The girl cried, "Give me that let-were struck down.

" She reached out but her hands

The masked man swung his horse close. He struck his gun barrel hard against his companion's shoul-der. "Give that back!" he ordered.

The man obeyed, then hurried to his horse. The masked man sat rigidly in the saddle for a brief interval, staring at the girl from between sombrero brim and mask

Then he swung his mount and rode

The stage driver hit the ground and grabbed up the guard's rifle.

He fired rapidly into the shadows.

The crashing sounds rolled emptily Lannasa was a boom town. It had Trains and boats and stages had carried her into a country totally unlike her own. The Territory, all home. She thought of fine houses

A man stepped from a saddler's shop across the street. He caught ette, a tall, dark man in fine gray tant letter.

quickly away into the rocks.

WEST OF THE A Serial Story

The stagecoach had rolled brea takingly for so many weary miles over Arizona's dusty trails that its mere stopping startled its passenagainst the night quiet, threw them to panic. The ambush, cleverly planned, was deftly executed. A boulder twisted its narrow way onto the road and trapped the racing horses. Three men, mounted and armed, swooped down with grim, hawkish purpose. The rifle shot drilled the signaled with his rifle, and his two out over the desert. The girl stood companions dismounted. They were two hard looking men. The big, bewhiskered one covered the driver and guard. The short, swarthy man ierked open the coach's door. "Everybody out! Take it easy and nobody'll be hurt."

The passengers stepped out and were ordered into a line facing the masked rider. Two of the eight passengers were women, one a ta slender girl in gray. The leader was a black blur muffled by the mask. "We want nothing of you people. You'll not be harmed. Just stand quiet." His guns swung threateningly up-ward toward the two men atop the stage. He ordered them to throw had obeyed:

dust and heat, seemed a million miles away from Washington, her "You carry a money box for a man named Barron at Santa Bonita. and tree-studded avenues, and felt lonely—and a little afraid. We want it. Throw it down!' The guard muttered an oath, but and held Virginia's interest. He a metal box dropped to the ground. The unshaven bandit picked it up and climbed onto his horse. "That's all!" the bandit leader snapped. "Stand quiet for 15 min-utes. Come along, Pete!" But the swarthy man was eyeing the girl in gray. The moon slid suddenly from behind a black cloud, and its silvery glow touched her. Her face was young. Her features were finely molded, her skin a smooth white against which her blue eyes seemed very dark. Her hair had a golden sheen beneath her fashionable bonnet. Her long, full dress was gathered close to the youthful lines of her body. Pinned the neck-line of the dress, at her throat, was a cameo set in gold. It was at the pin that the swarthy away with a vicious tug that ripped open the girl's dress. She gasped and her hands darted to the parted waist. But she was not quick halted, her knees suddenly weak. enough to catch the envelope; it fluttered to the ground and the ban- thoughts. dit pounced upon it.

summer in their vaults. However, if this isn't possible, shike the coat out thoroughly, and hang it out on a windy day for several hours.

cigarette stains that often discolor opper ash trays?

A. These can be easily removed by rubbing with a cloth dampened with ammonia and then dipped into any household cleanser. Wash in warm suds afterwards and dry well.

Q. How can I make a good sauce for ice cream?

A. A delicious sauce to spread over vanilla ice cream is chocolate over vanina ne cream is choosed covered peppermint candies, melted in a double boiler.

Q. How can I mend broken glass?

A. Glass may be mended with a cement made by dissolving white shellac in enough alcohol to make mixture of the consistency of molasses. This cement will resist ordinary wear, but should be kept out of very hot water.

Q. How can I remove paint and tty stains on window glass? A. By dipping a wet cloth into baking soda and rubbing the paste thus made thinly over the glass. Let remain fifteen minutes, and wash in warm soft water, without soap. This will bring all the stains with it. Rub dry, and polish.

