

THE SYLVESTER

By BLANCHE ROBERTS

"Honest, I was fishing. I have never caught one so big before, nor half as pretty."

"Come in, young lady. Don't pay any attention to that son of mine.

He likes to chatter." It was easy to see that she adored him. "I'll give you some dry things to put on be able position with her head resting be sure. As her senses returned to waited several minutes, trying in vain to identify some familiar sound,

It was then that realization of what had happened to her came back to her mind. The air liner had crashed. She shuddered like she

"Are—are the others——?" She but he guessed what she was trying

o ask.
"I only found you," he said and his voice was gentle and soothing.

"Are you all right?"
"Yes." At least she felt no pain until they made land. He helped her out of the boat at a deserted old wharf in the cove. She looked at him then. He was young and tall, slightly stooped of shoulders and told her and there was a softness to his voice that betraved culture. "I clothes on. Ma'll loan you some of hers. She is no more than a mite herself—just about like you." He smiled down at her and Honey liked his face instantly, so open and simply and started to follow him and discovered that her equilibrium was not what it used to be. He took strength as they climbed the rocky cliffs to a little house sitting at the end of the trail, overlooking the ocean below. Even in the fog,

Honey marveled at the brightly colored flowers surrounding the house, the restful atmosphere every-where that spelled peace.

there was a caress even when he lifted his voice to shout.

"Ma!" the young man called and

A little white-haired woman came

"I will take you to my house," he and presumed she was not hurt.

There was no more conver-

very sun-tanned.

had a chill.

then she opened her eyes slowly.

take her coat off, but just then Honey remembered the stone fast-ened in her pocket, and she huddled CHAPTER VI. Honey did not know where she was and she hated to open her eyes deeper into the wrap. After all the the diamond she was not going to to find out. But her whole body take a chance of losing it now.
"Not yet," she told him with a ached and she was cold and very wet and lying in a most uncomfort-smile, and followed the woman into the small bedroom.

"Art probably didn't think to inroduce himself," said her hostess.
"I am his mother, Mrs. Carey, He is a nice boy but he forgets his manners now and them." Mrs. Carey normal, she became aware of motion and a chug-chug-ging noise like a small boat would make. She looked at Honey inquiringly.
"I am so glad to know you. My name is Honey-ah-Honey Roe." She smiled with relief when she she saw above her. She lowered the saw that the woman did not notice the hesitation over her name. She hated to lie about anything, but line of her vision and made out the gazing out to sea and sat very still, hunched over in deep thought, a on the moment it seemed the wison the moment it seemed the wis-est course to take. She was not ready to advertise her true identity. "That is a right pretty name." Mrs. Carey pulled things from the pipe between his lips.

"Where am 1?" she called, teeth chattering, and lifting her head from its hard resting place.

Her voice startled the man and dresser drawers and put them on the bed. "Kind of romantic, too. Well, here is everything now. You hurry and change," and she left the "Thank goodness you're alive." There was downright relief in his voice. "I was afraid . . . " He did not finish the sentence.

get there as soon as I can.".

The light woolen dress fitted per-fectly. She took the diamond from the fur coat and dropped it into the pocket of the borrowed dress whose skirt was rather full and hid the sag to some extent where the box weighted it down. When she came out of the room, there was a nice hot cup of coffee, toast and preserves waiting for her. Art was smoking his pipe and looking out of the window. He turned as town and notify the authorities of your safety," he suggested.

Honey shook her head quickly. That was the one thing she did not to inform and I hate to be bothered the crash for a while—if I can, she added wistfully. "There is no one to worry about whether I was saved or not." Her heart cried "Except Dan, and he may hate you by now for what he thinks you are. A thief," A shudder passed quickly over her.

"You poor lamb," consoled Mrs.

school chum.

"Sakes, Art!" she cried and came forward to meet them. "Who is that with you? Why, she is wet as that Art was a lawyer of profession but that he and his mother. that Art was a lawyer of profes-sion but that he and his mother were in California for his health. And now that he was well again, they would be going back to the Middle Western town to take up a drowned kitten."
"I certainly am," smiled Honey convincingly. "I have been in the ocean and he fished me out." She life where they left off

Modern Etiquette By Roberti Lee

her hand, should be apologize for n's glove?

A. No; it is not any more neces wearing shoes.

Q. When a young man and a girl have become engaged, and the man's relatives have called to see her, should the girl return the calls?

