FARM BULLETIN

IS SUMMER FALLOW OUTDATED? NEW GARDENING METHODS

Many farmers throughout Canada are coming to regard summer fallow as an obsolete and wasteful practice...

One of the easiest ways to keep abreast of practical new farming methods is to ask your nearest experimental farm or agricultural college for bulletins, or advice on your own problems.

Timely loans have helped many farmers increase their earnings faster. The manager of our nearest branch offers these as part of the service of money which this Bank has provided to Canadian farmers for 93 years.

'MONEY MAKES THE MARE GO' ...BUT HORSE SENSE HELPS

As a farmer, you're well aware of the truth of this old proverb... and you know it's not just how much money you have but how wisely you spend it. That's horse sense.

Last year, thousands of Canadian farmers showed they had plenty of it. Under The Farm Improvement Loans Act, they borrowed over $18,000,000 which—with a good proportion of their own money—they used to make their farms better, more profitable farms.

Are you among those taking advantage of this opportunity to get ahead?

The farmers who borrowed under the Farm Improvement Loans Act last year have better farms, better homes, better lives, as a result, including homes... to construct and repair... to clear and... to buy foundation and... to make work and life more worthwhile in many other ways and life THIS YEAR, YOU CAN DO IT, TOO.