Modern Etiquette by Roberta Lee

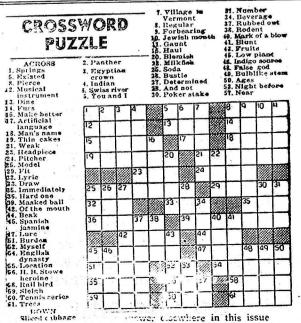

A. Either hand, but it should be whom he is speaking. Q. What is the most formal beginning of a social letter?

A. "My dear Mrs. Wilson," which

Mrs. Wilson." Q. When at the table and someone asks you a question while you have food in your mouth, should you answer promptly and try to nanage the food at the same time? A. No. Wait until the food has been swallowed. Say, "I am sorry," then answer the question. This is much better than trying to talk and not being understood. Q. When entering a theater,

How Can I?

Q. How can I store a fur coat and avoid moths? A. It is the better plan to have a reliable fur store clean and giaze the fur coat and store it for the Then wrap it carefully in newspaper (moths hate the smell of printers ink), and pack in an airtight clothes bag or cedar chest.

Q. How can I remove the ugly change her wedding gifts?

A. Yes; if they have no particular sentiment. It is quite all right for the bride to return to the store from which it came an article for which she has no possible use, or a "duplisomething she really needs. How-ever, if the gift carries a definite significance, or is marked with her initials, it cannot be exchanged. hand or left hand when tipping his hat? O. Should a man use his right mushroomed up almost over night, the hub of a cattle and silver coun-try. But the handwriting was al-ready on the wall. The railroad was coming through, but it would miss Lannasa by 20 miles. Virginia Ames stood at her hotel window looking down into the dusty, sun-blasted street. Her dark just finished reading, for perhaps the hundredth time, her all-impor

church, or other such place, and no usher is around, should the man go first down the aisle?

A. Yes, the man should proceed down the aisle first, and then stand aside and allow his companion tenter the row of seats first.

12-20, 49 Make this for a housedress now, for sun later. A beautiful sight to see, a cinch to sew, a jiff to launder Pattern 4884 comes in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20; 40. Size 16 takes 36 yards 35-inch fabric. This pattern, easy to use, simple to sew, is tested for fit. Has complete illustrated instructions.

Send TWENTY-FIVE CENTS (25c) in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern. Print plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER. Sond your order to Box 1, 123 up. "You know," he said, "I'm beEighteenth St., New Toronto, Ont.

Socks That Will Sock Pop's Bankroll

This gossamer evening model boasts a hand-appliqued 24-carat

ANNE HIRST Your Family Counselor

* gether, and sympathy is often * misunderstood for love. You are * both married, and you, as a mother, must be escpecially dis* creet for your children's sake. If * you are considering two divorces, * you do not know whether either * of you can get one.

* Play safe now, and don't give

* your children any reason to be * ashamed of you. Keep them in * mind, and you will find the cour-

Money is the root of much evil,

* age to do what is right.

New Power For

have your grandmother's parlor lamp of snow white milk glass, a lovely one of china decorated wih a cluster of delicate pink roses, or a crystal or tinted glass with simple graceful lines. These need only a little remodeling to bring them back and convert the ones which would make good looking lamps to harmonize with your furnishings. Usually, coal-oil lamps need little remodeling. You simply unscrew or pry off the oil burner and insert converter socket. There is no need of drilling or other shop work of any kind. When buying fixtures at your local electric shop, take your lamp along so you will get the right size. Converters are available in various sizes that correspond to the commonly used burners in your old oil lamps.

Here is what you need: (1) A socket body with cap; (2) A converter with opening for cord to fit into socket cap and lamp base; (3)

A cord with fitting to plug into wall to use a reflector bowl or shade threaded outside as well as inside.

Cords come in white, ivory, gold, or brown. A cord bearing the labe which shows that it has been tested by the Underwriters' Laboratories assures you that it is safe to use in

For jugs and vases, a short piece

f threaded tubing inserted in a stopper of cork, wood or rubber the top will hold the unit in place

side for the cord can then be screwed

DOES YOUR

BACK ACHE?

onto the threaded tube.

You can get sockets equipped with socket; (4) A shade.

Old Lamps

married for years. I have had 13 children, 12 of whom are alive; eight good money. I any of my own before. But now years I've been working in a hospital, making my husband thinks I should pay all the bills.