Q. Is it permissable to eat the A. Yes.
Q. Where does the bridegroom fore the wedding, to her home or to Q. How should the salad, roast dinner table? A. To the left of the plate, prongs roast fork next, fish fork on the outside.

Q. How should one address

Floats at Six-Months-Six-month-old Arlene Atwater of Roselle, N.I., floats leisurely in Elizabeth YMCA pool. Mother remains close at hand just in case.

ANNE HIRST

Your Family Courselor-

"DEAR ANNE HIRST: I am a | * This should be your ultimatum.

Otherwise, they will have to move

* place of their own. If you con-

they will be impressed. they will be impressed.
What alternative is there? A breakdown for you, with the convince them that this need is im-mediate, on your doctor's orders, daughter stay at home altogether.

Many a young couple have thoughtlessly rushed into mar-secure in the knowledge that "Mom" would take them in. They * until their future was more * secure. Mom, as usual, was more

But when it is a question of a * mother's health, then it becomes a * crisis. Only an ungrateful daughter and a selfish husband would

.. A mother takes over every family burden she can. Bu when her generosity is being taken advantage of, she must protect herself. Anne Hirst will help, if you write her 123 Eighteenth St., New Tor-mother 58 years old. My married daughter, her husband and baby live with me. Two months ago she started selling for a concern, and t keeps her away from 9 to 10 hours

"Please don't get me wrong. I love to take care of the baby. But for four years I've been under a doctor's care, who is warning me against a breakdown. I have a large home to look after. So you see between the baby, the house, and pre-paring meals, at the end of the day I'm so nervous I can't sleep.

"They live with me, because places are hard to get, I can't bear

to tell them to leave.
"I've explained how things are to my daughter, but she doesn't seem o care. I've even asked her husband to help with the baby evenings, but he said he works all day and won't

e tied down at night. Please tell

"NERVOUS MOTHER."

me what to do! . . . And God bess

A FIRM HAND

THESE TWO seem to need a firm hand. They are not facing unwelcome facts, or, knowing them, they refuse to be discom

hour to talk with them together, cause she has to? In that case, it is little enough for her husband to relieve you in the evening, and cheerfully, and do everything he can do to lessen your household burden. When you are providing a home for his wife and baby, he

many practical ways a man can around that home.

If your daughter is working because she wants to (finding calling on people more interesting than looking after her baby) then she shoulld give up the job and care for her own child, as well as helping you out.

Refreshing new idea for a chair-set! These graceful deer in flet crochet make an addition to any and have it out.

Is your daughter working be

you for the help you give others.

doctor in the salutation of a letter?
A. "Dear Dr. Smith." Always abbreviate the word "doctor". phrases to use when congratulating a bride and bridegroom? A. "May you have many, many Honey slipped quickly out of her wet things. And as she dressed, she asked herself: "I wonder how far we are from San Francisco? I must twinkled with fun, "I did know some girls in school, ma. I could have a visitor."

Right after lunch, which seemed the best meal she had ever eaten.

walk along the rugged shore with Art. The breakers pounding hard against the rocks, was calming to Honey's over-wrought nerves and

(Continued next week.) were fishing, weren't you?" 11. Be in debt 14. Wind indicator 15. Knocks 13. Presenta onesalf 13. Stiffly proper CROSSWORD 18. Knocks 29. Made of a certain wood 21. Imaginative writings 32. Fasten 43. Dofted 44. The cream 45. Matrons 47. Pander 30. Sunshade 34. Slipper 35. Unaccompanied 37. Palm fruits 39. Bee enclosure 40. Put with 41. Trifis 42. Cover 43. Exist 44. AlkaM 47. Leave PUZZLE 7. Artificial language 8. Hiker 9. Revolva rapidly 10. Owns 15 16 17 18

20 Answer to This Puzzle Will Appear Next Week

Q. When a man is wearing glores and meets a moman of his acquaint-ance on the street and she offers sary to apologize for one's glove than it would be to apologize for lettuce leaf?

have the bride's bouquet sent be-

and fish forks be placed at the world." "Good luck and God bless

she came in.
"I guess we should ride into Carey sympathetically. "We won't mention it again. And if any one sees you here . . . Well, I can always invent a daughter or an old

