BALL GAME HERE NEXT TUESDAY Next Tuesday night, August 24th, weather permitting, the first game in the best 3 out of 5 finals will be played between the Legion team and Cheshire.

BAND CONCERT HERE WED. NIGHT Under the auspices of the Community Parks Board, Meaford Band will present a band concert in Markdale next Wednesday night, and it is hoped shoppers and everyone will come to town and enjoy it.

SPECKLED TROUT AT IRISH LAKE A trout pulled out of Irish Lake over the weekend added proof to the theory that there are trout at Irish Lake. It was a Mr. Granger from London who caught the speckled stranger, according to Mr. Szymes, and it weighed 1 1/4 pounds, and measured 13 inches. It was the first trout that Mr. Szymes has ever known to be caught there, for as a rule it yields some mighty fine bass.

VILLAGE ASSESSOR APPOINTED At a special meeting of the Markdale Council on Monday evening this week, Lloyd Armstrong was appointed assessor for the year 1948. The appointment was made necessary when Mr. Jos. MacMillan was injured and unable to complete his duties of assessing.

NEWLYWEDS RECEIVE GIFTS Mr. and Mrs. Carman H. Loucks (formerly Marie Bumstead) who were married recently, were presented with a kitchen cabinet last Thursday evening at a party held in the Fraternal Hall, Flesheron. The gift was presented on behalf of Orange Valley friends by Clarence Alcox, Ernie and Ivan Russell and Ted Newell. The young couple are residing in Chatsworth.

OLD BOYS' REUNION STAGED BY ONE-MAN COMMITTEE

The most enjoyable 3-day re-union staged the first of August at Carlisle owes its success to one man, arrangements being entirely in charge of the parish priest at that place, Father Harry Brick. The three days, August 1, 2 and 3, which is generally considered ample for a small town homecoming celebration, began with church services in the parish church on Sunday, with an evening song service of 2 1/2 hours led by the choral society. Monday was sports day, with ball games, and a hand in attendance afternoon and evening, with the evening spent at old-time and modern dancing. Tuesday was Farmers' Day, and the program featured a stock judging contest among the junior farmers clubs, as they competed for seven trophies, and thirty exhibits related to farming were displayed by manufacturers. Tickets for a lucky draw were sold with Manley Richardson of Markdale being one of the lucky ones selected, which won for him a new bicycle.

"MISS OWEN SOUND"

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS in prizes plus many other gifts are waiting for the winners and entrants of the Miss Owen Sound Beauty Contest. Every entrant will receive gifts whether they win or lose. The feature of the prizes is a seaplane ride for the first three winners over the City of Owen Sound. First Prize carries with it the title of "Miss Owen Sound," a beautiful trophy and roses, plus fifty dollars in cash. The second prize winner receives thirty dollars cash, and the third, twenty dollars cash. Last year this featured event stole the show and this year the crop of beauties is expected to be better than ever.

The time is Saturday, August 28th, at 3 p.m.

The judges are Warden Sam McMillan, Reeve Ash McCallum of Hanover, and Alderman Cressley of Owen Sound. Send your entries in to Mayor Eddie Sargent of Owen Sound. Entries will be received up until 2:30 Saturday, August 28th.

TRAFFIC ACCIDENT PREVENTION

It takes two to make an accident, just as it takes two to make a quarrel. Number one is yourself as driver or pedestrian. Number two is sometimes a fixed object, or bad judgment, but 80 per cent of the time, number two is another person—another driver or pedestrian. Human beings make mistakes. Don't count on every driver doing the right thing. The Highway Department urges you to use every courtesy and common sense regardless of who has the right of way.

BARN BURNED IN OSPREY

Fire broke out in the large barn owned by Thos. Hawes on the third line of Osprey about 9:30 Tuesday morning and destroyed the barn along with the season's crop of hay and wheat, which was being threshed. The separator was also burned and was owned by Frank Seely of Maxwell. Besides the barn, a hen house was also lost, but no livestock was lost in the flames. The fire started about an hour after threshing had commenced. The third threshing separator that Mr. Seely has been so unfortunate as to lose in the last few years.—Flesheron Advance.