"I do all my housework, pay for the laundry, buy the children's clothes. I have furnished the house decently, so they are not ashamed to entertain their friends.
"My husband and I never speak except in argument. He has been unfaithful, running around with other women. I have had to do washing, and housework, and at one time even had to go on relief to raise my children.

"Five years ago I met a very fine man. He has the same trouble I and says he loves me. "I will be looking for any advice that 'you may give. I read your column every day, and think you are wonderful. LOOK AHEAD Any woman who has gone through the hard times raising her children that you knew, deserves to keep whatever money she makes now for herself.

But I'm afraid you will never * get your husband to assent. Like * many a man whose wife goes to work, he sees the chance to evade paying the household bills, and spend that money on himself.

Yet if you use your income for all those bills, how can you save anything for your future and the children's? And save you must, while your salary is still coming in. It will be smart to bank, each month, a percentage of your income, and live on the rest. That will make it necessary that your husband share the home expenses.
You will have to explain this * tactfully, and let him understand that one of you must look ahead, Can't you somehow manage to * get on friendlier terms with your husband? In spite of his past con-* duct, he is the father of your * children, and for their sakes you * must do all you can to maintain a pleasant atmosphere in the home.

* Avoid all the dissension you can, and contrive to talk with him or subjects upon which you can I know that, at the moment, * this other man's friendship gives you a lift. It is a common prob

Olee-Olee-Oleo

A Chicago housewife, during war enough red points to get butter as well as meat and served oleo over her husband's fervid protests, for he liked to splash butter an inch thick over his breakfast toast.

Sitting in a draft—working in a damp place—wet feet—there are dozens of things which may cause a backachel But there's one way thousands of Canadians have found to help relieve this condition—Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. This effective remedy tones up both 'the kidneys and the liver—nd brings welcome relief from pains 'n the small of the back caused by 'cold' in the kidneys. So insist on this reliable remedy—proven by over half-a-century's use—Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. At all drug counters. One day, however, she finally managed to get a quarter-pound of butter, real butter! She placed it on the breakfast table with great ceremony and awaited his outburst of delight. But he was deep in the morning paper and without raising his eyes cut a liberal portion, splashed it on his toast, and began to crunch. After a while he looked

NEW and USEFUL TOO --

SOAP CREAM. A new form of soap so mild that it doesn't even sting a baby's eyes. Takes out soil and puts in oil. Made for those who wish to avoid drying and roughen-ing action, on some skins, of ordin-

FOR HOME WIRING. Floor and table lamps can be turned on and off from doorway switch with-out disturbing electric clocks, tele-vision, radio, etc., if all such home electrical equipment is plugged in to this new plug-in-strip. SOLDERING TOOL By actua test this tool makes it possible to complete the average soldering job in less than two seconds starting with an absolutely cold tool. Tool itself is plastic, weighs only 4½ ounces, resembles a long-nosed pliers and has actuating lever of HOME PAINT SPRAYER. make paint spraying practical small jobs, this self-contained which can be carried anywhere has been developed. Total weight in-cluding a quart container is only 4 pounds. Besides paints, enamels and varnishes the sprayer handles deodorants, disinfectants and in-

ELECTRIC MATTRESS. new bed warmer that is actually an electric mattress. Designed for all over sleeping comfort and said to be specially helpful for sufferers from rheumatism and sciatica. Makers say it is safe with no danger of overheating or short circuits.
FLAME RETARDANT PAINT. Fire-retardant paint and coating that's non-toxic. Said to be easy to handle, can be applied from ori-ginal container with brush or spray-gun. Tests show that paint generates no smoke or poisonous gases when attacked by fire; when unpainted lumber is treated wood can withstand a 2,000 degree F. blow torch for 30 minutes without any flame spread. TOUGH REPAIR CEMENT. Neither the action of most chemi-cals nor heat up to 350 F. can hurt this new resin which is used as repair cement. A hammer and chise is usually required to break it. Adheres well to glass and (with the use of primer) to metal THIN STEEL WALL COVER-and disagreements about it can des-troy a marriage. If this problem confronts you, ask Anne Hirat's counsel Address her at Box 1, 123 ING. Ribbon steel coated with porcelain is one of the newsat things in wall covering. Marketed in lengths of 100 feet rolled, is said to be applied more easily than wallpaper. Makers say it is almost impossible to chip or crack the porcelain layers. Applied to any conventional flat surface, such as plasters at the same of the porcelain walls are the same of the sa ING. Ribbon steel coated with Eighteenth Street, New Toronto, ter or plywood, with glue such as is used in laying linoleum. Old brown jugs, coal-oil lamps, modern or antique vases can be con-verted for electricity. Perhaps you