Pattern 4766 comes in sizes 12 "Or," drawled Art and his eves 14, 16, 18, 20. Size 16, dress, takes 37/8 yards 39-inch fabric. This pattern easy to use, sit complete illustrated instructions. Send TWENTY-FIVE CENTS

(25c) in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern. Print plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER. Send your order to Box 1, 123 Eighteenth St., New Toronto, On

> How Can 1? By Ar- Ashley

Oh beautiful basic! It's KIND to your budget! Clear classic lines, adaptable collar, frivolous, fascin-

Q. How can I test the contents of canned goods, to determine it

A. Place a drop of water on top off the can to be opened. Run a sharp-pointed tool through the water and the tin. If the water is sucked into the opening, the con-tents are all right. If gas escapes through the hole and blows the

Q. How can I make a good cran-A. A good recipe is 2 cups o oranberries, 34 oup water, 1 oup of sugar. Cook for about 10 minutes, then cool, and bake in ple crust.

then cool, and bake in pre-Make a rim and strips across the Q. How can I prevent a coatume necklace from leaving a dark ring on the neck? A. Dip the necklace into shellac. This will prevent tarnish.

Q. How can I check falling hair?
A. Try rubbling a cut lemon into the roots of the hair, then wash in warm, soft water. This is claimed living room. Easy tool

Filet crochet is a simple-to-do ew design! Pattern 900 has direc to strengthen the halr. ions; charts.
Send TWENTY-FIVE CENTS Q. How can I prevent the fer oolns (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern to Box 1, 183 Elephosphi St., New Toronto, Opt. mentation of lams? A. By adding a small place of sulphate of potash to the boiling syrup.

By Rev. R. Barchy Warren Letters In The Bible

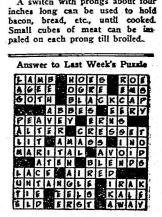

Philippians 1:1-11; 4:3-9. Golden Text:-These things have written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life. Twenty-one of the twenty-sever books of the New Testament are epistles or letters, most of them written by Paul. Sometimes be-screw-drivers are always handy. Dress down the ends till there are sizes to turn most standard makes cause a person was about to make If a tack or brad is pressed a journey to some church or churches, or to some place where a friend was, Paul would send a letter through a narrow strip of card-board, the nail can be held in hardalong, as he did to Titus in Crete. Because the church at Philippi had to-get-at-places, without danger to fingers, etc. sent a present to Paul in Rome, For a noon-day lunch in winter, a hole should be dug with the snowshoe down to earth, and a fire built where it is sheltered from winds, and still not melt down and Paul sent back a "thank-you" letter by this same messenger when he returned—the letter to the Philip-especially evident in this lesson. He was writing from a Roman prison, and doubtless recalled his prison experience when he first visited Philippi. Though he and Silas had been beaten and their feet fastened in the stocks, at mid-night they prayed and sang praises unto God. This same dauntless spirit possessed him now. He was no whiner. He was praying with joy, confident "that He which hath begun a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Jesus Christ."

While one faces the fact of physical illness it is indisputable that a considerable proportion of ailments arise from unhealthful thinking. Worry is the greatest disease. Paul gives us good advice, "Whatsoever things for true honest just honest in the constant of the co

A switch with prongs about for

HANDY HINTS

A power emery-wheel is the fast-est cutting tool one can use for sharpening dull edges. Lacking this grinder, a thick blade can be re-duced to usable shape by careful ducted to usable smape, by calcular work with a file, taking off the excess metal until it is thin enough. Then it is brought to a keen catting edge on a whetstone. Always work from the back towards the

. . .

A number of different

... no need to keep it in the ice box!

At your grocer's.

Keeps in the cupboard for weeks! Always right there when you need it! It's New Fleischmann's baking discovery that gives you delicious breads and rolls in quick baking time. No dashing off to the store at the last minute-just keep a supply

Yeast handy in the cupboard. Use it as you need it.

