, has been bought by Mrs. Clarence Bartley of Ceylon who gets possession shortly. Mr. and Mrs. Moreland, who purchased this property from W. J. Coigan over a year ago, and made further improvements to this main street residence, plan to reside in Scarboro where they have purchased a dwelling.

Mr. Lorne Dennison has sold the property purchased from C. R. King on main street east, to Wm. Ellison who is leaving the farm because of ill Mr. and Mrs. Dennison will the Crowston flat later this spring when the new owners will get

DUNDALK DOUBLE CHAMPIONS With an 8-0 victory at Flesherton on Monday evening, Dundalk Trappers are hailed champions of the Semi-Pro Hockey League, and winners of the McDougail Trophy. Dundalk won the best-of-five series in four games, with Dest-oi-nve series in four games, with Reg. Inkster scoring seven of the eight goals in the final game. This victory makes the Dundalk puck-chasers the all-high teams for this season, having won the C.O.H.L. finals and the Callaghan trophy from Markdale. Both teams have been play ing heads-up hockey all season and the double victory makes it a banner year in Dundalk's hockey history. Both teams displayed fine teamwork, good leadership, along with clean sports-manship. It's hard to keep a good team down which no doubt explains Dundalk's top place.

CHAIN LETTERS ARE ON THE LOOSE AGAIN

We thought the chain letter had passed out of the picture with the Model T Ford, and for a time it did, but now a brand new one has popped up. Started in Reno, Nevada, this latest chain letter was put out in the hope it would bring relief and happiness to tired business men.

Unlike most chain letters, this one does not cost any money. Simply send a copy to five equally tired male friends, then bundle up your wife and send her to the fellow at the top of the list.

When your name comes to the top of the list, you will receive 16,167 women.

Like the preacher tells you every Sunday, you must have great faith. Do not break the chain. One man broke it and got his own wife back, thereby going to a lot of trouble and receiving only temporary results.—Durham Chronicle.

EASTER DANCE WAS ENJOYABLE Despite the weather, the Easter dance on Monday evening, this week, was fairly well attended. Easter Cantata Enjoyed By Large Audience

The Easter Story" set to music in a series of chorus and varied presenta-tions highlighted the Easter services at Annesley church here on Sunday evening, and a large and appreciative audience was present to enjoy it. Each number of the cantats was an inspir-ing presentation of the Resurrection, told in a delightful tuneful setting.

Following the opening hymn in which the congregation joined, each which the congregation joined, each number followed the one preceding it, and the whole was arranged to give variety and balance. The choir of thirty-five voices was directed by the organist, Mrs. Walter E. Harris, and throughout the rendition she denominated her skill as accompanist, and her ability as an organist and director. The Cantata "Now Is Christ Risen" by Carrie B. Adams, was presented as follows:

"The Lord Is Risen" by the choir. "Morn's Roseate Hues" by an octet consisting of Mrs. Lorne Dennison, Muriei Graham, Fern Harris, Carol Leaver, Mrs. J. A. Hamilton, Mrs. Har-ry McArthur, Mrs. Howard York, and

Ruth Alcox. A mixed quartette composed of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Dennison, Mrs. Howard York and Mr. Harry McArthur, with

A two-part number included "And Very Early in the Morning" and "Now Is Christ Risen" with Mrs. Bert Arm-strong taking the solo part. "The Trumpet Shall Sound" sung by the whole choir was well interpreted; Mrs. J. Perkins sang "If Ye Then Be Risen With Christ" as a solo.

"When Thou Hadst Overcome" was effectively sung by a male quartette, Messrs. Lorne Dennison, Gordon Bea-ton, Harry McArthur and Rev. Walter Lee. The final chorus "O Come Let Us Sing Unto The Lord" was a very lovely number, with Miss Marion Beaton takng the solo parts.

Into the preparation of this entire Into the preparation of this entire program, there went an enormous amount of practice, and the results justified the effort.
