The Quality Tea

ORANGE PEKOE

low, already half out of saddle. By the wide split skirt he kne the rider to be a girl, even before she

The old rancher was amazed and alarmed.

"Tim Callan's daughter!" He

Haskell spun from the window, snatched a boot and jammed in his foot as there came the sound of the

"You can stop those hot-headed fools if you try hard enough," Val-

"I will." Valdez slid over the window sill. "There's a forty-eight-hour truce on. I told you that."

set against us cattlemen. That makes you fair game wherever you're met up with."

end of Deep Water Valley.

away by now"

"The men have already gone, Mr.

Haskell," the cook told him. "They Haskell raced on. He must stop

Valdez vaulted lightly through de, said tightly, "You've got to."

cried out Haskell's name.

coming pronto!"

girl's horse racing away.

Synopsis Chapter XLI: Valdez tries to perthe culprit they seek, until more CHAPTER XLII "Then you can't do anything -

"But otherwise we --" began the "You've got to come, Mr. Has-The rancher brindled like a cat with its back up and tail fluffed out.
"You've got a nerve telling me k :p 2 crowd from riding to the valley. Bartle's brought in more what we can't do without bucking the law!" he roared. "You're a shinsettlers, and there's barbed wire on ing example of a law-abiding—"

"No matter what I am!" Valdez snapped curtly, "I'm asking you to hold your men in check for forty-hours. Sabe?"

"And suppose none of them feels like taking orders from an outlaw?" Haskell growled.

"Then you can all face the farmer's guns! Somebody tried to burn out a farmer named Pringle a few hours back. And if things had gone the way they started, after that, at a farmer's meeting tonight, your bulidings might have been ash piles by e' em, you mightn't be able to sit here talking now." "I've got eight punchers in the unkhouse!" b.astered Haskell. Then there would have been nine to the corral . . . Pete Haskell raced to Tim Calwere ready to ride down here and lan's spread in a lather. There he Haskeil stared "You mean you heard the sorest news he had heard since the first tobacco farmer had Valdez shrugged. "I'm giving you thrown up a long fence in the south orders now. They're for your good. For forty-eight hours you and all cattlemen keep out of the farmers velley Sabe? If you don't—" Through the pen window came the mud-muffled pound of a gallop-all ain't more'n three-four miles ing horse. Va lez shot a glance outside. He could glimpse a rider belittle "Me Too!" Make Pattern 4820 as a simulated jumper with puffed sleeves, round collar, for now. The angelic sunfrock is for summer! Pattern 4820: 2, 4, 6, 8, 10. Size 6, frock, 1% yds. 35-in.; 36 yd. con-trast. Sunfrock, 21/4 yds. 35-in. Send TWENTY-FIVE CENTS (25c) in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern to Room

plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS,

ISSUE 22 - 1948

JITLE NUMBER.

Your Handwriting and You Alex S Armon

Roy Rogers' Handwriting

Our readers should be especially interested in this week's analysis as it is that of the handwriting of Roy Rogers, king of the cou

If you have followed Roy's picture exploits you will know that they feature especially his gallantry in protecting the weak and un-fortunate. His script is written with light, fine lines, a strong indication of a spiritual nature which tends toward idealism and nobility of thought. Independence is shown in the letter "d", revealing Roy's desire to do things according to his own inclinations rather than those of other people—typical of the pioneering spirit. Extra large loops in his capital letters are also typical of the adventurous type of person, always willing to take bold

The smallness of the writing gives an appearance of concentration — a sign of power to focus attention on the more important issues. In some of the other letters, having decided loops with tight knots to close them, we see tenacity the On the whole Roy's writing i a good illustration of sincerity of purpose, really remarkable energy and a high-spirited personality.

thrust his head out of the window.
"Alice! Up here!" Roy Roger A dark-haired girl moved into the oblong of light on the ground. V+11 kell!" she cried "Dad's trying to Trygger Anyone wishing a more complete wagons."
"Get home and tell your dad I'm analysis please send self-addressed stamped envelope to Alex S Arnot 123. 18th Street, New Toronto 14 There is no charge for this service

> Advance Notes From the "Ex."