IF YOU BAKE AT HOME—get Fleischmann's

Royal Fast Rising Dry Yeast today:

of New Fleischmann's Royal Fast Rising Dry

Royal Fast Rising Dry Yeast-the modern

----×----Damaged Enough An ambulance-chasing lawyer picked up a lady who had been knocked down by a Washington streetcar. "Here's my card, lady," he said, "I'll get you damages." of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food of real enefit in helping you rest and eat "Don't be an idiot," snapped the restoring nervous energy. "I don't need no more damage What I need now is repairs." So try this time-proven remedy which has helped thousands who

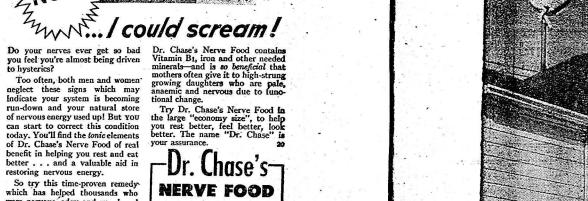

for quick baking

FLEISCHMANNS

AST RISING IN ROYAL

DRY YEAST

-Dr. Chase's-NERVE FOOD were nervous, edgy and run-down!

us a price, we accepted, providing he took them all—either that or all right again.

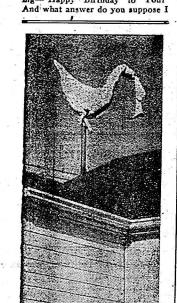

HRONICLES

GINGER FARM

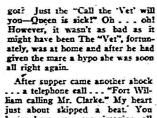

none at all. He agreed. There were about forty. Then he started catching them. Presently he threw one down—"That's a cull," he explaindown.—That's a cull," he explainad. "Just a minute," said Partner,
"you said you, would take them all at the price we agreed on." The man started to hedge but Partner stood his ground. That kind of thing has happened before. A buyar comes in, takes his pick of the flock, and then tries to leave us with the poorer birds. This time it didn't work. Partner did not try to force a sale, in fact he repeatedly to force a sale, in fact he repeatedly told the man to put back what he had caught and we would sell to someone else. But no, he wouldn't do that. Finally he took them all—and after that he got away in a weren't sold after all. One got away and we haven't been able to eatch her since! Now our Light Sussex pullets are in the hen-house. It is going to be interesting to see which pullets put on the best show in another pen we have hybrids -a cross between Barred Rocks and. White Leghorns. Both breeds are new to us.

Friday just about everything hap-pened—and it was Partner's birthday. He didn't remember it, and Bob and I did not remind him until we had been down town and got some birthday pipes and cigars.
Then I also produced a card from daughter which had arrived in the mail that morning. When Partner same in from the barn I was sing-ing-"Happy Birthday to You!" And what answer do you suppose I Surprise: surprise! -- When Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Weitzel, newlyweds, return from their honeymoon they're apt to get a shock when they see the just about sapped a beat. I on know how you can imagine all kinds of things in the space of a few minutes. But the call wasn't about Daughter—it was FROM her—just a call to wish her Dad and she couldn't have hit on a better one. It was just wond ear her voice, and from her happy laughter we knew she was all right. Daughter could have sent a wire, and it would have brought her measage, but there was a lot more satisfaction in hearing her voice. It was also doubly welcome since there is no possible chance of her being home for Christmas. Well, after Partner's telephone call he went down to the barn again, just to make sure everything was all right. He always does that some time during the evening anyway as he says if there is anything wrong with the animals that it is the most likely time for it to show. He thinks to leave them from one chore time to chore time next morning long altogether. Coming back he sang out as he opened the kitchen door—"What's the use of a birthday if you can't have things go right?" Here's what happened. He took a warmish drink of water to Queen-and she wouldn't touch it. his manger—and he promptly up-set it. He thought one cow was looking as if she wanted a drink so he put a pail of water in her manger. She snuffled around it with her nose until it, too; was upset. It all had to be cleaned up. Then Partner took a look at the heifers he has running loose in the barnyard—and they weren't there! Somehow or other they had nosed open the back door of the barnyard and were run sing around in the muddiest part of the outside vard. And it was muddy after the heavy rain we had had. So Partner was quite ready to say with Gracie Fields—"What's

Speaking of Christmas . . . we iends who care to come. But I am thinking I had better start spring housecleaning in the middle of winter! Partner's sister in England says she hopes to visit us this sumer-and there is just a chance two cousins may also be coming.

> Secret of Health

Grandpa Cartmell was celebrating his 100th birthday and everybody complimented him on how athletic and well preserved he appeared. were married 75 years ago. On our wedding night we made a solemn pledge that whenever we had a fight, the one who was proved the open air practically contir for 75 years."