ZION GARDEN PARTY

A very successful garden party was held at Zion United Church, August 3rd, under the auspices of the Young People's Society. During the evening over 500 enjoyed supper and later a ball game between Cheseville and Aberdeen. A varied program was well presented by talent from various localities. One hundred and ninety dollars was realized from this annual event. The society is grateful to all who helped in any way with the garden party.

FIELD CROP COMPETITION RESULTS ANNOUNCED

The following are the results of the Field Crop Competitions in Beaver Oats, conducted by Durham Agricultural Society, the judging being done by Eric Simpson of Elmville: Cecil Barber, 81; Jos. R. Edwards, 80; William Weir, 78; Jos. P. Crutchley, 76; John McGillivray, 75; Arthur K. Derby, 74; R. Murdock, 73; George Allen and Son, 72.

RCAF To Train Airmen For Commissioned Ranks

The RCAF has recently made known two schemes whereby qualified serving airmen are selected for entrance to university or the Canadian Services Colleges. Graduates will be granted Long Service Commissions in the RCAF (Regular).

Serving airmen desiring to enter the Canadian Services Colleges must be between the ages of 16 and 20, unmarried, physically fit for flying duties and possess Junior Matriculation educational standing. Qualifying examinations in English, Mathematics and Physics of Senior Matriculation level are written prior to entrance.

These selected are sent to the colleges as Leading Aircraftmen with tuition costs, books, laundry, etc., paid by the RCAF. During the summer months flying training is carried out and students are paid as Flight Cadets during this period. Serving airmen who wish to take advantage of the university courses must have the necessary educational qualifications required by the University for entrance into the Science facilities. They must be unmarried and under 25 years of age, medically fit for flying duties, and must pass certain qualifying examinations. Airmen selected to attend university will proceed to universities in the acting rank of Sergeant with equivalent trade grouping to that held. If they hold higher rank already, they will be paid in such higher rank. All university fees, books, etc., will be paid by the RCAF. During the summer vacation period, candidates will enter the University Summer Training Scheme and be paid as Flight Cadets, for training as Pilots or Radio Navigators.

Personnel who do not possess the necessary educational qualifications are given every assistance to improve their academic standing while in the Service. Educational Officers assist the airmen in their studies and correspondence courses are provided free of charge.

HOLLEY - TEETER WEDDING

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Teeter was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, August the seventh, when their younger daughter, Eugene Eleanor, became the bride of Arthur Dean Holley, son of Mrs. Marjha J. Holley, and the late William Holley of Flesheron. The ceremony was performed beneath an arch of evergreens, while wedding bells, banked with baskets of gladioli, phlox snapdragons and fern. Rev. P. W. MacInnes officiated. The bride entered the living-room on the arm of her father and was lovely in her floor-length gown of white satin made with sweetheart neckline, long pointed sleeves, full skirt with lace inserts. Her three-quarter length veil, with scalloped edge, was caught with orange blossoms and her only ornament was a three-strand necklace of pearls, a gift of the groom. She carried Biarrielle roses.

Miss Eileen Teeter, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and was wearing an aqua satin with short puffed sleeves and a low boat neckline. She wore a small pale yellow net hat and a two-strand necklace of pearls. Her arm bouquet was of yellow carnations. The groom was supported by his brother, Delbert Holley.

Lohegrin's Bridal Church was played by Mrs. Howard Ritchie, aunt of the bride, and during the signing of the register, Norah Moffat, cousin of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly".

Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served to fifty guests. The bride's mother received the guests under the lights unless it be the final and deciding game of a series, when an arrangement must be made satisfactory to both teams. Durham—Jerry" Nichol, 78-year-old partially blind resident of Benetick township was fatally injured shortly after dusk on Saturday evening when he was struck by a panel truck driven by Colin McArthur of Hamilton. Nichol was walking six or seven miles from Durham to the farm of Alex. McDonald with whom he resided. McArthur, who, accompanied by his daughter, Helen, was driving to Dornoch to visit relatives, pulled out to pass Nichol, but apparently he became confused for he stepped out toward the centre of the road. McArthur stopped to investigate but the injured man, a native of Milbank, died almost immediately. Deceased was a carpenter by trade.

BABE RUTH DEAD

Many baseball fans in the district will learn with regret of the death of Babe Ruth, on Monday evening in New York Memorial Hospital. The "Babe", who will be remembered as the "Home Run King" of baseball, had suffered with a cancer condition for the past two years.

CANNING DEMONSTRATION HELD

On Tuesday afternoon, a number of girls from Dornoch, and several from the local high school who are doing agricultural club work, attended a demonstration in the Dept. of Agriculture. Miss Flora Durbin demonstrated "Canning Tomatoes" and gave helpful hints and instruction to the class.

SHOWER FOR BRIDE-TO-BE MISS VIVIAN COOPER

The home of Miss Vivian Cooper, daughter of Mr. T. Stewart Cooper of Markdale, was the scene of a lovely shower for this Markdale girl who has taught school for the past year at Kirkland Lake Collegiate, on Tuesday evening. The party was arranged as a pleasant surprise, and Miss Cooper arrived home to find her town friends and neighbours had taken charge, and she was escorted in by Mrs. Wilma March to the strains of "Hall, hall the girls all here." The evening was spent comprising a scrap book of pictures depicting the life of the future bride and groom. Mrs. L. G. Campbell read an address expressing everyone's kindest wishes, and Mrs. H. Bowler made the presentation of an electric tea kettle and iron and a sum of money. She also received a favourite recipe on a correspondent card from each one present. While lunch was served Miss Lois Kidd played softly "Clair de Lune" and Miss Marion Beaton sang "Through the Years." The evening was a very happy one, and the gifts and good wishes were much appreciated by this local bride-to-be.

MEN'S SUITS LIKELY TO REMAIN AT HIGH PRICES

It is likely to be two years at the least before the price of men's suits begins coming down, according to well-known clothiers. Merchants believe that prices are going to stay high as long as the textile industry continues to pay its new scale of wages. For many years the textile trade had the lowest wage scale in the world but since the war textile tradesmen have received pay increases in line with other trades and as a result the price of clothing has swung upwards.

Undoubtedly now there is a better assortment of cloth from which the male can choose his suit and during the last few months it has been possible to obtain two pairs of pants with a suit, something unheard of during the war years and immediately following.

However men's suits are not the only part of the male's clothing make-up which today are commanding high prices. A man's shirt, which a few years ago sold for $2, is now in the $4 bracket.

Then too there are many more shirts on the shelves of local merchants than a few months ago, although a good white shirt is still quite scarce. There is a wide variety of striped shirt patterns and all in all the situation in this has improved greatly.

Today many men are sitting back and waiting for the price of shirts to come down but it appears likely that in this line, too, the men will have a long wait. The cotton supply situation is reaching the "nearly all out" stage because imports from the United States have been cut. Cotton is available from Egypt—but at an exorbitant price.

Although good English woollens are still on the scarce side, they are not too highly priced but the overall picture appears to be that woollens will remain scarce for some time. It is claimed that the Russians bid higher than anyone else for Australia's wool—the wool that once came to Canada via England.

And also British manufacturers can get better prices for their woolen goods in European countries or in the United States than they can get from Canada.

DUNDALK BEAVERS "CHAMPS"

By defeating Dunedin in two straight games in the finals. Dundalk Beavers are champions of the Badjeros District Softball League for 1948 and won the Herald Trophy.