In five days recently, Mrs. Kate Aitken, women's director of the Canadian National Exhibi-tion, flew the Atlantic twice and visited Berlin, Paris and Lon-"Not on you, hombre!" Haskell snapped. "Looks like you're dead don. She had Exhibition business to do, as you might guess! It was nothing short of arranging to bring Princess Elizabeth's beautiful wedding dress to this the window into the blackness. He was out of sight when Haskell pounded down the stairs and out year's C.N.E., for one and all to see. Elwood Hughes, general manager of the "Ex.," had made the preliminary arrangements on his trip overseas. While in London, Mrs. Aitken also went to tea at Buckingham Palace, the guest of the King and Queen. If you haven't yet got your C.N.E. prize list, there's no time like now to sit down and write for it. Just send along your name to Mrs. Kate Aitken, Women's ing qualities of the material.

tablespoons of turpentine.

Director, C.N. Z., Toronto.

caught up with them at Chin-How Can 1? noc Pass, the main entrance to Deep By Anne Ashley l'ater Valley. He rode with gun in hand, grim determination in his Q. How can I remove scorch from "I'm not arguing," he told them. cotton fabric?

A. If it is badly scorched, try "But for the last time I'm telling you that the man who rides this dipping the article into cold water and hanging ?: dripping wet in the sunshine. When dry, wet it again, way and gets by this pinto of mine does so after he drills me. "I'll ride with you to town to Bartle's office," he offered, "provid-ing you let me speak to him alone and let me get away before one of you draws a gun on him. I don't want even a buzzard's blood on my hands or conscience. Sabe?" The men agreed to follow the level-headed Haskell. They turned

Ellen Maxon lay shivering with dread as the man she had once up the stairs and to the door of

He did not even knock. The knob was twisted, and Clark Weber knob was twisted, and Clark Weber stamped into the room and over to her bedside. She could hear his breath coming in fast, bitter snatches.

"Have you been in the barn loft?" demanded Weber.

Her denial died at sight of what lay in the palm of his outhrust head. It was a baire in out of the standard with with hazel. This treatment should be used daily.

lay in the palm of his outhrust hand. It was a hairpin, one of should be used daily. the rubber kind she used. He stooped, grabbed up one of her shoes from where it lay beside the O How can I prevent the rust ng of mattress springs?

A. Rub the springs occasionally with a cloth dipped into melted paraffin, and they will never rust bed and spat out a curse as he dis-covered the sole was caked with

What About It? figantly. "I have been in the barn loft. I set that poor little Mexican peon free! And you set me free The team's leading batter had stepped up to the plate and soundly smacked the first ball for a two-bagger with three men on base. The husband, a rabid fan, turned to his wife in high glee and shouted: "Did you see him his that ball?" when you tried to do such a con-temptible thing as to kidnap him to try to get gold from his father! You'll find your ring on the dresser."

Rage shook him, and his eyes blazed fire. "You little emptyyou see him hit that ball?" "Well, wasn't he supposed to?"

(To Be Continued)

New Canadians-Three hundred immigrants to Ontario from Holland arrived in Toronto recently. Most of them are farm folk and will settle in rural sections. Six fine-looking new Canadians rest on their baggage while waiting for a train to their new home in Owen Sound. From left are Adrianne Van de Steen, her sisters Josephine, Betsy, Annie and Maria.

* Is he jealous when you talk to to an old friend, or does he trust you?

Is he pleasant to your girl

seeing them?

Does he get along well with your family?

Does he help with the dishes when will know what love he feels for

To "S.V.," "A Little Afraid."

promise.

Have faith in the man you're going to marry, and let him know it.
Don't fear the future—you cannot escape trouble, but you CAN learn how to meet it. Write Anne Hirst at 123 18t! Street, New Toronto.