Facts, Not Alibis,

has ever hit Ontario.

authorities who have been respons ible, says The Financial Post.

er confuse the issue, and further postpone its correction. CCF'ers are making the Hydro affair a major weapon in their fight against George Drew. This is a precarious limb for them morning's mail. Among the letters with embossed headings he saw Alfred's cheap writing paper and careful penmanship. He reachit to his secretary with instructions. It took four months of bureau cratic gear-grinding for the King's week, an official buff-coloured en-velope flopped on to Alfred's doormat. Inside was a letter signed by Food Minister Strachey's private secretary: "Your letter . . . was reof Food who, by His Majesty's command, has given it careful consideration and has decided that . an exception to the genera rule . . . may be made in your case."

Said Alfred: "When my wife and I realized what 'the King had done

we burst into tears." The Bookshelf ...

Py C. A. Ashley The Professor of Commerce the University of Toronto has written a book which, while it may not have any great appeal to the general-reading public, will undoubted! ecome a "must" for all forward looking business executives. It will be all the more welcome because there is very little Canadian material of recent date easily available on the subject.
In this book Professor Ashley

Corporation Finance

deals with the forms of business organization, the formation and control of companies; the capital market and the stock m'arket; shares, bonds, borrowing, financial structure, combination and monopoly and a host of other matter and all in a manner both clear and concise. He is a recognized author ity on such subjects and was elected a Fellow of the Institute of Chartcred Accountants in 1947.
Corporation Finance . By C. A.
Ashley . The Macmillan Co. of Canada . Price f2.50.

Same As At Home An English guide was showing Kenilworth Castle to some soldiers from Ontario. "For hundreds of years," he proclaimed, "not a single thing repaired." "Say," observed one of the soldiers, "we must have

tive processes.

worse mess.

Hydro schemozzle.

So, in effect the CCF is saying:

We'll give you more of the same thing that has ended in the present

The CCF, furthermore, is the party which so vociferously predict-after the war. On that reasoning, the CCF would have had Hydro in Right now, there is a great scurrying around to find a scapegoat. Municipal, provincial and federal politicians are leaping into the maelstrom, each blaming somebody else.

at each other, each from its own partisan perch. All this is significant proof that Hydro is up to its neck

Over wide areas of the most highly developed part of Canada, factories are shut down for hours daily,

Now this issue has been pitched into party politics which will furth-to go out on.

It was under public ownership, which means political direction of

into its present mess, and one that threatens to be with us for years

In the private or stockholder business the management has the authority and the responsibility of doing the service they want.

From the archives of the Director makes many loving to me to which I only reply, 'Oh, not, Oh, not!" "Very respectfully

"JOSEFINA. The art of giving ceramic tile lustre finish was a jealously guarded secret in ancient Mesopotamia.

Aftermath of the Pennsylvania "Smog" Disaster—Patsy Fresa says goodbye to his daughter. Carol Lee, in Donora, Pa., before leaving with 40 other "smog" victims to recuperate Dr. Chase's Ointment at Wrightsville Beach.

order of the day.

1 Cup Sugar

Banana Cake
1/2 Cup Shortening

Mashed Bananas

1/2 Teaspoon Salt

2 Tablespoons Milk 1 Teaspoon Vanilla

Banana Frosting

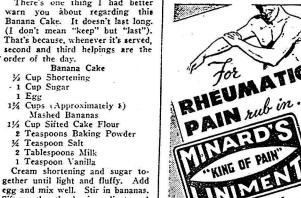

Sugar
Cream butter. Add bananas ane sugar. Mix until creamy and smooth Add more sugar if necessary for proper stiffness. Fills and frosts two 8-inch layers.

moderate oven (350 degrees F.) & minutes. Frost with banana frosting

When your BACK

14 Teaspoon Salt Graham-Cracker Crust Add sugar and vanilla to light cream. Stir to blend well. Mix Backache is often caused by lary kidney action. When kidneys get out of order excess acids and poisons remain in the system. The backache, beadache, heamatic pain, disturbed rest or that 'tired out' feeling may soon follow. To help keep your kidneys working properly—use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Time-tested, popular, safe, non-habit-forming. Demand Dodd's Kidney Pills, in the blue box with the red band. Sold everywhere, 115 mixture. Pour into refrigerator tray and freeze until firm. Remove to bowl and beat with rotary beater until free from lumps but still a hard mush. Return to refrigerator tray and finish freezing. Fill gra-ham-cracker crust with ice cream

"Do you love me more than anything else in the whole wide world?"