The florist's new assistant picked up the phone and listened attentively as he heard the order.
"The ribbon must be extra wide," the man was saying, "with the 'Rest in Peace' on both sides, and There was a sensation when th flowers arrived at the funeral. True the ribbon was extra wide, but the inscription it bore read: "Rest in peace on both sides, and if there I room, we shall meet in heaven."

Wast to be a secress? Keep ca earning after you know it all.

SHOES

DEL GRANDE SELBY Sizes 5 to 10 Widths AAAA to E

FOR MEN -THE HARTT SHOE

MAIL ORDERS WELCOME JOHNSON'S Quality Shoes Since 1890 350 Eglinton Ave. W. HU. 3882 TORONTO, ONTARIO

RELIEF IS LASTING There's one thing for the headache : : the muscular aches and palma that often accompany a cold . : « INSTANTINE INSTANTINE brings really fast relief from pain and the relief is prolonged!

So, get INSTANTINE and get quick comfort. INSTANTINE is compounded like a doctor's prescription of three proven medical ingredients. You oss depend on its fast action in getting

Sconomical 48-Tablet Bottle 69¢

FLEISCHMANNS

ROYAI

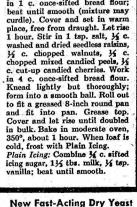

EAST RISING

DRY YEAST

Sweet Luncheon Treat

SUGAR-PLUM LOAF

Measure into small bowl, ½ c. lukewarm water, 1 tsp. granulated sugar; stir until sugar is dissolved. Sprinkle with 1 envelope Fleischmann's Royal Fast Rising Dry Yeast. Let stand 10 min., THEN stir well. Cream ¾ c. shortening; gradually blend in 16 c. granulet d sugar, Gradually 1/2 c. granulated sugar. Graduany beat in 2 well-beaten eggs. Stir in 1/4 c. milk and yeast mixture. Stir in 1 c. once-sifted bread flour;

New Fast-Acting Dry Yeast Needs NO Refrigeration! Stays fresh and full-strength on your pantry shelf for weeks! Here's all you do:

In a small amount (usually specified) of lukewarm water, dissolve thoroughly 1 teaspoon sugar for each envelope 2 Sprinkle with dry yeast. Let stand 10 minutes. 3 THEN stir well. (The water used with the yeast counts as part of the total liquid called for in your recipe.)

Get a month's supply!

TABLE TALKS clane Andrews.

Veal shoulder
3 tablespoons bacon fat 4 cup cho.ped onion

1 teaspoon salt 1/4 teaspoon pepper

4 teaspoon marjoram

1/4 cup chopped green pepper 1/4 cup chopped celery 2 quarts day-old bread cuber rom veal shoulder. Melt bacon fat, add onion, green pepper and celery and cook till soft, but not brown. Add mixture to bread cubes. Add seasonings and milk and mix well

That character I have sometimes selerred to in these columns my husband, if you must know the facts -says that the correct name is "pie plant". But then he thinks that a "rhubarb" is when six or seven hockey players start slinging punches at one another and only stop when one of them gets hi But he'll eat it—and ask why didn't make another-even if I insist 2 cups cut rhubarb

1 cup sugar
1 tablespoon flour
2 cgg yolks
1 tablespoon melted kutter Method—Cook the rhubarb until ender. Mix the sugar and flour, and add gradually to the rhubarb, stirring constantly. Cook until thick. Beat the egg yolks and add to the mixture, and cook three min utes. Remove from the heat and add the butter. When cool, pour into a baked pie shell. Top with a meringue made from the two egg whites and three tablespoons of sugar. (Beat the egg whites until stiff, add the sugar, and heat until the mixture thickens again.) Pile ghtly on the filling, then return t

"Chicken Every Sunday" is the title of a very fine book-which, of course, I don't need to tell most o you, because you've already read it But whether you have chicke every Sunday, or just "once in a while" there are generally some leftovers, which can be made into a really tempting luncheon dish if you

Chicken and Celery Casserole 2 cups chopped celery 4 tablespoons chicken fat 4 tablespoons flour

dash :pepper 1 cup chicken stock cup milk cup water drained from celery 2 cups diced, cooked chicker

1 cup corn flakes 2 teaspoons melted butter or margarine Cook celery until tender; drain, saving water. Heat chicken fat; atir in flour, salt and pepper. Gradually add chicken stock, milk and water drained from celery. Cook until thickened, stirring constantly.

