Verna Viola Young Weds in Owen Sound

Pink and white snapdragons, red peonies and pink candles in candleholders decorated Morrison Inn in Owen Sound on June 18th, at 12 noon, when Verna Viola Young of Holland Centre, became the bride of James Howard Thurston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thurston of Fiesheron, Rev. A. G. Macpherson conducted the ceremony.

The bride was given in white slipper satin, styled with sweetheart neckline, beaded bodice, long pointed sleeves, the full skirt ending in a slight train. A finger-tip veil was held on her dark hair by a coronet of waxed calla lilies and she wore a rhinestone necklace and matching earrings, the gift of the groom. Her present cascade was of Better Times roses and white stephanotis with ivy foliage.

Miss Sadie Young was her sister's only attendant. She chose a pink tulle frock, made with puff sleeves, sweetheart neckline and full skirt. Her long mittens were of white tulle with spring flowers and a pearl necklace, the gift of the groom. Her nosegay of red roses, white carnations and sweet peas tied with pastel ribbon. Bruce Thurston, brother of the groom, was best man.

For the reception at Morrison Inn, the bride's mother wore a navy mesh flowered turquoise silk jersey, white straw hat and white accessories. The groom's mother was in navy mesh flowered in petti-point with navy accessories. Their corsages were of pink and white roses. The bride's three-tiered wedding cake was flanked by baskets of pink snapdragons and white candles in silver holders.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurston left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Buffalo, the bride travelling in a gray gabardine suit, white blouse and

Local Man Gives Sister in Marriage

A pretty wedding was solemnized at Christ Church (Anglican), Stratford, at 2:30 o'clock on Wednesday, May 25th, with Rev. H. F. Appleford officiating and Mrs. Wilfred Bell playing the wedding music, when Wilma Marion Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Murray of Goring, became the bride of Thomas Albert Carefoot of Meaford.

Given in marriage by her brother, Thompson Murray of Markdale, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white satin with French lace insertions, tulle veil held in place by a beaded crown, and carried a cascade of fern and red roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Ruby Murray, sister of the bride, wore a floor-length gown of white satin with French lace insertions, tulle veil held in place by a beaded crown, and carried a cascade of fern and red roses.

The groom, Mr. Carefoot, wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white bow tie.

The wedding supper was at the home of the bride's parents.

GRADUATION DANCE

Marking the closing of the school term, the Literary Society of the Markdale High School presented a delightful graduation dance program in the armory on Friday evening.

The orchestra played the dance music. The armory was beautifully decorated with early summer flowers.

A refreshment booth was well patronized during the evening.

SISTER PASSES

Miss M. Dundas received word of the passing on Saturday of her sister, Mrs. A. R. Speers of Winnipeg, who has made her home for some years with her daughter, Mrs. Jones, at London. She had been ailing for some time and her passing was not unexpected. Surviving besides her daughter and sister, are a brother, Fred Dundas of Winnipeg for whom the remains were taken to Winnipeg for burial on Tuesday.

PLAN STREET FROLIC

Gordon Reaton, a past president, conducted the weekly dinner meeting of the Markdale Rotary Club in the armory on Tuesday evening in the absence of Geoff.