Modern Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. What is the best and most cor-

A. "Mrs. Smith, may I present

Mr. Brown?" is one of the usual forms of introduction A briefer form commonly used is, "Mrs. Smith, Mr. Brown." By emphasizing the more important person's name, it can be made as clear as though the words,

"May I present" had been used. Never say, "Mrs. Smith, meet Mr.

Q. Should the water glasses on the dinner table be filled before or after the guests have been seated?

quarters full just before the meal or the wedding ring be worn on the finger first?

A. The engagement ring is worn over the wedding ring.

Q. Is it all right for a divorcee to continue to use her husband's

A. It is now quite customary for divorced woman to use her malden name and her married name combined. If her name was Eliza-

s Brown, she signs her name, Mrs.

Carter Brown.
Q. Do guests filing into the dining room seat themselves immediately upon entering the room?

A. No; they should stand behind or beside their chairs and are seat-gives the signal or seats herself.

Thomas Gainsborough, painter of the famous "Blue Boy" had sketch-around his home by the time he wa-

A. They should be filled three-

4, if you think she can help.

rect form of introduction?

Instead of doubting the affection

ANNE HIRST Your Family Counselor-"How Do I Know

He Loves Me?" "I've been going with a boy for wo years," writes a young fiancee. "I love him more than life, and he says he feels the same way about you do them at home, or sit by and read a newspaper?

Is he strictly honest (I mean, has he real integrity) or does he said before they married. 'I know nothing will happen to Tom and me'!"

"How can they be so sure?
Must we just take the boy's word for it? I'm airaid to be too sure, for fear of getting hurt."

And many a girl, in the weeks We never can be sure that "nothing will happen" between ourselves and the one we love. A safer thought is: "If anything does happen to us, I know we'll come through all right."

That faith is based on the know-ledge we have of the man we are to marry—knowledge accumulated through the years of our friend-

They have singled you out to marthat proves they love you best. Remember, though, that when you Knowledge and Faith All lovers have misunderstandings. How has the young man marry you'll live together practically 24 hours out of 24. It is immeasured up through them all? Is he quick to con lemn you, or portant that you trust each other. Make sure you do. And learn, dur-ing this engagement period, to talk anxious to give you the benefit of any doubt?

Lees he think of your pleas-* ure first, or of his own? Is he tender when you are ill,

Lanra Wheeler

Beginners! You can have these beautiful linens! Such fun to start on this design — It offers such variety. Embroidery and crochetl Roses, pansies; lace edge. Pattern 645; transfer of 6 motifs 31/4 × 81/4 to 31/2 x 111/2 inches; crochet direc-Laura Wheeler's new, improved pattern makes needlework so simple with its charts, photos, concise direcsend TWENTY-FIVE CENTS in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern to the Needlecraft Dept., Room 604, 371 Bay Street, Toronto. Print plainly PATTERN NUMBER, your NAME and ADDRESS.

What Do You Know About Dogs?

Most people have, at some time Most people have, at some time or other, owned a dog—or intend to do so at some tuture date. The majority of them have a number of beliefs regarding dogs—some of which are true, others not. Below the document of the source of are fifteen questions regarding dogs, their behavior and their care. Try and answer all the questions correctly from your own knowledge.
Then look at the lowers printed below and see just what your per-centage is Twelve correct out of fifteen would be a really good score. 1. Will a dog always like the person who feeds him better than anyone else? YES .... NO ....

* has he real integrity) or does he

• just get by?

* Is he generous with money, or

* a penny-pincher? (Of course

* you've discussed budgets, and

* who will handle his salary?)