Some difficulty has been experienced in arranging further games in the South Grey League, owing to the Dundalk Herald as one or two representatives have refused to play under the floodlights. At a league meeting Tuesday night it was decided that Dundalk should play their home games in daylight. As the Dundalk management did not agree with this, they withdrew from the league. However, in the O.R.S.A. play-downs, in which Dundalk team is entered, their mulling is that a team cannot refuse to play under the lights unless it be the final and deciding game of a series, when an arrangement must be made satisfactory to both teams.

Markdale Hospital Sets Record of Achievement - Has Paid Its Way

It is when beset with the possibility of having to do without a hospital that we begin to recollect the many advantages and benefits derived from such an institution. Reviewing the progress and accomplishments of what has been known as Markdale Private Hospital for nearly twenty years, we find it has done a great deal for the improvement of health in this community, for the prevention of disease and the relief of suffering. The measure of service rendered can only be estimated in a review of the years of worthwhile accomplishment.

DR. R. L. CAREFOOT

Markdale Hospital was created out of necessity. During the years to 1929 Dr. Carefoot, who had hitherto conducted a medical practice here, had a large number of patients requiring hospital treatment. There was no hospital of any kind in Markdale, although a great many of his patients were in need of surgical treatment, especially thyroid cases. For the operations, the doctor found it necessary to send large numbers of these patients to Toronto especially for goitre surgery. Dr. Carefoot accompanied many of these to the city, which often meant working day and night to keep up with the work—a state of affairs that made Dr. Rankin decide to complete extra studies in the practice of surgery. This he did in 1929 putting in several months in Philadelphia and Chicago and at Mayos Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota. During the summer of 1929 this Markdale Doctor, in co-operation with the late Miss Essel Edwards (Mrs. R. M. Samson) and Mrs. C. W. Rutledge, established a 3-bed hospital in Knarsboro Hall which has since been bought by the Legion.

Residence, Purchased on George Street Then in the spring of 1930, Dr. Carefoot bought the George Street residence of the late J. A. Clarke and established a hospital of 11 beds. Miss Sadie Hall of Epping who is now Mrs. Gray of Laurel, Ont., was the first superintendent and did a wonderful job in helping to establish it. Mrs. Fred Clarke of Dundalk was the hospital's first cook. It is interesting to note here that the building was bought on fairly reasonable terms (with so many years to pay) and the Doctor's policy of making everything pay for itself was perhaps the key-note of a successful career. For the first two years Mrs. Gray received $50 a month for her services and did a wonderful job in helping to establish it. Mrs. Fred Clarke of Dundalk was the hospital's first cook. It is interesting to note here that the building was bought on fairly reasonable terms (with so many years to pay) and the Doctor's policy of making everything pay for itself was perhaps the key-note of a successful career.

By 1939 the business had outgrown the old hospital building, and besides, the Dept. of Health was becoming more insistent on certain regulations being fulfilled. After deliberating for some time as to whether the residence of the late Dr. Sprout or the Revere Hotel would be best suited to hospital needs, the Hotel building on Markdale's main street was purchased, and remodelling began, to comply with the regulations and stipulations of the Dept. of Health. The fact is, the inspectors thought to "floor" the plans of converting the premises for use as a hospital, by sending up eighteen "commandments" outlining what would have to be done to the old building, but all of their demands were completed in due time to the satisfaction of the inspectors. Erecting fire escapes proved to be one of the bug-bears, with the department making drastic demands—but the present fire escapes were finally secured from and erected by the Toronto Fire Escape Company.

Opened In 1941 The new hospital was opened on the 13th day of February in 1941. Hitherto, the Doctor's offices had been at his residence, but from the time of opening, the office and dispensary were located in the new quarters. Miss Pearl Barrow (Mrs. Lloyd Boland) was the first superintendent and the staff included Miss Lella Jackson of Proton Station (now Mrs. Ewing of Mineral, Virginia), Miss M. Matheson, Miss La Delle Harrison (now Mrs. G. Fenton) of Woodstock, and the cook was Miss Orle Kirkpatrick.