Spread layer of chicken in greased sserole. Add laver of celery, ansauce over top. Sprinkle with corn fakes which have been crushed into fine crumbs and mixed with melted butter. Bake in a moderately ho oven (400°F.) about ten minutes c intil thoroughly heated.

Sometimes I think they should answers to those puzzles and quizzes

Spread veal open, spread with stuffing and roll like a jelly roll. The roast firmly with string (about seven strings around the roast will hold it firm). Place roast on a rack in a shallow pan and bake uncovered in a slow oven (300 degrees to 325) a shallow pan and bake intoversely in a slow oven (300 degrees to 325 degrees F.) till meat thermometer registers 170 degrees F. or about thirty-five to forty minutes per pound. Serve with gravy made from drippings in pan. Yield: twelve to fourteen servings

How Animals Hear

short of the highest ranges, there are some sounds in the everyday imal world which are beyond us things that animals and birds canoot.

If you doubt this, just strike rumor that a tobacco company would give her a seeing-eye dog if she collected 40,000 of them. When Michigan residents heard of her plight they donated a puppy. When Bonnie is 12, they will give her a real sceing-eye dog. But until then, Bonnie is baving a wonderful time with her playful pup.

Dreamer, Awake!

As elderly gentlemas who con-gistently went to sleep during thurch services became quite a challenge to his minister. Surely, thought the pastor, there must be a way to cure him.

The following Sunday the old gentleman fell asleep during the sermon, as was his custom Imme-diately, the minister went into ac-tion. "All those who want to go to the weap?" he whistogred, "olease

I'm working from dessert back-wards. However, I don't think I need apologize for giving you this veal recipe. But first, just a word about that particular kind of meat. about that particular and of mean, Veal comes from a young animal, and the muscle is tender, but lack-ing in fat. To make up for this, you should ask the butcher to "lard" a roast of yeal. And it will be an improvement, as well, if you lay strips of salt pork or bacon over the top before it goes into the oven. So

here's Rolled Stuffed Shoulder of Veal

Some Facts About Rheumatic Fever

You're worried about your boy out why. He may even run a ter perature now and then writes well known Child Specialist. You have been reading warning diagnosis may prevent permanent heart damage. But how do you know 'ov can even a doctor tell-

I had this letter not long ago. "My 10-year-old boy was kept in bed most of the time for six months, while under treatment for rheumatic fever. Our doctor finally suggested that we consult a specialist. When the specialist had finished all the tests, he said our child didn't have rheumatic fever - that This mother was relieved, natur-the school hours and play time lost from her child's life. She wanted to nose that the average doctor may make a mistake? What should a mother do if she thinks her child may have rheumatic fever?" this disease is deceptive as well as the bottom key on a piano, the sound will be audible to you, but not to your dog or cat. But dogs can hear sounds an octave above our top limit, and rats two octaves higher. Birds have an even higher level of hearing; the lowest sound audible to a canary is the highest C which a soprano can reach with her voice. So if you are inclined to talk to your pet canary, you're just wasting your time; the bird can't even hear you. While we can hear no sounds six octaves above middle C, bats produce and hear sounds in the eighth and ninth octaves above that point.

It is quite possible that some animals communicate in tones that we can hear no better than the carrary

Unseeing, But Happiness In Sight—Blind since birth, 5-year-old Bonnie Lee Kirchen, of Grand Ledge, started saving the red "tear-open" strips from cigaret packages when she heard a false whatever it is, we two sure are in ally, but she couldn't help regretting put and get on with this column. You see it is such a lovely day—dangerous.

