A Delicious Cool Drink Directions: Make tea exactly as usual::: While still hot pour into glasses filled with cracked iced tea

With the Movie And Radio Folks

offers which accompanied them. But now, from Edinburgh, come word that the "wee man wi' th mighty voice" has at last relented; and some time next year Sir Harry will be travelling to America again selection of the actor who will por

According to Sir Harry's stipul

tions, the film must be made in Technicolor, and some of the scenes must be actually taken in his native

"If James Cagney and his pro-ducer-brother William had done nothing more than exhibit the courage to put "The Time of Your Life" on the screen the film industry would still owe them a real debt of gratitude," is the way News

Week starts its enthusiastic review of the new picture of that name. Seen in the film are Jimmy Cagney himself, James Barton as the tall-talkin' Indian scout, William Bendix as "Nick", Wayne Morris and Injism out se 'Kouseo ourself yagrant.

ual in that every giving a sharp

outline to the writing. Take the letter "y"

for instance;

stroke, how it moves off to the right of the downstroke without making the right, giving it a very definite wedge shaped appearance. The letters "u" and "r" have the same

This style of writing indicates an ggressive nature, one which makes you impatient with others in your endeavour to get things done. You drive yourself with all possible haste and become annoyed when your plans do not materialize quickly. There are good points, too, about this style of script. It shows that you have ambition to be successful in any enterprise you may undertake and that you do not mind competition with others as you can ready to take up any reasonable challenge to show your powers of Mily you

yours seal

For a brief analysis of your character send a sample of handwriting, with a stamped, self-addressed envelope, to Alex S. Arnott, 123—18th. Street, New Toronto.

----*----Modesty Forbids

Mail Clerk: "You'll have to mark

this 'First-Class Matter.'" Hopeful Poet: "Er—wouldn't that be a little conceited of me?"

Scotland.

Just for the record I'd like

From England comes word that | Harry and his kilts and his cane?the new Quota Act, which stipu-lates that British cinemas must de-rote 45 per cent of their "first feature" playing time-plus 25 per cent of their remaining screen time-to British-made films, is already caus-ing plenty of dissension.

As one commentator puts it, "we very much fear that about two-thirds of what we see will be "B" pictures ready there are rumors of an organ-ization being set up to pay the fines of exhibitors who evade the quota. In spite of this, British studios are stepping up their schedules so s to increase the number of pictures they turn out. One of these, now nearing completion, will have the Canadian actor, Robert Beatty, in the leading role. Titled "Another Shore" it is a remark, in passing, that unless they adopt the "Jolson Story" technique—that is, by means of old recordcomedy about a philosophical young ings, put the real Lauder voice in man who decides, as plenty of others his portrayer's mouth, the producer have done, that work is a waste of of the Lauder epic are going to have a hard time satisfying the old-timers at least. For millions in Canada . So he sits all day long on a oench at Stephen's Green, in Dublin, or on the steps of that city's and throughout the world can testify that Harry Lauder, quite unaided, some rich and eccentric benefactor could get more power, volume, feel-ing and pathos into his voice than from a fatal accident. Sounds like something which, with proper dirmodern croonsters and sob-artists can do with a whole studio-full of ection, might have a whole lot of mikes, amplifiers and other mechani-

Jimmy Durante used to complain that "everybody wants to get into the act": but it remained for one of the latest of the myriad radio quiz programs to prove it. In fact is particular program proves that people are crazy enough to pay good money for the privilege of hearing their own names come over to hear it, I understand the idea of to hear it, I understand the idea of the show is something like this. They have a Board of Experts, something after the style of "In-formation Please". You send in a question—paying a dollar for the privilege—and it is put up to the experts. Should they answer your question correctly, it costs you another five dollars. All the proceeds go to Charity, who must almost be number of crimes committed in her name, and it is reported that the questions, and money orders, are questions. fairly rolling in.

For some time different Hollywood film companies have been after Sir Harry Lauder-remember

Magic charm for a fast-growing girl! She'll feel so pretty in this swingy little frock with its detachpcplum! Easy-sew Pattern 4 580 is designed to give confidence This pattern, easy to use, simple to sew, is tested for fit. Includes complete illustrated instructions. Pattern 4580 in girls' sizes 6, 8, 10, 12, 14. Size 10 takes 25% yds. 39 in.; 1/8 yd. 35-in. contrast. Send TWENTY-FIVE CENTS (25c) in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern to Box 1, 123-18th Street, New Toronto. Print plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, STILE NUMBER.