New Wing Acquired From J. J. Richardson Estate The annex to the present hospital was acquired from the J. J. Richardson estate in 1943, and after much efficient workmanship on the part of Mr. Sheridan Henry and others, the new wing was opened in January, 1945. This meant an increase in bed capacity to 21 beds for adults, and seven bassinets for infants. The present structure has considerable "extra" room which can be used for hospital beds at the present time.

Has Had Splendid Staff of Nurses The hospital staff has grown from a humble beginning to a present staff of two night nurses and seven or eight day nurses. Present superintendent has been Miss Ruth Devitt, with Mrs. Ethel Simpson as general aid and in charge of x-rays. The present regular staff has included up till now: Misses Fern Gillroy, Mary Carefoot, Mary Matheson, Olive Griebach, Emily Lawson, Phoebe Foids, and Marion Boyes, and Mrs. Ruby Dundas, nurse's aid. The present staff, the Doctor will tell you, is just about the finest group of nurses he has ever had. Special nurses include Miss Hazel Wylvill, Miss Ida Bradley, Mrs. Lloyd Boland, Mrs. Bill Murphy, Mrs. W. J. Arrowsmith, Mrs. H. Hutten, Miss Anne Robinson as well as others.

Miss Pearl Barrow is the book-keeper, Miss Gertie Lever of Flesheron is the cook and Miss Madeline Walsh is her assistant. Mr. Willis Muxlow has helped the Doctor in various ways to build the present hospital to a high state of efficiency. Several doctors, too, have been associated with the hospital in its stages of growth: Dr. Fine, Dr. Thompson, Dr. Kenney, Dr. Balfe, Dr. H. O. Singer, now of Wolland, Dr. Jones, Dr. MacVicar, now at Port Elgin, New Brunswick, and the present Dr. W. Breckwell, have all been assistants here.

Dr. Carefoot Has Earned A Reputation To Dr. Rankin L. Carefoot who has made hospital services possible in Markdale the community owes a debt of gratitude. While it is not given to everyone to perform such notable public service, it is most apparent that Dr. Rankin has had the well-being of his fellow citizens and the betterment of his community at heart when he has spent the best years of his life in the service of humanity. There can be no finer memorial than the appreciation and regard of his fellow-men.

That is why when the present private hospital becomes a publicly owned and operated Centre Grey Hospital, it will mark the culmination of years of "personal sacrifice." As the Doctor reviews the years of his medical career, the thing of which he feels most appreciative and is very happy about is the support he has received from "his own people." The appreciation and confidence of prominent citizens is only surpassed by the satisfaction the Doctor has had in administering to their needs. People of adjoining districts may not have any idea that such major operations as

ENGAGEMENT

The engagement is announced of Wilma Noreen Gardner, only daughter of Mr. Alex. Gardner of Goring, and the late Mrs. Gardner, to Charles Garfield McMinn, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert McMinn of Berkeley. The marriage will take place early in September.

ancer of the bowel have been successfully performed by Markdale's surgeon. It is perhaps in thyroid operations that this hospital has become noted and this alone has attracted people from distant points. As well as this, people of the surrounding townships have been among his "best customers" and the doctor recalls that at one time he remembers three women from the 11th line of Euphrasia all being thyroid patients in his care at the same time. Of all the hundreds of operations that have been done, the Doctor calls his "most famous" operation the time when he removed a huge lump from Bill Levi's jaw—in his own office. But such things have become part of the doctor's routine. Only this week an operation for strangulated hernia on an elderly lady 83 years of age is what we would call, somewhat of a miracle.

Strange as it may seem, the Doctor has been, as it were, sacrificing his greatness to the outside world because of his general practice here. At home we take the man for granted, and seldom do we stop to realize that we have in our midst one of the best authorities of the medical profession—one who has gained his knowledge through years of careful study and by the practice of surgery. Although the Doctor is well able to contribute valuable articles for the use of the medical profession, his busy life has made this impossible. And if all goes well the next few years may find him recording some of the important discoveries and conclusions—as a result of years of practical experience.