* And (this is important) do you

* two laugh at the same jokes, like

* the same foods, enjoy the same

* sports and entertainment? If you 2. Is a nose that is cold and moist a sure sign that a dog is in good health? YES ... NO .... 3. If a dog appears bad-tempered and vicious is it safer to stand still than it is to run away? YES 1... NO ....

sports and entertainment? If you differ, does he compromise, or think you should go along with 4. Is it a fact that if a dog's coat is brushed every day, he need hardly ever be bathed? YES .... NO ... 5. If the roof of its mouth i completely black, is it a sign that the odg is pure-bred? YES .... you, and your chances for a good marriage.

6. Is it true that the normal temperature of a healthy dog is between 101 and 102 degrees? YES .... of these young men, be intelligent.

ANSWERS

1. NO. Many dogs are fed by servants while their masters are away, but will prefer the master, paying attention to the servar 2. NO. Dogs with a high temping this engagement period to talk things over when you don't agree, and dogs with hot noses are often quite normal.

> —and often catch and bite—a per-son who runs away; but can gen-erally be held at bay by standing still and not showing fear > 4. YES. A good stiff brushing and combing every day is the best way of keeping a dog clean. White-haired dogs have to be bathed occasionally, but only for the sake of looks, not health.

3. YES. A vicious dog will chase those of many prize-winning thorobreds. 6. YES. 7 YES. Puppies are normally born with eyelids sealed tightly to-

5. NO. Mongrels often have mouths with blacker roofs than TABLETS Mint Flavored Pilitips gether They should never be pried apart, but will open of themselves, generally within 9 or 10 days.

POUNTIGGET" YOUR SHO

Sunday School Lesson By Rev. R. Barday Warres.

Damei Stands By His Convertions.
Damei 1:5-20.

Golden Text:— But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wise which he requested of the prince of the cunuchs that he might not defile himself. — Daniel 1:3.

Daniel has always been "a boy's hero". As a lad he was taken a cap-tive in Jerusalem and led off to Babylon, the capital city of a pagen empire. He was to be fed with the portion of the king's meat and with the wine which he drank as part of his preparation to appear before the king. In such circumstances it would have been easy to ignore the teachings of his youth and the circumstances. teachings of his youth concerning clean and unclean reats. But Dan-iel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himseli. Yet he was not offensive about it and court-cously requested that he and his companions be tester for ten 'ay on a diet which would not be in on a diet which would not be in conflict with his convictions. God blessed them physically, intellectually and spiritually for this noble stand. When they appeared before the king, he found that in all matters of wisdom and understanding they were ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers in his King Nebuchadnezzar was am azed—and convinced. For the bal ance of their school days Danie ever-blooming candidate for a sun-ny spot in your window. Christmas Cheer, with its scarlet-crimson and his companions were permitted to continue their simple diet. With the courage of convictions Dan-iel dared to "sta... alone" and, even in the face of possible danger to himself, to do what he had been brought up to regard as right and The pledge of abstinence from all that defiles was the safe course for those young visitor to Babylon, magnificent capital of the greatest empire then upon t' globe. There is no wiser course for those, young and old, living in the present era more than two thousand years later

PIMPLES AND BLACKHEADS Quickly helps to clear up these blemishes feaving skin soft and smooth. Proven over Dr. Chase's Ointment

ROOMS BEAUTIFULLY

FURNISHED $1.50 up

Sweeten

SOUR

Periwinkle is a charming annual which makes an exceptionally good house plant because it endures heat well. It develops slowly into a 12-inch plant with pholx-like flow-ers and waxy green foliage. Prim-til the sprouts appear. Once up, they require sunshine and a con-stant supply of moisture. Your seedlings should be moved into small pots or later on into larger ones, only when the roots begin to crowd. Grown outdoors all summer, carefully watered and ky plants for your fall and winter window garden. Almost Sorry should be placed over the top un-

The Green Thumb

By Gordon L. Smith

With so much to be done out doors right now, it is very easy to forget about your house plants. But many fascin-

But many fascinating kinds — in varieties so metimes hard to get from a florist — can readily be grown from seed, which should be sown now, so that they will develop into blooming size by the Flowering maple, a favorite of grandmother's era, has been much Improved by recent hybridizers. Pendant, bell-shaped flowers one