Because human hearing stops to go to HELL, STAND UP! In 2 flash the old gent awakened nd jumped to his feet, looking first at the congregation, then at the

"I don't know what we're voting on, Reverend," he spluttered, "but He isn't sick, exactly, but he isn't eating well, is losing weight. Some-times he cries, and you can't figure that such vague symptons co mean rheumatic fever — 2 diseas that kills five times 2s many childre as diphtheria, infantile paralysis scarlet fever, measles, meningitis and whooping cough, all pu together!

If it is rheumatic fever, early what is such symptons mean the real thing?

and we have so few really bright days—that, according to Partner, I have been trying to do a week's work in one day. I haven't done quite that much but I have been The prevailing worry over rheumatic fever is understandable. For to do a lot of work on a nice day, than an ordinary amount of work on a bad day—especially when it comes

Many mothers have learned to be on guard for the well-known symptoms: persistent, unexplained fever; at this time of the year with the fleeting pains, and swelling of the joints; or St. Vitus dance (awkward, jerky movements of the face, arms and legs). Fewer have learned to suspect rheumatic fever when their children display less typical symptoms: failure to gain weight; vague, fleeting pains in the muscles and joints; loss of appetite. Indefinite as they are, these may be the only signs that a child has rheumatic fever. What to do about it? What should you, as a parent, know about rheumatic fever, in addition to the symptoms that I have listed?

Well, you should know that this heifer calfs from, promptly produce disease is likely to run in families; that it tends to attack its victims more than once; that the age at which it is most likely to strike first is between 5 and 15. You should know what kind of You should know what kind of tests a doctor must make, to prove rheumatic fever or rule it out. And insist on these tests if your child shows symptoms.

First, your doctor should make First, your doctor should make a complete examination of the child.
He, or a heart specialist, must make a careful examination of the heart, including an electro-cardiogram, be-cause the heart is so often affected privilege of taking her daughter rheumatic fever. He must make | with her, but in spite of all these a blood sedimentation test, to show concessions Jean was as "ornery" as the rate at which the red corpuscles a cow knows how to be—and that's separate out from the blood serum when allowed to stand; a hemowhite corpuscles.

during its acute stage helps prevent further attacks, and lessens the risk of heart damage. Further attacks of rheumatic fever.

yard, or throw herself. And she didn't get tangled up in the rope. These tests should prove or dis- In fact she didn't give the men much prove the diagnosis of rheumatic of a run at all. No, she was just what you might call a passive So, if you think your child has resistor.

A loading chute was lowered from symptoms, take him at once to your the truck and it would have been a man and his farm to become family doctor. If he is not equipped to do the necessary tests just deseasy for Jean to walk quietly up the eribed don't be afraid to ask him chute and into the truck where her this disease; but complete bed rest this daughter anxiously awaited her complete bed rest this disease; but complete bed rest this daughter anxiously awaited her complete bed rest this daughter anxiously awaited her complete bed rest this disease; but complete bed rest this disease. to refer you to a child specialist. this disease; but complete bed rest may also be prevented by small daily doses of a sulfa drug, given as soon as the first, acute attack is What about the chances of rewhat about the chances of re-eovery? If the heart is not damaged, or is only affected during the acute attack chances are good. Many chil-dren escape permanent heart damage altogether. Even children who grow up with rheumatic heart disease, often can have active, useful careers. But this cheerful outlook is made possible only by early and sure diagnosis, and by careful medical super-vision during and following attacks

Heavy, Heavy, Heavy?—Guess Again—Mary Toohill is not a lady weight lifter. What she's holding over her head is the world's lightest solid, weighing only eight pounds. It's a big chunk of the new plastic foam developed by scientists as an insulating material. It's made by helving a melecal life social insulating material. It's made by baking a molasses-like resin until it expands to 100 times its original volume. Even lighter than some gases, the new material weighs from 10 to 20 times less than fluffy pie meringue.

by Gwendoline P. Clarke

would happen. All this I was able to watch from my pantry window as I washed the breakfast dishes. And do you know, all four men seem to have so much patience with our Jean, in spite of her contrariness. There was no shouting or rough talk; no raised sticks or impatient

a time, inch by inch, up the loading to herself-"Oh well what's the use?