Has Served The District Well

During the near twenty years that this village and district has enjoyed hospital service, the people have come to know what it means to have a hospital at their door and facilities at hand to meet any emergency. The hospital with its staff of trained nurses and other personnel, has provided a valuable service, and those who value it most highly are those who have needed it. At a time when there is a growing demand for hospitalization and health services it seems likely that hospitalization will become nationalized, so that it is more than likely that the Markdale hospital will play an even greater part in the years ahead.

When we sound the depths of "what our hospital means to us," we may think of the babies of our community being well born and mothers having proper care. So many times it surgery for the good work this hospital has done, and will do. Somehow they all seem to express a unanimous opinion. Their only hope is that in future the Markdale hospital will carry on with the same degree of service.

VANDELEUR

This is one of those weeks when news is scarce in the Community, at least, so far as your correspondent is concerned. There may be some interesting items of which he is unaware, and if so, he would be glad to have them. An interesting news budget is one method of advertising the Community in which you live, and advertising pays. It is a sort of show window for the district, and should be a co-operative effort. Your correspondent is pleased to publish all the legitimate news that he knows about, and it takes all the news of a small community to make a good showing. Then, too, former residents are glad to get the news from the old home district. So let us know of any interesting items, and help your community, your paper, and your correspondent, and make interesting reading for the general public.

Mr. Geo. Hodgkinson and two boys of Meaford spent the week-end with the former's daughter, Mrs. Lorrie Ormsby, Mr. Ormsby, and Audrey, Mrs. Hodgkinson who has spent the past five weeks visiting relatives at Swanside, South Wales, England, her homeland, is expected home next week.

Mr. Fred Matheson of Toronto has completed a nice summer cottage on the lot near the Sauguen river, which he purchased some time ago. He had the hydro installed recently.

Mrs. Kirkkott, who has been in failing health for some time, was a recent visitor with her daughter, Mrs. Dick Sewell, and is at present a patient in Markdale Hospital. Her many friends will be pleased to know she is improved.

A couple of weeks ago we mentioned an experience we had with a pet deer in Melancthon township, and we stated that the animal was a buck, and that its new set of antlers were just in the velvet stage. At least two people have asked us what we meant, and there may be others who do not know. According to the dictionary, antlers are a deciduous bony outgrowth of horn on the head of the male deer. In other words, the male deer grows a new set every year, and they fall off in the late fall. At this season the antlers are covered with a soft velvety skin or covering which comes off when growth is completed. The female deer has no horns and during the winter bucks and does look much alike. It is said that each set of antlers has one more prong than the preceding set.

Mr. Thos. Skinner has secured the position of caretaker of the Beaver Valley Club House and will move his family there in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Fawcett and Mrs. Ethel Hutchinson visited Thursday evening with the family of the late Roy Rawlings of Redwing.

A number from here attended the Derry Day celebration in Owen Sound on Saturday.

Mrs. H. I. Graham received a letter recently from Mr. Angus Bowles, who is in hospital at Kitchener, asking that his thanks be conveyed to the members of the W. L. Farm Forum and W. A. for the useful articles presented to him on the eve of his departure.

SMILE OF THE WEEK

Herb: "How on earth did you get that black eye, Sid?"
Sid: "Only for kissing the bride after the ceremony."
Herb: "But one always kisses the bride after the ceremony."
Sid: "Yes I know; but this was five years after."

Desperately in need of 50 cents, Milquetoast finally got up enough courage to open his pay envelope before taking it home to his exacting wife. Surprised at the contents, he hurried back to the cashier.
"You've given me $10 too much, I'm afraid," he stammered.
The cashier counted the bills and coins, then replied impatiently, "It's quite correct. You've probably forgotten that you got a $10.00 rate last month."
Milquetoast shrank into his collar and responded meekly: "My wife never told me."