Pendant, bell-shaped flowers one to three inches long come in deli-cate shades of yellow, red, pink, salmon, orange and white—some with light veinings of contrasting

Patience plant, another old favorite, blooms all year round. Those that have flowered indoors during the winter may be set out in a shady spot to bloom through the summer. Because they grow so readily from cuttings and are so easy to grow from seed, such plants are often hard to buy and you will be amazed at the results from a packet of mixed hybrid seeds. But don't forget the one great require ment of these ever-blooming flow

Begonia semperflorens is anothe blossoms above dark green foliage and Christmas Pink, with bright pink bloom and lighter green foli-age, are also well worth while.

Seeds of begonias are so tiny that it is best to plant them in very finely-sifted soil, and just barely covered. With all such seedlings, watering should be done with great care. The soil should never be allowed to dry out entirely, as the drying of the tiny root-hairs is cuttings, are also easy to raise from seed. But don't disturb the flat in which the seeds are planted, as some seedlings may appear within two weeks while others may take four times that long before showers-plenty of water.

sown now, so that they will have time to

A woman in the midst of divorce proceedings was complaining to a she had to endure with lawyers.
"Oh," said her friend, "don't talk to me about them! I've had so much trouble over my property tha cometimes I wish that my husban hadn't died."

expanse Reside Noon

... TABLE TALKS...

Muffins and Jam These are unpredictable days.

Food preservation is as important today as it ever was. Tasty preserves, jams and jellies in the emergency cabinet are now MUSTS. Start with rhubarb and strawberry conserve when these fruits are at their peak season. Here's a recipe hese two fruits into a conserve you'll be proud to serve next winter. The combination of corn syrup and sugar gives a nice texture and sheen, and just the right degree o

2 cups (1/2 pound) prepared l large orange 4 cups (11/4 pounds) prepared strawberries

's cup blanched walnuts, coarsely

To prepare rhubarb, wash and deep kettle. Add raisins, sugar and corn syrup. Remove peel from orange and cut away one-half of inner white part. Chop peel and cut into 1/2-inch pieces. Place in

CANADIAM STYLE

1 cup secdless raisins

1 cup corn syrup

2 cups sugar

be the belle of the village.

present for the Governor. When there is a severe shortage of food among the Australian ab-origines, it is their custom to kill off some of their children, according to a noted anthropologist. They never do away with old people whom they consider valuable Experiments conducted in a University laboratory proved that if rats are allowed to choose their own ratio of nine parts carbohydrat four of protein and three of fat.

reports that men with a large num-ber of filled, missing or imperfect A University scientist was once sent all the way to Africa to study ported that they toe out at exactly the same average angle as the people on this Continent.

earliest on record, while Decem-

The answer to this pursle is elsewhere on this page.

add to rhubarb. Cut orange pulp, entirely free from membrane, into small pieces and add to rhubarb. Meanwhile, wash about 1½ quarts fully ripe strawberries. Drain and hull, Add to rhub a mixture. Bring to a boil, stirring occasionally. Reduce heat; simmer, stirring occa-sionally until thick, about 30 to 35 minutes. Remove from heat and cool about 5 minutes. Blanch wal-nuts by covering with boiling water for about 3 minutes, then drain and cover with cold water. Drain; chop and add to rhubarb mixture. Pour Conserve into hot sterilized glasses. Paraffin. Makes 7 glasses. (6 fluid

Breakfast Muffins

11/2 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons double-acting baking

5 strokes). Turn into greased muf-

Just For Fun

"Mose" said the Southern Colonel to his colored houseman,

"I'm going to have guests for dinner on Sunday and I want you told you to be sure and get a TAME turkey!"

"And dat's what I sho enough of the wild kind."

Serve with:

powder

large muffins.

½ teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons sugar
1 egg, well beaten

Students Learn Horticulture-Nineteen young men are attending the Niagara Parks Commission training school just below the Whirlpool. In three years they learn enough horticulture, floriculture and aboriculture to fit them for top jobs. Director of the school is J. B. Liddell (left), who came to Ontario from the Royal Botanical Gardens at Edinburgh. Few students anywhere have as pleasant surroundings (right) for their classes. Requirements for entry are three successful years of high school and, preferably some practical knowledge of horticulture.

Most people have the idea that leprosy is a very contagious disease. Yet in more than fifty years of administering to lepers in the Amer-ican National leprisarium no doctor or nurse has ever contracted the malady. The cave man had his own notions of what constituted perfect feminine beauty, and his ideal was a woman who measured the same in all three dimensions. In other words, a lady three feet iall, three feet wide and three feet thick would

200

Odds and Ends

According to Historian Ernest Gagnon, Canada's first horse arrived at Quebec just 301 years ago. It was sent here from France as a food, they will instinctively choose what is best for them, in the ideal A public Health Service official teeth have a strong tendency the gaits of the native for pigeon-toedness When he returned he re-

Earliest date on which an oceangoing ship arrived in Montreal harbour was April 9th, in 1945, while the latest date on which navi-gation was thus officially opened was May 24th, 1943. Navigation ime or another to make a speech to make a presentation, to acknowledge a gift, to welcome a visitor.

Do you get tongue-tied when it's your turn?
Suppose your club is having a debate and you feel strongly on the Schooling." Your first sentence would have to be a hombshell. "Every day, twenty-five harried teachers try to control AND teach over 1500 students. That's 60 of our children for one person to handle."

1 egg, well beaten
1 cup milk
3 tablespoons melted shortening
3/4 cup wheat flakes
5/8 ff flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, and sugar, and sift again. Combine egg and milk and add all at once to flour mixture; You go on, reminding them how You go on, reminding them how hard it is to handle two or three children in the home. You give statistics on teacher's salaries and then offer a possible solution, one and add all at once to flour instance, add shortening. To mix, draw spoon from side of bowl toward center (15 times), turning bowl gradually. Chop spoon through batter (10 times). Add cereal and mix (about that the group can act on.

fin pans, filling each about 3/3 full.

Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.)

22 minutes, or until done. Makes 9 various speech samples, parliamen-tary procedure and voice improvenent.
Send THIRTY CENTS in coins
Send THIRTY CENTS in Public for "Self-Instruction In Public Speaking" to Reader Service, Room 604, 371 Bay Street, Toronto. Print name, address, booklet title and No.

How Chinese Do It

to get a nice turkey. But be sure it's a tame turkey — not a wild one like you served last time as Since my arrival in this country— wrote a Chinese visitor to London —I have observed with dismay the English way of making tea. In time my guests are Northerners and might not like the gamey flavo Sunday dinner arrived, and a of shortage it is unnecessarily ex-travagant and I have been able to noble-looking turkey adorned the board, sure enough. But when he was halfway through his porconvince friends here they can save nearly a third of their ration by makmoned his houseman.
"Mose," he said, "I thought

After warming the teapot only one and a half teaspoons of tea are required for an ordinary-sized pot. The tea is only just barely covered with boiling water and is allowed to stand half a minute. A little more water is then added and allowed to stand: this is repeated until the po is filled. The pot must never be completely emptied before adding the water for a second pouring. Koreans developed moveable type the vicissitudes of farm life!