Four men to one cow is too much for any self-respecting bossie. So I guess it's good-bye, Canada." And she took the last two steps of her own volition—and landed in the truck. The calf said "Ma-a-al" Jean

. . .

Partner has just come in after

"walking the farm." I immediately asked what he thought of the wheat

-how had it come through the winter? Partner answered that one field was surprisingly good and the other field far better than he expected to find it. So that is reassuring—although we are not so foolish as to count our businels until they are safely in the bin. There are still that wheat to queer our chances of ter - is an awful gamble. We know men to buy farms for the wheat crop they thought would be on time that returns were barely enough to cover expenses. Maybe that ac-

"city-farmers" stick to the farm ever occupants have almost become birds of passage. We hardly get time to know our neighbors these days . . here today, gone tomorrow. Change of ownership is sometimes good for a farm-but it takes a few years for acquainted; for each to get the best from the other. Too many changes, that is what is happening-more and from the other. Too many changes, and the farm is bound to suffer. But more ever year.

ANT TO READ

after they have bought it. Farm plenty of things can happen

a good crop.

farewell to Canada,

chute. Finally Jean must have said prodding. What the men finally did was to lift Jean's front feet, one at water, so maybe I had better stay to the family wash. Dear knows sun peering into all the corners and showing up the cobwebs. And the windows so dingy you can hardly see through them-to say nothing week-and they are still coming.

It seems every time Partner comes in for a meal he announces the ar-rival of another calf. We keep shipping them out but we never get any less in number because as fast as one calf goes out another bulls; and the young cows he wants bulls from, somehow manage to cows with their calves at foot. One

U.S.A. and it took four men to con-saying plenty! She wasn't at all violent-she didn't run around the n his forehead. He was sitting ur when his mother got there. But he will always have a scar over his left eye, where the doctor took six stitches to close the wound. Some sharp point did it, the doctor said. A wonder it didn't hit his eye.

HEY!

Old machinery and accumulated junk don't make a good play-yard for children. Telling children to be careful doesn't solve the problem, either. Maybe Timmy was careles about climbing over that old disk. But he thought he was being as careful as possible. With spring here, it's time t

Remove Hazards—

Here's the story of a farm accident that actually happened. It comes from the files of a College Safety Specialist.

Junior, the six-year-old zeighbor announced his victory proudly. But young Timmy didn't agree. "You didn't hit me," he called from be-

Timmy and Junior often played

It was all right to play there,

Mother had said, but they were to be careful. Timmy thought of that

"Bang! Bang! Bang!"

all the time.

war around the old machinery ar hind the pile of old machinery.

can't shoot through my fort."

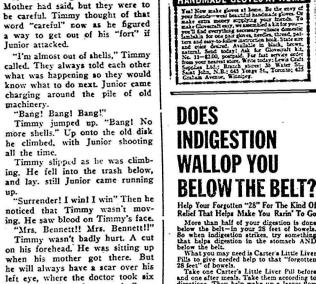

"Bang! You're dead!"

Save Lives

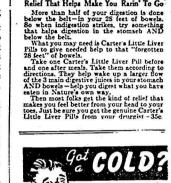

elean up, paint up and fix up. A little labor now will do wonders. A spring cleaning of house and I have just been getting into hot | push and shove from the rear, but tead can remove many hazard that could hurt, maim or kill. would try again . . . same thing

Let Well Enough Alone

Friend—"Don't you hate to be a old as 96, Uncle Joe?"

HANDMADE GLOVES AT HOME

an Got COLD Check it with MINARD'S
"KING OF PAIN" INIMEN

YOU WOMEN WHO SUFFER HOT FLASHES then EFER ALIEW

Here's Good News!

Are you between the ages of 38 and 52 and going through that trying functional 'middle-age' period peculiar to women? Does this make you suffer from hot flashes, feel clammy, so nervous, irritable, weak? Then no try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms! It's famous for this Many wise 'middle-age' women take Pinkham's Compound regularly to help build up resistance against this distress.

Pinkham's Compound contains no opiates—no habit-forming drugs.

Lydia E. Pinkham's VEGETABLE COMPOUND