ISSUE 34 - 1948

Angles Can Be Deceptive-Arguments make horse-racing, and horse-racing makes arguments Angles can be Deceptive—Arguments make horse-racing, and horse-racing makes arguments—and the angle from which you view a race can make a great difference in your opinion as to what actually happened. That's why judges take their positions directly opposite the line, and why there are such things as "eye-in-the-sky" cameras. The above scene, taken exclusively for these pages, shows a close linish in the 2.15 class at Norwich, Ont.—the track where "BLUE AGAIN" recently thrilled spectators with a record-breaking mile in 2.08.

ANNE HIRST Your Family Courselor-

DEAR ANNE HIRST: Recently I read that column you wrote abou the wife who treats her husband so well. Waking him gently, preparing his breakfast, sending him off in an easy frame of mind.

That, to me, is the ideal situation.

"I am soon to be married to a girl that I think would fit into this picture without any trouble.

this picture without any trouble.
That I'm sure of, 100 per cent. "But the boys in my office (all married) are ridiculing me. They paint dark and dreary pictures of married life, and give discouraging stories of their own plight. All true, they swear. They claim that the wife you mentioned is next to an impossibility, and that I should take the advice of real, local and known cases and be guided by them

YOUR HANDWRITING -not won over by fictional stories of utopian dreams. Will you anand YOU Alex S. Arnott "It is seldom I see a man using your column for advice. I (and I'm not ashamed to admit it) am an avid follower, and I am taking advantage of your all-covering col writing column interests me, very you'll print it, so that the scoffers (who claim to be my friends) will our local newspaper. Please analyse unwittingly become the recipients of some very fine advice.

> Here You Are * WHAT BRIDEGROOM does * not meet his bride at the altar, * both of them dreaming "utopian" > * dreams? Else why did they want to marry at all? And if any frien warned him of coming disillusion. what groom would not have brushed him off and gone ahead? * Those who let their marriages * go stale are the ones who refuse to believe anyone else can succeed where they have failed. Also, many married men who are stil
>

> > Modern Etiquette By Roberta Lee

Q. What is the correct way to eat artichokes?

A. Hold the leaf in the fingers, dip into the sauce the end which is to be eaten and with the fingers convey the leaf to the mouth. A fork is used to cut the heart and

Q. Is it obligatory that a hostess introduce all guests at a small dinner or luncheon, or allow them to become acquainted themselves? A. Yes; by all means, introduce

Q. If a man is writing a friendly letter to some woman acquaintance or friend, what would be an appropriate closing?
"Faithfully yours," or "Sincerely yours."

Q. I am a young woman and have been invited by a young couple to spend a week-end in their home. Am I expected to make my own bed, help with the dishes, etc. A. Any help you can give will show a sense of breeding. However, don't make a big fuss of it and be careful that you don't get in your hostess' way, otherwise you might be hindering, rather than helping, her.

Q. Should a young woman be sell at a bazaar. Pattern 944 has em-broidery transfer; cutting charts. Send TWENTY-FIVE CENTS in coins (stamps cannot be accept-cd) for this pattern to the Needlecongratulated upon her approaching marriage?

A. No. She should receive one's good wishes for her happiness. The proportive bridegroom is congratulated, however.

Calc for this pattern to the Neculer craft Dept., Box 1, 123-18th Street, New Toronto. Print plainly PATTERN NUMBER, your NAME and ADDRESS.

young (as I assume your asso-ciates are) think it beneath their * dignity to boast of their wives, * thinking they'll be called sissies. rows Like soldiers on parade To lean upon his spade.

Older men, however, who know what marriage has done for them, who look back along years of lov * ing companionship, are quick to * encourage younger ones in love * to follow suit. With the assuracknowledge humbly their debt to the wives who have cheered them along the way.

Dream Your Dreams THESE MEN in your office who * decry marriage—all marriages, in-* cluding their own—seem a dull * and stupid lot. Their dull wit is * a neat match for the stupidity of * their choice of wives—if they are * telling the truth. Which I doubt. * Perhaps none is as honest as * would be his tears if the wife he belittles came to an untimely end.
I do not publish fictional stories.
The wife whose letter I published

The wife and husband who can boast of being happily married are proud to say so, but they seldom do. Their lives speak for themselves. If you doubt the value of marriage, ask Anne Hirst about it. Write her at 122-18th Street, New Toronto.

Laura Wheeler

So much heauty and so little fab ric! Each of these aprons takes but 1/8 yard! Pansy motifs and gay ruffles on one, roses on the other. Smart gift for the bride; grand to lives not in your town but about 1,200 miles away. (Does that And as he slowly turned his back * make her story less real?) Yet * in your city I expect there are * hundreds of couples just as con-I thought'I heard Joe sigh And though you won't believe me A daisy winked her eye.