"Why sure, Darling! Except of course, there's honey-golden..."

"Honey Golden, eh? I knew it—a blonde! I'm going home to mother!"

"Hey, wait a minute! I mean honey-golden, malty-rich, oh-sowonderful Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes!"

"Oh, that's different!"

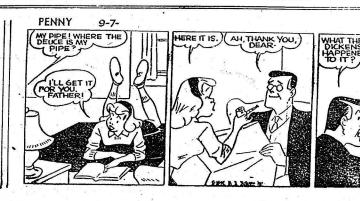

"Sure they're different! That famous Grape-Nuts flavor is different from any other cereal flavor in the world."

"Iknow, I know—because they're made from two grains instead of one."

"Sure—and loaded with carbo-hydrates and minerals and other food essentials."

"You win. Go ahead and have another bowlful—and I think I'll foin you!"

Paris, France, as a contest for the title of "Miss Automobile" gets under way. In case anybody

When the King Heard and Acted

Are kings worth what they cost? Pastry-cook Alfred Bell, 48, thinks so. Recently Alfred stook looking through the grubby window of an empty little shop in the main road of Bedhampton, a Hampshire village. He smiled broadly as he pictured the cookies and cakes and included the cookies and cakes and the cookies are cookies and cakes and the cookies are cookies and cakes and cakes are cookies and cakes and cakes are cookies and cakes are cookies and cakes are cookies and cakes and cakes are cookies and cakes are cookies and cakes and cakes are cookies and cakes and cakes are cookies and cakes and pies he would bake to fill it. "It's all the King's doing", he cried.
"God bless the King!"
After the First World War, in

After the First World War, in which he served as an RAF observer, Alfred had opened up his own pastry shop in London's Ealing. In World War II, Alfred joined the RAF again. His house at Croydon was bombed one night while Alfred was at home on leave. Alfred, his wife and their six children survived although Alfred was left with a erippled leg, his wife with a weak Labour rated Alfred as "unemployable." Four times he had applied for a permit to open a pastry shop in Bedhampton, to which he had moved. Four times he had been

Last April, Alfred sat down in his red-curtained sitting room and wrote a letter to the King at Buckhe whole story. A few days later, King George VI was sitting at his Georgian walnut desk in the lofty blue and white

HERE IS A PRACTICAL, VERSATILE RUBBER STAMP DEVICE THAT MAY BE USED IF NO STANDARD CHANGEABLE STAMP IS AVAILABLE, IT CONSISTS SIMPLY OF FLAT
BANDS SNAPPED AROUND A WOOD BLOCK AND ARRANGED TO FORM THE DESIRED
BOMAN NIMEPED

the same landlords."

Puzzle-Find the Car-Beauty in wholesale lots descended on an automobile exhibition in

The present power breakdown is the greatest industrial calamity that wants more public ownership, more business is disrupted, workers' in-come is cut, housewives are seri-ously inconvenienced and property is endangered. Production is being lost and employment is being sacrificed. And as yet there has been no adequate or convincing explanation of this colossal failure from the in politics. And that's the real cause of today's trouble. No further hunt for alibis and scapegoats need be made. The culprit is public ownership. which means, inevitably and irre-vocably, political control of Hydro.

> all that is necessary to assure the present and future welfare of the enterprise. If it mismanages of miscalculates its reserves, it collap s or goes broke. The same happens when it fails to give its customers But enterprises run by politicians tably get into trouble because the interests and problems of the politicians are different to those of In the Hydro mess, Canada has a demonstration of what the Socialists of Education in Manila (quite some has abstracted, or copied, this heartrendering letter of resignation pen-ned by a harassed native teacher: "Dear Sir, I have the honour to esignate as my works are many nd my salary are few. Besides which my supervising teache

Much Work, Small Pay

CUTS BURNS and BRUISES And in concinsion, here's the mos-easily made frosting I've ever res-across—not only for banana cake but for almost any other kind. I'm sure you'll get a surprise at how much powdered sugar the mashed bananas will take up, and, by the way, you can leave the butter on if you choose, although the textur may not be quite so creamy. Full e bananas are best.

1 Tablespoon Butter
36 Cup (Approximately 2)
Mashed Bananas
4 Cups Sifted Confestioners'

ACHES...

