Monday evening about forty friends and neighbours gathered to celebrate Monday evening about forty friends and neighbours gathered to celebrate the occasion with them. They received many lovely gifts. Ice cream and cakes were served by the family and Mrs. Wiley served her wedding cake to the guests present.

GOOD PROGRAM OF SPORTS AT HUTCHINSON REUNION

Although the attendance of 53 was considerably reduced from last year's 100, at the Hutchinson Reunion at Harrison Park, Owen Sound, on Thursday, July 1st, there was a good program of sports enjoyed during the afternoon, arranged by John Hutchinson and his helpers, followed by a bountiful picnic supper. The oldest couples present were Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Freeman and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Boales, and the youngest was Brenda Hutchinson. Mr. and Mrs. D. A Bristow and son George, from Strongfield, Sask, were the farthest from home. Mrs. Dunn Lee, who is at present in Sask, were the laranest from frome.

Mrs. Dunn Lee, who is at present in the west, was elected president at the business meeting which followed, and Mrs. Harold Hutchinson and Mrs. R.
Kirktown, vice-presidents; Miss Ruth

Electric Storm Monday Does Damage to Home

The electric storm which hit this district on Monday evening between nine and ten o'clock was fast and furious while it lasted, and soaked the councryside. The storm was not general throughout the district, however. In throughout the district, nowever. In town high winds caused slight interruption in the power service, but for no great length of time. Lightning hit the siren on top of the I.O.O.P. block and followed the wires down into the telephone office, but did no harm.

did considerable damage, but fortunately no fire resulted. The worst spot was where the bolt hit the brick chimney and followed it down to the living from where a mantel radio which had been disconnected was shattered; the chesterfield chair was damaged, and the frame torn from the window. In two places white asbestos shingles put on new last summer were broken, and the roof of the summer kitchen was damaged. The telephone wires were burned out, and in several places place ter and woodwork broken. Fortunately Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton were taking some friends to Durham and missed the storm, and returned to find their home had survived the blast. Except for trees and branches reported down in various parts of the district, we have heard of no other secious damage. for trees and branches reported down in various parts of the district, we have heard of no other serious damage.

Band Music Enjoyed

With band music in the town Markdale like something forgotten, the music of Meaford band last Sunday was sweet to listen to. For anyone who has put their band instrument in moth balls it must have urged them to again attempt to revive some of the old band spirit. Actually there are, we believe, men in Markdale perfectly specified to be of leading a band some who capable of leading a band, some who have been bandsmen for years. With a bit of united effort, we could have a band here even if it were only begin-

In Markdale we have one of the most appropriate spots for a Sunday evening concert. It has been suggested that if a band could be resurrected, with a little practice, we might be able with a little practice, we might be able to have a band concert at the Community Park on Sunday evenings. We feel sure that with proper sponsorship a band of creditable repute could be organized in this municipality. This might inspire the Parks Board to erect some seating facilities and in time a bard shell.

"The Home Town Paper," The Home Town Paper," a motion picture produced by the National Film Board on the modern Canadian weekly newspaper, has been released to the theatres of Canada in the Board's Canada Carries On series. In this way, it will be shown all across the Dominion on audience estimated at more than to an audience estimated at more than 2.000.000 people.

2,000.000 people.

"The Home Town Paper" is a significant screen coverage of a weekly newspaper. It touches lightly the mechanical side of publishing, emphasizes the vital, intimate relationship between a community and its paper. In doing this, it becomes a thorough coverage of an average small community's everyday life, its people, its thoughts and activities. thoughts and activities.

Decoration Service Largely Attended Splendid Parade

Typical July weather prevailed for the annual Grave decoration and memorial service here on Sunday afternoon, and a large crowd including people from the district as well as more distant points were in attendance. The service, this year held under the joint auspices of the various fraternal organizations and the Canadian Legion, was assisted by the Meaford band, which headed the parade to and from the cemetery.

In the address of the speaker, Rev.

"The custom of decorating graves which is a part of the ritual of the IOOF, and has become a community rite, is one that makes the gulf between here and the next world seem very close." His address was thoughtful and most appropriate.

Beeve Milson Henry, as chairman.

Reeve Milson Henry, as chairman Reeve Milson Henry, as charman, gave the call to worship. Rev. A. J. Simpson read the Scripture passages and later offered prayer. Lloyd Armstrong, president of the Legion, hung the wreath of popples in memory of the fallen in both wars. The Last Poet and Reveille were sounded by J. H. Perkins. The Noble Grand's address was given by W. J. Howard. iress was given by W. J. Howard.

The cemetery appeared in splendid condition, with grass neatly cut, and trees and flowers making the landscape, most pleasing. On the whole, people take much pride in this cemetery, as could be seen from the many who came and went from early forenoon, with a special part in this day of grave decorating.

Cemetery officials are to be congrat-ulated on the administration of this place, and although they are faced place, and although they are faced with the inflated wages at the present time, with not-so-high income from plot holders, they are hoping to see their way clear to purchase an additional strip of land on the east side, which can be added to the present acreage when required.

Among those in attendance at the service from out of town we noticed Mr. John Gibson of Durham, Mr. and Mr. John Gibson of Durham, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reeker, Simcce, Mr. and Mrs. Russ Walker and Mrs. Lawson of Brantford; Mr. and Mrs. John Macaulay and family, Owen Sound; Mr. and Mrs. Len Strange and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ev. "Golly, but I sho am tired," Eph com-"Whut you'all been a-doin'?" asked Erasmus.

"Well, you see," explained Eph, "Paw's been a-setting out fence posts, and I'm just five feet tall. So I been a-laying down an' a-getting up an' a-laying down and a-gettin' up all around his ten-acre field, so's he could measure them posts

Mrs. Newrich was fond of flowers, especially salvia, but was not very re-

"On this side of the walk," she said to her gardener, "I want you to put out some salivas. Now what would you suggest for the other side?" "Well, ma'am," said the gardener, "maybe we should put the spitoonias on the other side.'