Go ahead with your dreams. If you and your girl appreciate (In the Christian Science Monitor) * each other as you say, you will * give lie to these scoffers.

his head

How Can 1? By Anne Ashley

And muttered, "Well I never!

As sure as I'm a gardening man

O. How can I restore a bottle of ink that has become thick?

A. Merely by adding a little

The Gardener

In corduroys and coat of brown

And now upon the spangled grass

His eager glances spy
A host of daisies, buttercups
Their faces to the sky much dye is needed to dye a A. Remove the buttons from the sweater, then weigh the garment while it is dry. Enough dye should bought to color the number of sweater will not take a good color with insufficient dye.

Q. How can I induce sleep in a

A. A small dose of soda in a glass of warm water before retir-Q. How can I harden earthen-A. Place it in a pan of cold water and bring it very slowly to the boiling point. Then allow it to cool slowly. Q. How can I prevent the iron from sticking to the clothes when pressing out starched pieces?

A. Try using soapy water as a starch foundation. Use one tablespoon of soap jelly to each quart of water. Then add the necessary mount of starch.

By Rev. R. Barcley Warren

by faith but have failed to urge that those who believe in Jesus Christ should be careful to maintain good works. Faith without works is Acts 9:36-42

Golden Text-Inasmuch as ye hav done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Matt. 25:40. People often emphasize one phase of divine truth to the neglect of others. One group, conscious of the extreme to which another has gone, proceeds to the opposite e Some have sought to earn their way to heaven by good works. This is contrary to Bible teaching. "A man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ." "By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast." On the other hand some have truly taught that man is saved

Dorcas is an example of a Chris Dorcas is an example of a communication whose faith was demonstrated by good works. Her labours were not for the sake of publicity but for those in need. Widows wept and showed Peter the coats and garments which she had made for them. Peter prayed and Dorcas was re-stored to life. This was not merely a reward for her good works, but one of the signs wrought by the apostles, by which many were converted to the Christian faith and believed on the Lord.

believed on the Lord.

To do good works is to minister to the needs of our fellowmen. In doing so we are ministering to Jesus, who said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto Me".

stupendous proportions where the most brilliant entertainment features from Europe and America will be on review. Welsh Guards band. Those hilarious fun-makers - Olsen & Johnson: National Horse Show: CUGPA. Motor Show. The newest features in industry, agriculture, sport, pagean-try, music, electronics, science, transportation. Make your plans now. Come to the C.N.E.

fear that is actually instinctive is the fear of falling. Any other form of fear is the result of imagination or ansound reasoning or has been transmitted by an older person. For instance, for years I was terrified in a thunderstorm ... how could I have been otherwise when my The next thing we have to worry about is getting it threshed. I wish that little job were already done. What a busy time this is, what with the harvest work going on outside and canning and processing going on inside—and of course the excessive heat we get every few days seems to be the order of the day. We had one very heavy storm last week with some hail but not enough I have been otherwise when my mother used to take me with her and stay down in the basement until the storm was over. I remembered this and when our children were small no matter how frightened I was myself, I took care never to let them know it. or to do any real damage. care never to let them know it, or Sandwiched in between other jobs Cicely and I picked and canned raspto do anything that would com-municate my fear to them. As a result I don't think either of them berries, cherries and beans. I ex-perimented with the beans—which ever developed the 'east bit of fear in regard to thunderstorms. were later taken to the locker. Some were scalded, chilled and packed in Now for quite a different topic a two percent brine. Others were merely cut and packed in cartons without any liquid. This was after I had been told that experiments had been conducted at the O.A.C. along these lines and it was agreed Cicely was showing me some of th clothes she had brought with her-and I was surprised to find how good they were and how many she had been able to accumulate. That is in the way of dresses, coats and such like. But then we came to pyjamas—"These would really take a prize," she explained, "you see it takes so many coupons for every." that the only advantage to the scalding and brine-packing method was that the beans retained a more attractive colouring. Well, the proof of the beans will be in the eating, thing we have to buy that we can't afford to use them on things that Yes, we have certainly been busy.

hings were that were wabbling in and out around his legs. He for lowed their every movement, smell-ed them curiously but made abso-utely no attempt to touch or moles them. Whisky, proud that Tippy should deign to to notice her off spring, purred contentedly and rub-bed herself ingratiatingly against him. Naturally, since Tippy and Whisky are such friends, Whisky did not transmit any fear of him to the kittens. So the kittens felt no enimity towards Tippy because he was a dog and so there were no