CHRONICLES OF GINGER FARM

contented? Often we hear of re-tired farmers who are so lone-some in their town homes they hardly know what to do with them-selves. Probably the women settle down more happily than the men

—glad of the opportunity to give more time and thought to their homes without the interruptions in-cidental to farm life. They like to be able to step out, do their own shopping and then walk home again. If they have nostalgic yearn-

And then what of the newcom

ings very few admit it.

given every encouragement, are the young couples setting up for them-selves. You just sort of go along is not one thing anyone can do about it. We were watching the skies anxiously ourselves towards the end of last week but thank seives. You just sort of go areas with them, sensing their courage, their energy and their ambition— and you hope to heaven life will not deal too harshly with them. Disillusionment can be a bitter ex-perience for those who cannot rise above it, but a challenge to those who can Sure these young farmers goodness we were just able to get through before the rain came. We were so glad. It is a tiring business-to say nothing of the worry when seeding drags on through the weeks. It must be particularly dis-couraging to those who have rewho can Sure, these young farmers will make mistakes, sometimes costly ones—they are young yet in experience. But what they lack in experience they make up for in initiative. Most of them are progressive—the chances are they will give that "new look" to farming—and their wives, if they are the right kind will be right there with cently taken up farming—we old-timers are more or less hardened to I wonder if this unusually active period of buying and selling farm lands is general throughout the province? In all the years we have right kind, will be right there with been here we have never known so many farms change hands in such a short time. In this district it doesn't seem long since we rated as "newcomers." Now, by compariin the hands of these young people. They probably will not be required to face the physical hardships that their grandparents knew, at the their grandparents knew, at the same time every age has its prob-lems. So we say, more power to the younger generation. The world needs you—your strength, your vison, we can almost be classed as "old-timers" as, one by one, neighbors pull stakes and move into town. I wonder how many will be contented? Often we hear of re-

Answer To This Week's Puzzle

tality and your brighter outlook.

DOES INDIGESTION WALLOP YOU BELOW THE BELT?

Help Your Forgotten "28" For The Kind Of Relief That Helps Make You Rarin' To Ge Relief That Helps Make You Rarin' To Ge
More than half of your digestion is done below the belt-in your 28 feet of bowels.
So when indigestion strikes, try something that helps digestion in the stomach AND below the belt.
What you may need in Cartor's Little Liver Fills to give needed help to that "forgottes 28 feet" of bowels. Little Liver Fill before and one after meals. Take them according to directions. They help wake up a large flow of the 3 main digestive juices in your stomach AND bowels—help you digest what you have eaten in Nature's own way.
Then most folks get the kind of relief that makes you feel better from your head to your toes, Just be sure you get the genuine Carter's Little Liver Fills from your druggist—354s ers to the country—the man from the city who suddenly decides the city who suddenly decides farming is the life for him! Sometimes I wonder . . . perhaps that type too, keep their feelings to themselves. "The simple life" is often eulogised through lack of actual type too. tual experience. Personally my heart aches—and my indignation rises— when I hear of a middle-aged man, quitting his job, putting his money into a hundred-acre farm and ex-pecting his wife and family to ad-just themselves to an entirely dif-ferent way of life, possibly without becomes mighty complicated. Of course, a few acres with a com-fortable home, that's something else debate and you feel strongly on the subject; are you able to express your opinion?

Think out your first sentence word-perfect and scribble a few phrases to help you make your point.

Let's say the topic is "Inadequate living quarters. But a hundred acres—oh no! Not if you haven' been used to farming. Then there are those who of farming, with a stable full of cows, as a part-time job — quite possible if properly organized!

Usually there comes a rude awa-

Putty applied to barewood is likely to "unstick" and fall away after a few months. That is why craftsmen recommend that a priming coat of paint be applied to the wood beforehand so that the putty that the group can act on.

There are so many situations that you can meet with confidence and poise once you know the ins and outs of public speaking. See our R.ader Service booklet No. 83 for can adhere better. It is not neces sary for the paint to be thoroughly dry before the putty is applied.

Painting over the putty after the job is done also helps the filler to masking the puttying job.

"Stay Put" while at the same time these — two buckshot I bit out of the slice I'm eating?"

"Dat's a tame bird all right,
Boss, I wouldn't tell you no lie.
De fac' of de matter is, dem buckshot was meant for ME, not for de turkey!"

did, Boss," was the reply.
"Then how do you account for these — two buckshot I bit out

Beatrice Pines features a onepiece swim suit with a hip length beach coat, self hooded.