Odessa Williamson.

TRAVERTON

This Monday morning, October 25th, promises to be one ideal day of beauty and quietude.

The three Street brothers of Meaford, Walter, Victor and Charlie, motored over on Sunday p.m., coming by way of the Beaver Valley, and spent an hour or two with your scribe. The younger two are picking spies these days. "What is a good day's work?" I queried. He responded, "Twenty barrels if the day is fair." That means some wrist-twisting.

Mr. J. Cook and Shirley and Mr. R. T. Cook attended sale of cousin Albert, Cook of Maple Hill on Friday p.m. That is the last and only farm that remained in the same family, between Hanover and Walkerton, since pioneer days, over 100 years.

Though the oldest member of a pioneer family, Mr. George Warding is a husky fellow yet. He is holidaying at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. E. McNally, in the hamlet.

By the way, Mr. McNally has established an electric dynamo in the mill which will illuminate both grist and saw mill, barn, home and tourist cabin. Congratulations! Needs no dependence on Hydro.

Mr. and Mrs. James Peart and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Robinson visited with Mr. Ellsley Arnold of New Lowell the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Peart, Jean and Ralph were over to Clarksburg on Saturday, laying in their supply of apples for the winter season. Mr. and Mrs. Jos. R. Edwards and Whitney also brought home some fruit, though over there on other matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook and Miss Clara Jack attended the Teachers' Convention at Forest Hill on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Quarrier of Dundalk vicinity visited with Mr. and Mrs. E. Bryans who were celebrating their birthdays with a fowl dinner on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Jos. R. Edwards were also invited guests. No better cook in the township than Mrs. Bryans.

Mr. Nelson Hunt has purchased a 1936 Ford coach. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lindsay, Norma, Edythe and Allan of St. Paul's, Egremont, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hunt the first of the week.

Raymond Edwards of Varsity, Toronto, was home over the week-end. Mr. Stanley McRae of Guelph and Mr. Dave Brochagan of Palmerston were guests at the same home.

Zionite had sent a food parcel over to Mr. Douglas Curren in England some time ago. They got a lengthy letter last week, addressed to Supt. Mr. Ewen McNabb, expressing his sincere thanks and that of those benefited by it. It was read after service on Sunday.

(Intended for last week)

Rarely have the Ontario autumn woods been so glorious in rich colouring of shades. When the sun shone so brightly on Sunday forenoon, Oct. 17, the world about this vicinity was like a fairyland—scarlet, crimson, green, pink and yellow, the latter predominating—roadsides, valleys and hillsides all robed in riotous coloring. Only a few times in our memories of over four score years have they been so entrancingly beautiful. No wonder an eccentric pioneer exclaimed, "O Nature, Nature, Nature!! The grandeur, the sublimity of Nature!" The autumn woods this year exemplify it.

Mr. Oren Peart threshed for his father and brother, Will, on Friday of last week and then stored the outfit away in its storage home there.

The O'Neil outfit was hustling along the 10th con. and Ernie Ellison and son cleaned out 8 1/2 barns along the 6th. Some of these latter were barns filled to the peak, and the granaries needing props under the sleepers and mastsills. Grains are of good quality.

Rev. Mr. Mould of Priceville occupied Zion's pulpit on Sunday and won warm words of praise for his excellent sermon and his friendly manner. Rev. A. W. March had charge of the anniversary services in Priceville United Church.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Cook and Shirley visited the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Christie of Cargill. They held a birthday party for Shirley on Oct. 9th, on attaining her 13th year, at which 27 of her schoolmates were present and had a merry time and a big feast.

Little Nell Banks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Banks, is in Durham Memorial Hospital, and is far from being well.

Mrs. M. McCallum visited with her daughter, Mrs. Philip McDonald of Mulock and with her son, John McCallum of Hanover recently.

Zion's Young People put on their 3 act play, "Two Country Kids" at the Presbyterian Church, Markdale, on Friday night and on Tuesday night of this week are to present the same at Louise Hall in Bentinck for the young people of Crawford. Trust they acquit themselves well.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lawrence, Kelth and Stewart, visited with Miss Jennie Davis and Basil on Sunday.

Last week we had a brief visit from Mr. and Mrs. R. Samson of Flint, Mich. and Mrs. C. W. Rutledge of Markdale, also from Mr. and Mrs. S. Saunders and Robert of Chatsworth.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Peart and family visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Peart, South Glenelg.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lindsay, Norma, Edythe and Allan, of Egremont visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hunt and Bobbie on Sunday.