It set me thinking . . . So often we hear of children being afraid of this and that. Would they have that fear if it were not passed on to them by older folks? I believe

I am right in saying that the only

Answer to Last Week's Puzzle

EWES SPAD ANY

CROSSWORD

PUZZLE

Crossbeams
Heavy nails
Glass sheet
Before
Out of (prefix)

27 28 29 30 32 32

3 34 35 36 37 36

Answer to This Puzzle Will Appear Next Week

arched backs, or spitting or swear ing from any of them.

don't show!" So this is what her pyjamas are Cicely and I-but still we managed to find time to have a little fun with like . . . she doesn't mind my telling you. One pair has legs made of ordinary factory cotton, with a jacket fashioned from an old shirttens, by the way, have presented us with a striking example of what happens when a mother does not waist blouse of a blue check maspring. Canines and felines are terial. The next pair has legs mad from an old pair of casement cur-tains dyed old rose while the jacket Singular States of States has been fashioned from an old silk blouse also dyed rose. They were both very respectable and decidely ingenious except that in the dying process the silk and cotton had come have exploded that idea. The first time the kittens left their box and began exploring the woodshed Tippy dog was there as an interested spectator. Mother Whisky sat on the steps watching her babies on out in different shades of pinkl One pair has a finishing touch which I though was particularly British—as a joke someone had em-broidered Cicely's initials on the this their first adventure into the unknown. Tippy stood near her, also watching—ears cocked and a mystified expression on his face as if wondering what these queer little

Very Bright Child Is Usually Sturdy

The extremely bright child not usually a physical misfit.

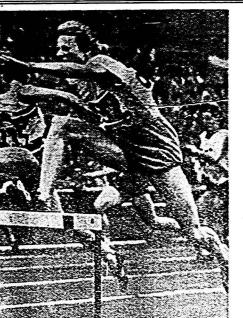

In fact, he's more likely to be superior in size, strength, muscular control and general health to other children in his age group, says Paul Witty, professor of education at Northwestern University. Witty says the idea that extremely bright children are "physically weak, unsocial, bespectacled misfits' has no foundation whatsoever." Witty cites a study which traced the careers of 1,500 "very bright individuals" from childhood into adulthood. That and other less extensive studies support the view that unusually intelligent children re usually physically superior also, One of the greatest shortcoming of today's school system is their failure to recognize and conserv-

Struggling Along Prices don't seem to go down, do Prices don't seem to go down, do they, Mrs. Riggs?"
"No, they don't Mrs. Diggs. Like I was saying to my man the other night, after we pay our income taxes, keep up the installments on our apartment house, buy a few bonds, put the boys through college and buy our clothes, what have we language 54. Italian river 20 21 - 22 22 24 25 26

> Whoa, Gal! - The very latest here by Dorothy Malone, movie feature player. The white shirt is of heavy, rough crepe, with gold nailheads across the yoke ine. Frontier pants are of beige gebardine. Ten-gallon hat and white string gloves with cham-ols paims complete the ensem-ble. Giddap, gal

Scores First Olympic Double—Fanny Blankers-Koen (right) of Holland clears the final hurdle as she wins the Olympic women's 80-meter hurdles in 11.2 seconds, breaking her own world's record of 11.3. The Dutch housewife is a mother of two children. Second is Maureen Gardner of Britain.

Jane Andrews.

Cover tightly and shake well. Chill. Potato Salad

4 cups cooked, diced potatoes

4 hard cooked eggs, chopped 1/2 cup finely chopped onion

% teaspoon pepper 2 tablespoons vinegar 1 tablespoon prepared mustard

2 tablespoons chopped parsley Mix all ingredients, moisten with mayonnaise and chili until serving

Hearty Salad Bowl
Cook 1/2 pound long spaghetti in boiling, salty water until tender;

frain and rinse in cold water.

Toss together the following: 1/2 head curly endive

1 cup chopped celery

teaspoon paprika

2 teaspoons salt

ou keep these favorite homemade fressings on hand, and if greens are washed well in advance and crisped in the refrigerator, tempting salads can be made in a jiffy. Even leftovers can be turned into nteresting salads that will temp aded summer appetites.

Cardinal Dressing tablespoons vinegar, 1 teaspoon ninced onion, few grains each, paprika and pepper, 1 peeled clove of garlic and ¼ cup catsup. Cover tightly; shake well. Chill several hours. Shake thoroughly before using. Excellent for simple green salads, vegetable and chef's salads.

Old-Fashioned Cooked Dressing 8 tablespoons corn starch 2 teaspoons dry mustard 2 teaspoons salt 1/8 teaspoon pepper

½ cup chopped celery 2 tablespoons finely chopped Few grains Cayenne ½ teaspoon paprika 1½ cups milk 3 cup chopped green pepper 6 radishes, sliced thin 2 egg yolks 1/2 cup coarsely chopped cucumber 2 cups leftover meat

1/2 cup salad oil 2 teaspoons salt
34-cup French dressing
Add spaghetti and mix lightly. Mix first seven ingredients in a smooth. Add remaining milk. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly until mixture thickens and boils arnish with wedges of to Boil 2 minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from heat; gradually add to egg yolks. Return to heat for 2 minutes, stirring constantly. Re-move from heat and gradually beat

Makes 2 cups. Use with potato of 4 teaspoon pepper 4 teaspoon paprika 3 tablespoons vinegat ½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce 2 drops Tabasco sauce

1/2 cup salad oil

the iris benefits by exposure to sun and air, and that the "bulb" should be halfway out of the ground. Whichever method you adopt, your iris will be all the better if you the most "pestilerous" weeds go to give the soil thorough preparation before planting or moving them. A foot is not too deep to dig and a do so cause just trowelful of bone meal for each plant not too much in the matter of year. Number One

Enemy of most lawns is crab grass—and it, especially should cases pulling it out by hand, or with a wire rake, is not too big a chore; and since crab grass will not flourish

Speaking of rakes, here's a little tip which might be useful to some of you. If you have one of those bamboo rakes, and the tips have become badly worn down, this is al back to usefulness. Just dip the tips into really hot water for a few minutes—or until the fibres become soft-then bend into the prope shape with a pair of pliers.

to discourage its growth.

It's much easier to protect you grapes from birds and other "thieves" than it is cherries and other fruits. A small cellophane or paper bag, slipped over each bunch and then tied around the stem, will do the job and guard the fruit well. The bags may be put in place any time after the grapes are pea-size.

Either for planting or for moving your tall bearded iris, this is the best time of year. By setting them in the ground now you give the plants almost a year in which to anchor their roots firmly, and otherwise make themselves comfortable before blooming time comes around again next summer.

Transplanting iris is a fairly easy job as there is little fear of them just how deep the roots should be

SELL BY MAIL 40.000-WORD BOOK SHOWS WHAT. WHERE. WHEN AND HOW OF MAIL ORDER BUSINESS. GET IT! BEAD IT! PROVE IT! $1.00 postpaid. GREEN'S,

Dr. Chase's Ointment

With a record of 50 years as a most satisfactory treatment for piles or hemorrhoids

"OK, pal. That's a blue chip if I growth and rich blood."
ever saw one—speaking deliciously, of course."
"Using two grains instein making Post's Gra "Using two grains instead of one in making Post's Grape-Nuts "And these malty-rich, honeygolden Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes are a whole stack of good nourishare a whole stack of good nourishand rosy-cheek nourishment."

"Fellahs—I think I'll pop over the grocer's right now and buy

AUSTIN

The Car For Every Purse And Person

New Prices Delivered Toronto With Licence, Heater, Defroster, Spare Tire, etc.

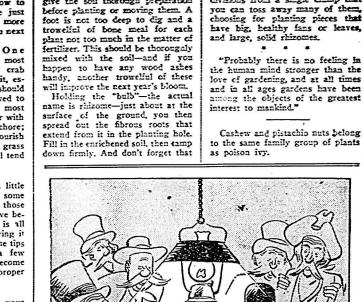

SERVICE

AUSTIN DEVON $1837.00

IMMEDIATE DELIVERY

Austin Ontario Motors Limited

considerable argument. Some experts claim that it is best for the thick, buildike part of the iris to be barely covered with soil. But others maintain just as strongly that the plants, once they are in place, should be thoroughly watered.

If you are moving old it is plants, they will require dividing. The central rhizome, with few if any leaves attached, might just as well be discarded. The other pieces abould be cut with a sharp knifezome, and make your cuts along them. As a rule there are so many divisions from a single chump that

"I'll raise with a package of super-delicious Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes"

"A spadeful of carbohydrates for energy."

"And minerals for muscle and "Fellahs—I think I'll pop over to the grocer's right now and buy up enough Post's Grape-Nut: Flakes for a full house."

SALES AUSTIN DORSET

MIdway 7348

921 YONGE STREET

TORONTO

